Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Dec. 9. [To the Editor of The Times:] Been an awful lot in the papers lately about Russia. Funny thing about human nature; when we ain't feeling so good ourselves we always want to read about somebody that is worse off than we are. That was a terrible trick that fellow Stalin played on those eight convicted men. They had confessed, thinking they would be hung and put out of their misery. Now he tells 'em they got to live, but in Russia.

Not changing the subject—but somebody was just telling us that Congress was in session. We certainly hope that rumor is unfounded.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

HUNDREDS MENACED BY FUMES

Fifty Overcome in Store by Ammonia Gas When Pump Breaks

CLEVELAND, Dec. 9. (AP)—Fifty persons were overcome by ammonia gas and given treatment at hospitals here today when a refrigerating system broke in a downtown store. Only a few of the victims remain in the hospitals tonight, however, and they, like the others, are believed to be recovering rapidly.

Some of those who breathed the fumes fell unconscious in the street as they staggered from the building. Firemen and police restored them with oxygen and then hurried them into emergency ambulances. Most of the sufferers are women.

The breaking of an ammonia pump which a workman was repairing sent the fumes rushing through the four-story building, occupied by the Chandler & Rudd store and restaurant. There were between 600 and 800 customers and clerks inside when the gas broke loose.

AMERICANIZATION OF TURKEY TURNED DOWN

ANGORA (Turkey) Dec. 9. (AP)—President Mustapha Kemal has turned thumbs down on suggestions of Turkish modernists for the "Americanization" of Turkey. Imitation is for monkeys, he told them, but Turkey will work out its own development.

Department of Justice Feels Cost Too High With Wheat So Low

Inquiry on Bakery Profits Started Quietly in Several Cities

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—An inquiry by the Department of Justice is under way today to determine if the price of bread is so high in view of the current low prices of wheat to warrant action against baking corporations under the antitrust laws.

The investigation, it was learned, was started quietly some days ago in several cities. Some of the findings have been turned over to Asst. Atty.-Gen. John Lord O'Bryan. Whether they will justify his proceeding with prosecutions has not yet been determined.

With wheat selling at the lowest prices in many years the cost of bread in most places has remained stationary, and there has been a good deal of agitation in Congress for an investigation.

Representative George Huddleston, Democrat of Alabama, asked the Attorney-General last spring to make inquiry and more recently Senators George W. Norris, Republican, Nebraska, and Arthur Capper, Republican, Kansas, have made similar demands.

Senator Capper today introduced in the Senate a resolution providing for a complete investigation by the District of Columbia Committee into the prices of all foodstuffs in the city of Washington.

WITNESSES SOUGHT TO AID LINDSEY

Grace Episcopal Church Rector Defends Accused Former Denver Jurist

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Counsel for former Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver sought today to enlist witnesses who saw him leap onto a table Sunday in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine and demand a chance to answer Bishop William T. Manning's attack on companionate marriage.

The witnesses will be asked to testify in the jurist's behalf when he is brought to court Friday on charges of disorderly conduct. The bishop already has been subpoenaed.

Meanwhile Rev. Eliot White, rector of Grace Episcopal Church and an opponent of Bishop Manning on the companionate marriage issue, disclosed that two months ago he officiated at his own daughter's marriage which he called companionate because it was preceded by an agreement with the groom that would "postpone the advent of children."

His daughter Shirley, 22 years of age, was married October 18 to Chester G. H. Zucker, 28, of Roselle, N. J.

"Judge Lindsey is merely trying to formulate a code of marriage which shall take into account that which many women of clean thought and sensible minds really advocate," Mr. White said. "He deserved to remain in the cathedral and not be taken out by police and detectives."

COLUMBIA PROFESSOR BACKS BISHOP MANNING

POUGHKEEPSIE (N. Y.) Dec. 9. (AP)—Dr. Bernard Iddings Bell, professor of religion at Columbia University, resigned today from the New York Churchman's League because it invited former Judge Ben B. Lindsey to speak and heard him in defiance of the wishes of Bishop William T. Manning.

Dr. Bell said "those in control of the churchman's association are more concerned with baiting their bishop than they are with advancing the ostensible purposes of the organization."

GEN. BERNAL LOSES POST IN MEXICO

New Lower California Governor Appointed to Take Oft-changed Place

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 9. (AP)—The Department of the Interior announced tonight the appointment of Carlos Trejo Y Lerdo de Tejada as Governor of the Northern District of Lower California to succeed Gen. Arturo Bernal.

The appointee resigned the subsecretaryship of the Department of Education to accept the post.

CHANGE COMES AS COMPLETE SURPRISE

MEXICALI, Dec. 9. (AP)—The announcement in Mexico City tonight of the appointment of Carlos Trejo y Lerdo De Tejada as Governor of the northern district of Lower California succeeding Gen. Arturo Bernal came as a distinct surprise here.

Gen. Bernal succeeded Jose Maria Tapia as Governor five months ago and launched a series of public improvements during his brief term. He left for Mexico City last Friday to confer with the Secretary of Communications on his proposal that half of the Federal government's taxes levied in Lower California be applied to road construction work here.

Gen. Bernal gave no intimation he was expecting to be relieved as territorial chief executive.

CAT CAME BACK— OVER 600 MILES

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 9. (AP)—With its fur gray and shaggy, its feet battered and its claws worn, a cat bounded into the Tony Melrose home in Pittsburgh today.

It was Peggy, the family cat, banished last September because of its fondness for canary birds, and given to friends in Eugene, Or.

The cat's 600-mile journey, Melrose said, has won it a permanent home.

FIVE MEN DIE WHEN SCAFFOLD COLLAPSES

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Five bricklayers lost their lives today in the collapse of a scaffold at the tenth floor of an apartment-house under construction at Seventh avenue and Sixteenth street. They were Herman Otto, Henry Koerner, Alfred Maser and two others named Flynn and Olson.

California Law Placing Curb on Reds Attacked

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—The validity of the California statute prohibiting the display of the red flag in any meeting place as an aid to propaganda of a seditious character was attacked today in the Supreme Court.

Yetta Stromberg filed an appeal from the decision of the District Court of Appeals of California holding her guilty of violating that law.

The count on which Yetta Stromberg was convicted was based on the raising of a red flag at the Pioneer Summer Camp in San Bernardino county, after a conference in Los Angeles in July, 1929, which the State asserted was attended by Communists.

She challenged the conviction on the ground she was being deprived of constitutional rights.

Institution at Pasadena Left $10,000 in Will

CHICAGO, Dec. 9. (AP)—A bequest of $10,000 to the Pasadena Children's Home, Pasadena, Cal., was included in the will of Charles B. Scoville, filed today. Scoville, a director of the Elgin Watch Company and also the Central Trust Company of Illinois, died of pneumonia the 4th inst.

Mr. Scoville made additional bequests of $25,000 each to his son, Charles B. Scoville, Jr., of Pasadena, Susanne, his wife, and their three children.

Upton T. Leonard, representing the Central Trust Company, trustee, said the estate will range between $1,000,000 and $5,000,000.

WARSAW (Poland) Dec. 9. (AP)—Poland's Parliament opened today with an uproar by Communists, who were ejected.

The Communists were allowed later to return. Then they remained silent.

Guards seized the Communists when they cried, "Down with the Fascist regime," as Premier Slawek began reading the President's decree that constitutional reform would be the principal task of the Assembly.

NEW RADIO PLANE GUIDE PERFECTED

Direction Finder Can Be Used With Any Station; Eliminating Beacons

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—A new radio direction finder which can be used in connection with any commercial broadcasting station has been successfully tested by radio experts of Transcontinental-Western Air, Geodfrey G. Kruesi, radio research engineer for the company and the inventor, said today.

The device weighs only ten pounds and consists of a receiver, a loop antenna and a small meter. It obviates the necessity of erecting expensive radio beacons.

Pilot Harlan Hull described a test made on a run from Los Angeles to San Francisco. He tuned in on the government station at Oakland as he took off from Los Angeles, he said. Throughout the 400-mile flight the needle on the meter pointed to dead center when he was on the proper course and wavered to one side when he deviated from it. When he arrived directly over the station the needle vibrated.

The finder can be used as readily by ships.

Mr. Kruesi will demonstrate the invention before army officials in Washington next month.

Moscow's Voice Again Heard in Great Britain

LONDON, Dec. 9. (AP)—The voice of Moscow was again heard over the air in Great Britain tonight despite Foreign Secretary Arthur Henderson's recent protest to the soviet government against these broadcasts.

The program, which was part of a regular Tuesday night series to convert British workmen to Communism, consisted of an address on economic problems in which references were made to British goods.

Powerful sets were required to pick up the broadcast and it was pointed out that the more humble instruments of British workmen had little chance of receiving it.

DAUGHTER OF BARON ASKS $250,000 BALM

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—The daughter of a Viennese Baron, Huerta Rittel, laid what she said were the pieces of her broken heart before a jury in Supreme Court today and asked $250,000 for them. She charged Connant Hatch, secretary of the St. Joseph Iron Works, St. Joseph, Mich., whom she says she met in Vienna in November, 1929, promised to marry her "after he got his divorce." The divorce didn't materialize, she said.

HUGE SEA CRAFT LAUNCHED

Mrs. Hoover Christens Pacific Queen of Merchant Fleet Named in Honor of President

NEWPORT NEWS (Va.) Dec. 9. (AP)—The steamship President Hoover was launched here today with ceremonies befitting the new queen of the American merchant marine. A bottle of water collected from the seven seas and two canals, in the hands of Mrs. Herbert Hoover, christened the Dollar Line vessel as it gracefully glided down the ways into the James River.

Mrs. Hoover, aided by Mrs. R. Stanley Dollar, filled the flagon with the waters collected by the Dollar Line ships from the globe's great seas. There was great applause when it crashed against the towering prow of the ship that next summer will go into the Pacific trade between the United States and the Orient.

Mrs. Hoover said while it was not the first time she had christened a ship, today's event thrilled her even more than the occasion when she first acted as sponsor.

To her went the honor of being the first President's wife to sponsor a ship named for her husband. On the launching stand with the first lady of the land were Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Jr., and Herbert Hoover III.

Others in the party included R. Stanley Dollar and Mrs. Dollar, Gov. Pollard and Miss Suzanne Pollard, Virginia's official hostess, whose approaching marriage was announced today; members of the Governor's staff and Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company.

HOOVER FLAYS CONGRESS AS TREASURY RAIDERS

Bills for $4,500,000,000 Above Budget Cited by President; Politics on Relief Charged

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—President Hoover today sharply rebuked Congress for what he characterized as raids on the Treasury under the guise of helping along his economic relief program.

Pointing out that there are pending before House and Senate measures calling for the expenditure of more than $4,500,000,000 above all appropriations recommended by the budget and the Executive, Mr. Hoover declared that personal political considerations are behind the bills and that their sponsors are "playing politics at the expense of human misery."

The President's statement was the signal for a vehement attack upon the White House by Democratic Senators, including Harrison of Mississippi, Caraway of Arkansas and Walsh of Massachusetts, who had apparently been waiting for an opportunity to break away openly from their pledges of co-operation with the Republican party in putting through a sane relief program.

REED DEFENDER

There was only time for one speech in defense of the President and this was delivered by Senator Reed of Pensylvania. He deplored the bitterness of the Democratic onslaught and pointed out that Mr. Hoover stood out as the "greatest humanitarian of the age."

The President warned that the many undertakings, small and large, proposed in these bills could not possibly be financed by the government without an increase in taxation, to which he is opposed. Any boost in taxes, he said, obviously would fall upon the very persons who are in need of assistance and thus the many measures introduced at the Capitol would defeat their own professed purpose.

ASKS CO-OPERATION

The President expressed faith that the responsible leaders of both parties in Congress would co-operate to prevent enactment of the bills and in a sense he called upon these leaders and the country to support his opposition to such vast grants of public funds as have been proposed by individual members of Congress.

"Prosperity," said the President, "cannot be restored by raids upon the public treasury," and he went on to stress the unwisdom of attempting to finance such a program as is represented in the bills in Congress by the issuance of bonds. To attempt to do so, he declared, would deprive industry and agriculture of the capital they need for their own undertakings and employment.

HUGE INCREASE

In addition to the total set forth by the administration in the annual budget as the requirement for the fiscal year of 1932, the deficit which the government is facing will approach $400,000,000. The budget estimate was $3,932,842,411. The estimated commitments of the government to date are approximately $4,332,822,000. And it is in excess of this latter figure that members of Congress wish to appropriate $4,500,000,000.

The President read his statement on the situation to the correspondents at his bi-weekly press conference.

HOOVER STATEMENT

The full text of President Hoover's statement was:

"I observe that measures have been already introduced in Congress and are having advocacy which if passed would impose an increased expenditure beyond the sums which I have recommended for the present and the next fiscal year by a total of nearly $4,500,000,000 and mostly under the guise of giving relief of some kind or another.

"The gross sums which I have recommended to carry on the essential functions of the government include the extreme sums which can be applied by the Federal government in actual emergency employment relief, and are the maximum which can be financed without increase in taxes.

DEFEATS PURPOSE

"No matter how devised, an increase in taxes in the end falls upon the workers and farmers, or alternately deprives industry of that much ability to give employment and defeat the very purpose of these schemes. For the government to finance by bond issues deprives industry and agriculture of just that much capital for its own use and for employment. Prosperity cannot be restored by raids upon the public treasury.

"The leaders of both parties are

Congress Speeds Relief

House Passes $110,000,000 Construction Measure Asked by Hoover

Senate Votes $60,000,000 for Farmer Loans in Drought Areas

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—Breaking all speed records since the war, Congress today sent to the half-way mark of final enactment the two major relief bills urged by the administration.

While the House without a dissenting vote was passing a measure appropriating $110,000,000 for rushing construction on highways and rivers and harbors projects to aid employment, the Senate similarly without opposition was putting through a bill carrying $60,000,000 for loans to farmers in twenty-one States hard hit by the drought of last summer and fall.

The bills passed both branches without a roll call.

HYDE ATTACKED

The House will now shortly take up drought relief legislation with a committee recommendation for only $30,000,000, or half the sum approved by the Senate, and the upper chamber will turn to consideration of the public construction program with the probability it will adopt the full $150,000,000 figure recommended by President Hoover. Ironing out of differences and enactment of both measures before the end of the next week is predicted by Republican leaders.

In the Senate, consideration of the drought relief bill was marked by an attack by Senator Robinson, Democratic floor leader, and signer of the famous co-operation pledge, on Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, and inferentially upon President Hoover.

AMENDMENTS DEFEATED

Robinson declared that the $60,000,000 would not meet the requirements of the situation. He assailed as "silly" Hyde's statement that purchase of foodstuffs for distressed farmers amounted to a "dole."

Two amendments were urged. One by Harris, Democrat, of Georgia, would have extended the use of the fund to all farmers the country over; the other, by Thomas, Democrat, of Oklahoma, would have added fuel to the commodities for which loans to farmers could be made. Both were defeated.

The $110,000,000 construction speed-up bill went through the House without change although attempts were made to amend it.

Jobless Warned Not to Migrate

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—Unemployed persons were warned in a radio address tonight by Col. Arthur Woods, chairman of the President's emergency committee for employment, that they will only increase their difficulties if they go away from home looking for work.

Many cities, particularly in the South, he said, report the transient unemployed situation has become such that it is overwhelming them.

RUTH NICHOLS FLIES FAST

Aviatrix Reaches Wichita From Los Angeles in Seven Hours on Dash to New York

WICHITA (Kan.) Dec. 9. (AP)—Miss Ruth Nichols, Rye (N. Y.) aviatrix seeking a new West-East transcontinental flight record, arrived here at 4:01 p.m. today on a nonstop flight from Los Angeles. The aviatrix reported encountering two hours of bad weather crossing the Rocky Mountains. She was forced to ascend to 20,000 feet to clear the peaks. For the two hours she did not see the ground.

She announced she will take off tomorrow at daybreak for New York if the weather is favorable.

Her flying time to Wichita was seven hours and one minute. This clipped five hours and eight minutes from the time of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, holder of the women's West-East transcontinental speed record, who made several stops en route to Wichita.

Miss Nichols's performance was one of the longest nonstop air journeys ever made by a woman pilot.

Miss Nichols was in the air nearly an hour longer than Capt. Frank Hawks, speed flyer who reached Wichita from the Pacific Coast last August in 6h. 4m. 11s. in establishing a transcontinental mark of 12h. 25m. 3s., which the aviatrix is shooting at as well as the women's record.

Her time was only five minutes slower than that of Col. Charles Lindbergh and his wife, Anne, from whom Capt. Hawks wrested the West-East record.

TREASURY RAIDS HIT BY HOOVER

co-operating to prevent any such event. Some of these schemes are ill-considered; some represent enthusiasts and some represent the desire of individuals to show that they are more generous than the administration or that they are more generous than even the leaders of their own parties. They are playing politics at the expense of human misery.

"Many of these measures are being promoted by organizations and agencies outside of Congress, and being pushed upon members of Congress. Some of them are mistaken as to the results they will accomplish and they are all mistaken as to the ability of the Federal government to undertake such burdens. Some of these outside agencies also are engaged in promoting political purposes. The American people will not be misled by such tactics."

In administration circles it was indicated that in anticipation of some such avalanche of appropriation bills as has materialized out of the depresson the President has been keeping an unusually close watch on both houses.

SHUNS BOND ISSUES

It has been the purpose of the administration as Mr. Hoover recently said, to grant every possible measure of relief within the financial powers of the government but without creating a necessity for increased taxation or new bond issues.

Therefore, when he saw proposed appropriations steadily mounting under political pressure under the expediency of the economic situation he decided to strike forcibly, stressing the responsibility for the result upon the leaders of both parties in Congress who are pledged before the country to co-operate on relief measures.

OUTBURST BITTER

The outburst in the Senate against the President following the issuance of his statement was the most bitter that body has heard in a long time.

In the midst of the Democratic attack Senator La Follette presented a resolution which referred to the President's statement as indicating "that consideration for the interests of income taxpayers necessitates restriction on governmental relief measures necessary to aid the jobless and their dependents." He, therefore, proposed that "it be the sense of the Senate that the relief of human suffering in this emergency should take precedence over consideration of the interests of wealthy income taxpayers."

Senators Caraway of Arkansas and Walsh of Massachusetts opened the attack. The Arkansan pointed to Mr. Hoover's relief record and said: "Stripped of that there would be nothing left to his biography except the date of birth."

RECORD REVIEWED

Senator Harrison called attention to Mr. Hoover's activities in flood relief and in Belgian food relief and said: "No one accused him of playing politics then, although Republican orators ever since have said these actions qualified him as the best-fitted man ever to run for the Presidency."

Senator Glass recalled that Mr. Hoover as Food Administrator during the war recommended the appropriation of $1,000,000,000 for Russian food relief in questioning the disapproval by the administration against loans now for food for drought stricken farmers.

Robinson and McNary both told the Senate the $60,000,000 provided in the Senate drought relief bill had been proposed by the President's own drought relief commission.

APOLOGY DEMANDED

Harrison said he did not propose to co-operate with the President if it meant $25,000,000 for drought relief "when the facts show $60,000,000 is required."

Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, demanded an apology from Mr. Hoover to both the Senate and House "for giving out such a rude and improper statement."

Senator Reed in reply to the Democratic assault, said the President had a "great responsibility" in trying to keep expenditures "within our means, and I honor him for trying to do it."

"In all fairness to the President," he added, "we ought to recognise the fact that nothing in his statement begins to compare with some of the attacks we have made upon him here."

CRITICISM IN HOUSE

On the other side of the Capitol another Democrat criticised the President's recommendation for $150,000,000 for public works to aid employment. The House struck $40,000,000 from the proposal.

Representative Byrns of Tennessee, asserted some of the administration recommendations "were proven so ridiculous" as unemployment measures in committee hearing that Chairman Wood of the Appropriations Committee, "threw up his hands" and agreed to support the projects provided for in the amended bill.

Byrns said some of the proposals called for spending money for increased rations for the Army, new uniforms for Reserve Corps officers, $2,000,000 for passenger-carrying automobiles and trucks for the Army, $3,000,000 for searchlights, submarine mines and fire-control stations, $5,000,000 for ammunition for the Rock Island Arsenal, and $500,000 to kill bugs in the national forests.

ETHEL BARRYMORE CUTS BROADWAY RUN SHORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Ethel Barrymore's Broadway engagement in "Scarlet Sister Mary" will be terminated Saturday night after a run of less than three weeks.

"My friends in New York are determined not to come to see me in blackface," Miss Barrymore said, explaining the short run of the Negro drama in which she stars and in which her daughter, Ethel Barrymore Colt, made her debut.

"That is all right, but I believe in this play and I'm going to take it to some cities on tour which have expressed a desire to see me in it."

The play will go to Boston Christmas week.

BOY DARES AND MOTHER KILLS HIM

Fatal Bullet Fired in Moment of Anger When Son Disobeys Her

ALBANY (N. Y.) Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—Accepting a dare in a moment of anger, Mrs. William Donohue of Medusa, near here, shot and killed her son, Thomas, 13 years of age, today.

Mrs. Donohue had ordered the boy to bring home wood for a kitchen fire. He had demurred. Then the mother scolded. The boy ran from the house.

"Tommy, come back here this instand or I'll use this," screamed the mother, grabbing a .22-caliber rifle, according to the story told the authorities.

"Go ahead, I dare you," retorted the boy as he legged it across a garden patch.

In frenzied anger the woman raised the rifle and, though not adept with it, shot with such accuracy that the tiny bullet, which would have been fatal in hardly any other spot, struck the boy in the base of the brain just above the neck.

The next instant the mother was hugging the boy in her arms, trying to revive him. He died within an hour after being shot while Mrs. Donohue kissed and petted him in an effort to keep him alive.

After recounting the tragedy to Dist.-Atty. Delaney, Mrs. Donohue was locked up tonight in Albany County Jail on a charge of murder.

MANY GOING TO FUNERAL OF RICARD

SANTA CLARA, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—Literally hundreds of Californians who loved and admired Rev. Jerome Sixtus Ricard, Santa Clara University's "Padre of the Rains," are beginning to converge on this city to attend the funeral services which will be conducted in the old mission on the campus grounds at 10 a.m. Thursday.

Father Ricard died quietly last night. Telegrams of tribute and sorrow poured in from every corner of the globe.

Archbishop Hanna will deliver the eulogy at Father Ricard's funeral, which will be marked by solemn requiem mass, one of the most profound of Catholic services. After services he will be laid to rest in a simple grave in the Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery. Fellow-priests of the Jesuit order will be his pallbearers.

FREEDOM OF SEAS NOT IN QUESTION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—The American government is having no negotiations with any foreign power concerning the freedom of the seas. Published reports on negotiations supposed to be taking place brought word from high authority in the State Department today that they were false.

Ultramicroscope Reveals Antiseptics at Work

Microbes Coagulated as if in Boiling Water

Discovery Opens New Field in Colloid Chemistry

ITHACA (N. Y.) Dec. 9. (AP)—Discovery of how antiseptics destroy bacteria was made public at Cornell University today.

They cook the germs cold—that is, coagulate them as in boiling, but without the use of extra heat.

Thus is bared a vulnerable side of microbes hitherto little known. It promises chemists and physicians a better target to guide them in making more fatal antitoxins.

The parboiling weakness of the "bugs" was found by Dr. Wilder D. Bancroft, noted colloid chemist, and Dr. G. Holmes Richter, national research fellow, working under a Heckscher Foundation grant.

WATCHED PROCESS

With ultramicroscopes and the new tests of colloid chemistry they were able actually to see the physical change among microbes caused by antiseptics and disinfectants. They report that these medical remedies, instead of producing chemical changes as many authorities have believed, nearly always make direct physical attack upon the bodies of bacteria.

The medicines stick to the germs, or cause other foreign substances to stick—and in either event if enough of the substance adheres it is all up with Mr. Microbe. Adsorption is the scientific name for this process.

As a result of this adsorption the living protoplasm in the bacteria thickens and irreversiby coagulates. This soon stops the microbes' activity and eventually kills them.

ONE EXCEPTION

This is the effect and the only important effect, says the report, of nearly all kinds of antiseptics and disinfectants. Formaldehyde is an exception, killing in part by causing chemical changes.

The report states that any method which produces narcosis in higher animals is likely to retard growth and activity of bacteria, and if pushed far enough will act as a disinfectant."

Physical blows, shaking and heat all produce the same kind of coagulation as antiseptics, although at differing rates. They all slow down bacterial activity. But the report says the "practical effect" of shaking is nil for antiseptic purposes.

EFFECTS SCATTERED

In a human being the medicines may be absorbed on many kinds of cells, thus reducing the coagulating effect on the bacteria. This makes it difficult to produce antiseptics and disinfectants which are harmless to the human cells and at the same time deadly to microbes.

It is believed that in definitely establishing for the first time the colloid theory of the effect of disinfectants on bacteria Drs. Bancroft and Richter have pointed the way to development of new antiseptics and disinfectants.

PAIR SOUGHT IN MURDER OF WIDOW

Chinese Servant Held as Slayer Threatens Suicide; Valuable Rings Missing

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 9. (AP)—While police today searched for persons believed to have played parts in the murder here yesterday of Mrs. Rosetta Baker, wealthy widow, Lui Fook, Chinese houseman, who is charged with the crime, threatened to kill himself.

Officers said a "white man who may have supplied Lui with narcotics" and a possible instigator of the crime are sought. They said two diamond rings valued at $9000 are missing and it is possible the Chinese may have been under the domination of some other person who hoped to profit by the woman's death.

Detectives, however, said Lui's motive most likely was jealousy or resentment that Mrs. Baker, club woman and a patron of the drama, should have associated with Walter Outler, young actor, who plays under the name of Walter Middleton. The Chinese is known to have been bitter against the young actor.

Detectives George Engler and Harry Husted, investigating the case, said Lui had told others repeatedly that his mistress would be "choked to death" for her sins. Mrs. Baker was found in her apartment with a bed sheet wound around her throat.

STATE TAKES CHARGE OF BALTIMORE BANK

BALTIMORE, Dec. 9. (AP)—The State Bank Commissioner late today took charge of the Chesapeake Bank of Baltimore. A typewritten notice on the door announced "this institution is in the hands of the State Bank Commissioner." Two branches in other parts of the city also closed. The bank, established nineteen years ago, and capitalized at $50,000, was not a member of the Federal Reserve System or of the Baltimore Clearinghouse. In its most recent statement, issued September 2, last, it showed deposits subject to demand of $1,832,689.31.

Chicago Women Released as Sequel to Six-Hour Stay in Cell as Gamblers

CHICAGO, Dec. 9. (AP)—Just what was said by the fourteen husband who went without their dinners the other night because their wives were detained for six hours at a police station was not brought out, but Judge Helander ruled it was sufficient punishment for the women so he dismissed the case against them. The women said they were playing bridge, but the arresting policeman called it gambling.

SHEPARD'S INTIMATE LIFE AIRED

Witnesses Testify About Gifts Army Surgeon Sent to Stenographer

KANSAS CITY (Kan.) Dec. 9. (AP) The more intimate details in the life of Maj. Charles A. Shepard, charged with the poison murder of his wife Zenana, were aired in his Federal court trial late today after nearly two days of expert medical testimony.

Witnesses put of the stand by the government testified concerning telegrams and gifts sent by Shepard to Miss Grace Brandon, tall blond 22-year-old stenographer at Brooks Field, San Antonio, Tex., for love of whom, the government contends, the 59-year-old army medical officer took the life of his second wife.

The name of Miss Brandon was brought into the trial for the first time by witnesses after a full day of testimony which began with that of two qualified chemists, who told the jury their chemical analysis of the viscera of Mrs. Shepard showed she had died of a slow-acting poison.

Mrs. Theodore McCoskey of Los Angeles, a sister-in-law of Maj. Shepard, identified the handwriting of a telegram which was sent by Maj. Shepard to Miss Brandon from Waco, Tex., June 29, 1929, within a week after the burial of his wife. The telegram read: "Will phone on arrival about 10. Must see you tonight. Love. Charley."

DART DEATH THREAT LAID TO SUITOR

Extortion Attempt Said by Chicago Police to Be Discarded Clerk's Revenge

CHICAGO, Dec. 9. (AP)—A 23-year-old broker's clerk, William Kuhn, today was charged with attempted extortion of $25,000 from a society girl and his arrest revealed a death threat savoring of an oriental mystery thriller.

One of the threatening letters Kuhn is charged with sending to Miss Marion Wright, 18 years of age, debutante daughter of a steel company official, described a "poisonous dart that can hit its mark at 3000 feet."

"How would you like to meet such a fate," the letter read; "I hope I won't have to use it."

Miss Wright had quarreled with Kuhn one night several weeks ago.

A week later the first of five threatening notes was received by the debutante. It was signed "Lester McKay" and demanded $25,000 under threat of death to the girl and her father, William V. Wright, official of the Edgewater Steel Company.

Kuhn was questioned yesterday, termed the charge "ridiculous," and denied all knowledge of the letters. He was arrested today and will be arraigned tomorrow.

The soviet delegation refused to accept the draft, terming the instrument "entirely futile" to accomplish any reduction of armaments. Anatole Lunacharsky, leading delegate of the soviet delegation, submitted a long statement summarizing the soviet objections to the draft and asked this be appended to the commission's report. The chairman refused the request.

New York Courts Inquiry Scores Again

McQuade Quits When Faced by Searching Quiz

Twenty-eight Policemen in Vice Graft Net

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Inquiry into New York magistrates courts brought the resignation of City Judge Francis X. McQuade today and laid the background for criminal charges against at least twenty-eight policemen accused of vice and gambling graft.

The hearings will resume Thursday.

Report of Magistrate McQuade's resignation was transmitted to Referee Samuel Seabury a few minutes before McQuade was to take the witness stand for interrogation into his personal and business affairs, which the referee said showed him to be unfit to hold public office.

The presence in the court of President Charles A. Stoneham and Manager John J. McGraw of the New York Giants led to the belief Special Prosecutor Isador J. Kresel planned to question McQuade about his squabbles with associates while he was treasurer of the National Exhibition Company, owners of the Giants.

Kresel immediately returned the inquiry to the evidence of police vice graft.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—A court decision sustaining the oil-conservation policy of President Hoover and Secretary Wilbur apparently has failed to daunt applicants for oil shale prospecting permits.

MOONEY-BILLINGS FUNDS FOR WITNESSES ONLY

Older Reveals Motives Back of His Sympathetic Interest in Bomb Case's Key Figures

This the eighth of a series of articles presenting an exhaustive analysis of the State Supreme Court's recent hearing of new evidence in the Mooney-Billings cases, resulting in a denial of Billings's plea for a pardon recommendation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—In an earlier article of this series were enumerated those of the Mooney-Billings case witnesses regarded by the defense as "vital" ones—that is, those witnesses whose testimony would have to be discredited either by recantation or by external impeachment of the witnesses themselves. As will be recalled, the list of such witnesses comprised John MacDonald, the waiter; Estelle Smith, dentist's assistant; Mrs. Mellie Edeau and her daughter Sadie, and F. C. Oxman.

The work of the Mooney-Billings supporters on the first two of the five and its results have already been described in detail. After fourteen years MacDonald came through with a recantation which completely blew up on the witness stand in the recent hearings before the Supreme Court. His various repudiations of the damning testimony he gave at the trials of the Preparedness Day bombers, were shown to have been manufactured out of whole cloth under circumstances regarded by the Supreme Court as highly suspicious. After twelve years of work by Fremont Older on Estelle Smith she also recanted her original testimony—or so the Billings proponents averred—only to go back on it on the witness stand and revert to the story she told in the first place and which helped to convict Billings.

This leaves the two Edeau women and Oxman. While the "work" of the defense on them occupies much less space in the Supreme Court transcript, what was brought out is particularly significant, especially as to the motives of Older in the matter.

THE EDEAU WOMEN

As has been said, Mrs. Edeau and her daughter were living in Oakland in 1916 and on the day of the Preparedness parade had crossed to San Francisco to see the pageant. At the bomb trials they testified they saw Billings, Mrs. Mooney and Israel Weinberg, the jitney driver, in front of 721 Market street just after, according to Estelle Smith's evidence, Billings had descended from the roof of that building with the suitcase. This testimony was strong corroboration of Miss Smith's and upheld the prosecution's contention that 721 Market was the original rendezvous of the bombers. By neither side, however, was it regarded as important as that of the dental nurse, which may account for the fact that Fremont Older did not get around to the Edeaus until 1920. He started his twelve-year labors on Miss Smith in 1917.

His methods with the Edeaus were similar to those employed with the Smith girl; that is, he made it a point to learn about their affairs, expressed sympathy for them in their personal troubles and extended aid—at the expense of the Chicago Federation of Labor which was financing his campaign to break down the evidence damaging to Mooney and Billings.

It appeared that the Edeaus were having trouble over some real estate to which they claimed title and that they believed they had been defrauded. Mrs. Edeau, further, was ill, and they needed money. Older was all sympathy. They called upon him and wrote him asking aid. One of the exhibits at the Supreme Court hearing was a letter from Older to Mrs. Edeau dated July 8, 1920, and reading as follows:

OLDER'S LETTER

"Dear Mrs. Edeau: It was a strange coincidence that our letters should cross each other. While you were writing my letter I was writing you and it would signify some kind of telepathic communication, wouldn't it?

"I received your letter this morning. You will receive mine probably today asking you to call over Friday, but I see by your letter that you are ill, so you may tell the young man that I sent over with this letter when you think you will be able to come. It isn't anything that can't wait. I merely wanted to discuss the little plan we discussed when we met last about clearing your title to the lots.

"When I see you I will ask you for a few more details about the way in which you were swindled by Albrecht. It seems to me that your burdens were very heavy without having this one added to it. What an infamous thing to do, to defraud you of money earned in the hard way in which you have to earn money!

"I think I will be able to help you get it from this man. I certainly will do everything I can. I hope your illness is not serious and that you will be well in a day or two.

"I am sending this over to you so that you will not be worried over my letter asking you to come over. If you are not well enough tell the boy when you think you can come over and give my kindest regards to your daughter. Sincerely yours,
[Signed]
"FREMONT OLDER."

Questioned about this kind and sympathetic letter, Older said that the mother and daughter had previously called upon him, told him their troubles and wanted to borrow $300 to clear up the title to their lots. Whether they called entirely on their own initiative or at Older's suggestion is not quite clear. In one place the transcript reads:

Q.: You have already admitted you were hunting these women for the purpose of undermining their testimony (in the Billings trial?)

A.: I didn't go after them for their testimony; they came to me.

But in another place Older said he had them call upon him. Thus:

Q.: Now you undertook to obtain from the Edeaus the same kind of information that you undertook to obtain from Estelle Smith?

A.: I did not.

Q.: Well, you undertook to have them modify their statement?

A.: I had them—they called upon me; I had them call upon me in the presence of Dist.-Atty. Brady and we talked the case over and they did not make any confessions and I did not ask them at all, and they never did make any. They never yielded the point anywhere along the line. I TRIED MY BEST TO GET THEM TO BUT THEY DID NOT DO IT.

Referring to the letter quoted above and the plan which Older mentioned he had to help the women, the transcript reads:

THE "LITTLE PLAN"

Q.: You had a "little plan" to clear the title to the lot; that is "our little plan" is it?

A.: Evidently. They had told me they had to have $300 or they would lose their lot and my little plan, I presume, was I would let them have the money.

Q.: When you handed the money to them did you have one hand on the money and the other on the story you hoped to get from them?

A.: I didn't ask them for any story. I hoped, if they wanted, they would tell me.

Q.: It was in the fond hope they would give it to you that you handed them this money?

A.: I loaned them the money.

A.: Three hundred dollars I loaned to them.

From the wording of Older's letter to Mrs. Edeau it might be assumed that he was moved entirely by personal sympathy for her troubles, that he planned to use his own money to relieve her and that, in this humanitarian act, he had no ulterior motives. His own testimony on the points is illuminating. It reads:

OLDER'S MOTIVE

Q.: Was that money (the $300) from the Industrial Workers of the World?

A.: That was from the Chicago Federation; I got no money from the I.W.W.

Q.: Have you ever gotten that $300 back?

A.: No, never.

Q.: Did you ever loan any money to any other witnesses?

A.: I loaned the money to two women (the Edeaus) who asked me for it. IF THEY HAD NOT BEEN WITNESSES I WOULD NOT HAVE LOANED IT TO THEM.

By which naive admission Older demonstrated that his "sympathy" for the unfortunate Edeau family was not of the personal and disinterested character his communication would make it appear. He testified that he worked only two days on the Edeaus, from which it would seem that his solicitude for their welfare did not long survive their failure to help Billings.

If any further evidence were necessary of the fact that the Edeaus were being cultivated by the Mooney-Billings defense in the hope that they would modify their testimony, it is supplied by the fact that, SIX DAYS AFTER the Older letter was sent to Mrs. Edeau, she received another from Mrs. Mooney. Dated July 14, in part it reads:

"My dear Mrs. Edeau: Both my husband and myself fully realize that the only ray of hope there is for us lies with you and your daughter . . . If you will help us we shall both remember your kindness with the deepest gratitude for the remainder of our lives."

Older stoutly denied having anything to do with the sending of this letter, notwithstanding the remarkable coincidence of dates.

Notwithstanding that it was not his money he was lending, he admitted he took no note or memorandum of the loan from Mrs. Edeau and that, so far as he could recall, he never even told the Chicago Federation of Labor, whose money it was, that he had "lent" it. The money was never repaid and apparently not the slightest effort was ever made to get it back. It was merely some more of the "easy money" that flowed so freely in the background of the case, however hardly it may have been earned by those who contributed it.

The next article will describe the efforts made to discredit the testimony of the witness F. C. Oxman.

WESTERN TRADE TROUBLES TOLD

National Commerce Chamber Views Situation

Export Falling-off Laid to Slump in Silver

Antitrust Laws Complicate Surplus Disposal

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—Three matters of significant economic import to the Pacific Coast — revivification of the lumber industry, America's trade relations on the Pacific and the western mining situation—were given searching analysis today at the closing session of the eighth western divisional meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The discussions, led by authorities on the respective subjects, took cognisance of the prevailing world-wide economic situation and were universally characterised by an effort to point out the fundamental problems as gleaned from hard facts, rather than the offering of sugar-coated solutions.

Eighteen resolutions were presented and adopted, the most significant of which was a recommendation that the national Chamber of Commerce take steps to determine action necessary to free natural resource industries, such as lumber and petroleum, from the uncertainties of existing antitrust laws.

SILVER SITUATION

An investigation into the silver situation as affecting foreign trade with South America and the Orient was recommended to the national chamber. Need for additional funds to protect forests from white pine blister rust, forest insects and fires was stressed in a resolution.

Early construction of a highway from Alaska to South America was favored, as was the appropriation of Federal funds for road approaches to national parks.

The session requested the national chamber to investigate the reported purchasing of prison-labor supplies by the government and commended the Treasury Department for its efforts to protect American markets from an influx of convict goods. A request that western materials be used in western government buildings was made.

ON UNEMPLOYMENT

On the subject of unemployment the group recommended active prosecution of work on public buildings and works and asked that private and public groups work actively to provide positions for the unemployed. Establishment of district offices of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, particularly in Hawaii, was suggested.

The practice of governmental acceptance of free sites for national defense works was condemned.

A request for a Department of Commerce survey of the Western States to determine commodities and manufactured products that may be exported was made.

W. B. Greeley, manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association and former Chief Forester of the United States, in presenting the outlook for the west coast lumber business made a plea for clarification or liberalization of the present antitrust laws, thereby adding his voice to the dominant note of the commerce meeting, that of seeking relief from Federal laws dealing with restraint of trade.

LUMBER SURPLUS

Calling attention to the overproduction current in the lumber industry and the resultant ill effects, Mr. Greeley expressed the belief that a number of consolidations, formed by grouping mills or timber holdings in each of the principal lumber-producing districts of Western Oregon and Washington, is the logical means of extricating the industry from its present condition.

Co-operative measures calculated to lessen overproduction have met with fair success, Mr. Greeley said, but have been blocked by the prospect of running afoul of antitrust laws, which prohibit trade agreements relating to production, distribution and sales.

Wallace M. Alexander, chairman of the board of Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., San Francisco, offered little in the way of encouragement regarding present economic conditions in the various nations facing the Pacific, or in the prospect for immediately improved trade relations.

WORLD OUT OF JOINT

Citing the fact that exports of the United States to Asia have dropped $70,000,000 in the five months since July 1, last, while imports have declined $150,000,000 during the same period, Mr. Alexander declared: "The world is out of joint; something is radically wrong in our economic structure. . . . There are great surpluses in Asia—an overproduction in rubber, jute goods, silk, etc. They want our cotton, our farm products and our machinery.

"It has been suggested as a part solution to the problem that some method should be devised whereby great quantities in bulk could be exchanged between the nations, Cotton for rubber or silk—metals for farm products. It is impossible for the governments themselves to transact this business, but private business should learn to combine in two separate groups and bring about bartering maneuvers that will solve this problem.

"I understand Washington is even now endeavoring to bring about a meeting of minds on this subject. The chief difficulty seems to me the question of arriving at some standard price which would involve a figure somewhat below the price of production."

A suggestion that the President and Congress of the United States take action toward an international agreement establishing a fixed ratio between gold and silver was advanced by H. C. Baldridge, Governor of Idaho.

CORSETS MADE CRUISERS

Alice Longworth Revealed as One Who Turned Steel for Stays Over to Ship Builders

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—Others may boast of beating swords into plowshares, but only Alice Roosevelt Longworth can lay claim to turning corsets into cruisers.

A story first told to acquaintances by J. Leonard Replogle, director of steel supply of the war industries board, during the World War, only today was admitted as accurate by Mrs. Longworth to an inquisitive friend.

Ardent admirers of the "Princess Alice" quote it as apt illustration of her sometimes challenged power in both the masculine world of governmental edicts and the feminine world of fashionable dress.

Replogle related during the World War corset manufacturers came to him with appeal for steel. Investigating, he said, he learned corset manufacturers had been making a $42,000,000 profit per annum, using 28,800 tons of steel, "enough to build two battleships."

Was this essential industry? He telephoned Alice Roosevelt. It was not, replied the "Princess" of sylph-like figure. The corset men got no more steel.

Strikingly contemporaneous in fashion's annals was the arrival of the uncorseted figure, which flourished for a full decade during which matron and maid alike discarded steel stays, bobbed their hair and made it a "flapper era."

Not knowing the steel story, the psychologists analysed in the change a new freedom, feministic in import. If Alice Roosevelt Longworth was indeed the moving factor of the emancipation, she was far removed as possible from the crusader type of leadership."

Only during the past two social seasons has the corset re-entered the fashionable scene to a marked degree—and the new one is far less of the cruiser type.

LIFE'S SECRET ELUDES QUEST

Dr. Carlson Denies Chance of Penetrating Veil

Comment Brought Forth by Cleveland Reports

Creation, Lasting for Ages, Held Going on Now

CHICAGO, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—Dr. A. J. Carlson, professor of physiology at the University of Chicago, is not given to popular speculation. He talks exactly only of the things of which he knows in his own science.

However, he said some things today which might give anyone who is seeking to integrate the progressive revelations of science, something to think about.

His comment was on the problem of the artificial creation of life, as brought up by the report from the Cleveland Clinic Foundation that this mystery had been solved.

GOING ON NOW

"Creation is not something completed in a moment," said Prof. Carlson. "It is going on in the earth, the sea, the air, all the time, and there is no possibile way to detect it."

And here is something that seems to dispose of the Cleveland theory:

"The evolution of the simplest cellular amoeba or bacteria from its origin to the point where we can see it, has taken several hundred millions of years."

In other words, from stage one of protoplasm, which may be electronic or subelectronic, the long journey up to such a complicated thing as an amoeba, has taken millions of years to accomplish. How then, could it be developed in a laboratory during the lifetime of a man? Even if brought to a certain stage it would be destroyed by nitrogen.

BEYOND HUMAN KEN

It may be well to explain that what are called the basic building blocks of matter, electrons, or protons, are beyond human ken in themselves. They are only known indirectly, but their light effects or tracks may be captured. They are not, however, fictions, in the opinion of Prof. Carlson, but are apprehended by their reactions, their growth.

This scientist does not hold that life came about by any "fortuitous concourse of atoms."

"I know of no accidents in nature," he said.

Conditions under which life could come about have been in existence on this planet for many millions of years, he pointed out.

CLAIMS OF VETERANS REPORTED TO HOOVER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—Director-General Hines of the Veterans' Administration, informed President Hoover today 271,210 veterans had applied for the disability allowance created by the last Congress and out of 99,026 claims passed on approximately 51 per cent had been allowed.

Studebaker Leadership Today

The outstanding achievements of the industry during the past five years

Studebaker was the first manufacturer in the World to offer the motoring public, as accomplished facts, the following fundamentally sound and progressive developments in automobiles, namely:

Free Wheeling, with positive gear control, was presented on July 10, 1930, in the Studebaker President and Commander models. Several previous free wheeling efforts in Europe failed of general approval because the conventional type of transmission was not instantly available. Studebaker has the honor of being the first manufacturer in the world to introduce the present successful free wheeling mechanism, which permits instant interchangeability between free wheeling and conventional gear transmission.

Two Studebaker Commander Roadsters made a test run of 25,000 miles at the Atlantic City Speedway in October 1927. They completed the distance in 22,968 minutes elapsed time, at an average speed of over 65 miles per hour and thereby established new world's records for endurance and speed which remain unequalled and unchallenged to this day, except by the Studebaker President Straight Eights as mentioned below.

30,000 mile speed record

Believing that the new Studebaker President Eight could beat the Commander records, four of them were started on the Atlantic City Speedway on July 21, 1928, at 9:39 A. M. on a run of 30,000 miles instead of 25,000. Two roadsters finished the 30,000 miles on August 8th, at an average speed of 68.37 and 68.36 m.p.h. respectively. Two sedans finished on August 9th, at an average speed of 64.15 and 63.99 m.p.h. respectively. Therefore, for nineteen days and eighteen nights all four cars travelled 30,000 miles at faster than a mile a minute, counting stops for all purposes. The Contest Board of the American Automobile Association had charge of the records and timing of these marvelous performances. They prove the superior design and durability of these cars.

DRY ADVOCATES CALLING BLUFF

Dr. Wilson Stands Pat on Referendum

Mass Meeting and Church Board Opposed

Mrs. Willebrandt Explains Grape Issue

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—With the great majority of dry leaders opposed, Dr. Clarence True Wilson today reiterated his advocacy of a national referendum on prohibition in his annual report to the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals.

In the face of the opposition, Dr. Wilson told the board, which represents 6,000,000 Methodists, that in his opinion "the time has come to call the bluff of the wets."

At a mass meeting last night the national temperance council composed of spokesmen for various dry groups unanimously approved resolutions expressing "unequivocal opposition" to "the submission of any part of this national constitutional policy to either a binding or nonbinding referendum which would tend either directly or indirectly to weaken or nullify the said prohibition amendment."

BOARD IN OPPOSITION

In spite of Dr. Wilson's attitude, the Methodist board voted unanimously against a national referendum, Dr. Wilson explaining that it did so to prevent the appearance of a split in the dry ranks. The motion in which the opposition was expressed stated the wets have attempted to destroy prohibition by obstructing its administration, "by the indirect use of criminals, by the incidental causation of murder, and by resistance to government."

Explaining that the board gave its major emphasis this year to scientific studies and to educational methods for teaching young people in the church, Dr. Wilson said:

"We have erected the column of legislation, but one column is only half of an arch—we must now build up a great moral suasion educational campaign that will lead to the bringing of American millions to total abstinence and law observance."

MEETING TODAY

The legislative body for a large number of dry groups—the conference of organizations supporting the Eighteenth Amendment—will meet here tomorrow. The group is composed of two delegates from each dry organization.

Dr. Wilson, commenting privately on the opposition voiced to the referendum, said he does not think the dry leaders as a whole are prepared for such a move. He said that for the most part they are not wise enough to see the strategy in such an action; to realize it would put the wets on the defensive and pin them down to a proposed substitute for the Eighteenth Amendment on which the people might express themselves. This the wets have never been able to do, Dr. Wilson said, and cannot now agree upon it.

He emphasized, however, that there is no rift in the dry movement. All of the groups are agreed on the principle and the only difference of opinion is with respect to methods used.

Oliver Stewart, president of the Flying Squadron Foundation, urged upon the temperance council the creation of an all-embracing federation of dry forces, divorced from the church, to protect prohibition in the 1932 elections. He deplored "the lack of a militant leadership" in the prohibition ranks and even suggested supplanting some of the dry organizations.

MRS. WILLEBRANDT SPEAKS

Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, former assistant Attorney-General in charge of prohibition enforcement and now legal counsel for the California Fruit Industries, Ltd., defended her position before temperance leaders today and in an intimate way reiterated her belief in the efficacy of prohibition.

Appearing unannounced before the national temperance council, Mrs. Willebrandt talked for nearly two hours. After making a preliminary statement she answered questions directly from the floor, by a large number of nearly a hundred dry leaders who wanted to know about the manufacture and sale of grape concentrate, which other dry leaders have said is dangerous to prohibition.

In an atmosphere of friendliness, Mrs. Willebrandt gave the first public expression she has made since returning to the private practice of law from the government service.

After the meeting, Oliver Stewart, president of the foundation, whose motion to invite Mrs. Willebrandt was approved by the council last night, said that she enlightened the members on many points which had caused misunderstanding.

Asked if Mrs. Willebrandt defended the concentrates as an aid to prohibition or if she conceded that the product might easily be used to circumvent the law, Stewart said:

"I am sure Mrs. Willebrandt is as earnest a supporter of prohibition today as she ever was." He asserted that Mrs. Willebrandt was not under attack at any time during the meeting.

A defense of Mrs. Willebrandt from still another source was to be presented to the council later today by Miss Norma C. Brown, vice-president of the foundation. In a statement she warmly defended Mrs. Willebrandt and also the intent of Fruit Industries, Ltd., the California co-operative which is marketing the concentrate.

Criticism of the Farm Board for lending "millions of dollars to the grape growers for the purpose of manufacturing their surplus stock into wine concentrate" was made before the Methodist board by Deets Pickett, its research secretary.

"It is obvious this is simply modification of the law by administrative action," Pickett said.

HOOVER ON EVENING OUT HEARS TALKIE OF CABINET

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—President Hoover, like the letter carrier who went for a walk on his day off, spent his first evening out this social season, hearing a talkie of a Cabinet meeting.

The film was shown at the hotel home of Vice-President Curtis who gave his annual dinner to the President.

The fifty guests were surprised to see simultaneously President and Vice-President in talkie and in person. Present also, in person and shadow, were Secretary Mellon and Secretary Hurley.

Watching were Washington's highest officialdom and such visiting celebrities as Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Firestone, Mr. and Mrs. Lammot Du Pont, Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Adolph S. Ochs, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus H. K. Curtis, Mrs. Alvin T. Hert, Gen. W. W. Atterbury and Charles M. Schwab.

Mrs. Dolly Gann, the hostess, inaugurated the talkie in official social entertaining last season.

WETS ADVANCE SIX DRY LAW SUBSTITUTES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—The delegates to the National Constitutional Convention today advanced six proposals as substitutes for the Eighteenth Amendment or the Volstead Act, and were trying to reach an agreement upon a single one of them. They ranged from light wines and beer to outright repeal of either the act or the amendment.

Meeting in a fashionable hotel, the national executive council of the Women's Moderation Union adopted a resolution that work be done to arouse the women to action in the coming Presidential election. It also proposed to "call upon Congress to help relieve unemployment by passing legislation which will end prohibition and reduce taxes through the re-establishment of industries which the Eighteenth Amendment prohibits."

EVANGELINE BOOTH PRAISES DRY RESULTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Suffering in the United States is far less than it would be without prohibition, Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army, declared today on her arrival from England.

"In England, where the unemployment is of a more distressing order than it can be in the United States," she said, "they are spending three times the amount for liquor that they are spending on milk and education."

CONCESSIONS GRANTED

JERUSALEM, Dec. 9. (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)—Important concessions for the development of extensive copper and manganese deposits in the neighborhood of Akaba, a Red seaport, are said to have been granted today to two British syndicates by the Palestine government.

JUTE MILL CUTS PRICE

SAN QUENTIN, Dec. 9. (AP)—A cut of 1 cent each in the price of prison-made jute bags was announced at the prison today. The new price is fixed at 7 cents. The cut was caused by a decrease in the cost of jute, members of the prison board said. The prison has 5,000,000 bags on hand.

LATE WAR FILLS SOLDIERS' HOME

Veterans' Institutions House Younger Men

World Conflict Survivors 70 Per Cent of Inmates

Former Stigma in Accepting Aid Now Forgotten

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—In increasing numbers they come each year—men who call for help from the government for which they dared death twelve years ago.

Younger now are the men who seek the haven of the soldiers' homes than the veterans of other wars who asked help.

The contrast of the changing age was uncovered today by the Bureau of National Homes, whose records show the steadily mounting total of World War veterans, unable to gain a livelihood, who knock at the doors of the homes.

A peculiar note of public psychology lies wrapped in this change said Col. C. W. Wadsworth, the director. Once a man who became such a ward was ranked a pauper; his family kept his whereabouts secret.

Today, there is an eagerness evident in the attitude of the veterans and in the attitude of their relatives, Col. Wadsworth explained.

"Welfare organizations and charitable groups have the same viewpoint," he continued. "They think they are doing a great piece of work of they can get these former soldiers into a government institution. 'You belong there,' they tell them.

"From 1921 to 1927 the total population of the eleven branches of the National Home averaged throughout the year from 12,500 to 14,000. In the fiscal year ending last July it had leaped to 19,518, and on November 30, this year, there were 23,419 inmates with 5489 on leave, a total of 28,908."

The bureau has 22,320 beds. For this reason, said Col. Wadsworth, the men are less anxious to obtain leave—they fear their bed will be gone.

Until 1925, he said, the majority within the homes were Civil War veterans. The next year the Spanish-American War veterans and the Civil War class were equal. In 1927 the World War veterans jumped into the lead—averaging in age around 38.

The average age today is around 34 and World War veterans account for nearly 70 per cent.

BLACK CAT PUTS JINX ON PHYSICIAN'S AUTO

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 9. (AP)—A Preston (Idaho) physician whose name was not learned, drove into a service garage here today and said to Phil Lawrence, the attendant: "Fix that noise. All day long I've been hearing something that sounded like a cat in the engine and I'm getting tired of it."

Lawrence lifted the hood of the machine and the noise came out—a black kitten, meowing indignantly because the motor fan had cut off its tail. First aid was given the kitten instead of the motor.

MARINES SEEK PAY INCREASE

Commandant Says Efficiency of Corps Impaired

Problem of Promotion Also Demanding Solution

Nicaraguan Outlaws Still Vex Leathernecks

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—Despite the nation's pride in the accomplishment of the marines, their chief believes the efficiency of the corps is being impaired, and this by inadequate pay.

"The Marine Corps," said Maj.-Gen. Ben H. Fuller, the commandant, in his annual report today, "is struggling to find a solution to the perplexing problem of pay and promotion. . . . It is earnestly hoped satisfactory results may be accomplished at an early date so service personnel may devote itself, minds free from financial anxiety and with undivided interest, to the government's important work."

NICARAGUAN PROBLEM

This important work, described by Gen. Fuller, included among other things a lot of trouble caused by a mere 300 bad men in Nicaragua to nearly four times that many leathernecks.

"The active total outlaw strength at the end of the fiscal year was estimated at about 300," said Fuller, who added there were 1173 officers and men of the corps in Nicaragua.

PAY SENT BY AIR

He related how the peculiar problem of pay day in the Central American republic had been solved for the scattered outposts through airplane delivery of cash and checks, dropped in pouches.

"It is a satisfaction to report that, from inception of this method of payment under such unusual conditions, there has resulted no financial loss to the United States or to the disbursing officers concerned," Fuller said.

DEATHS LAID TO FAULT IN STERILIZING

Canadian Inquirers Find Germs Were Unharmed in Hospital Apparatus

EDMONTON (Alta.) Dec. 9. (AP)—A committee of bacteriologists has found the deaths of five patients after operations at the Royal Alexandra Hospital were caused by inefficient operation of the sterilizing apparatus.

The committee reported at an inquest that operation room linen which had been passed through the sterilizer was not properly sterilized so streptococci and staphylococci passed unharmed through the apparatus.

The engineer's staff at the hospital was blamed for failing to provide a steam pressure of fifteen pounds for the sterilizer, which the committee declared was necessary for efficient sterilization.

The first death was that of a Mrs. Pawlina, who died November 25, after an operation. The next day, Harry Edwards died. Three other patients whose names were not disclosed also died.

Investigation showed that all five deaths were caused by the infection of streptococcus haemolyticus, which is described as similar to the germ of scarlet fever.

Five Indicted for Murder of Indiana Girl

GARY (Ind.) Dec. 9. (AP)—Five men were indicted for first-degree murder today by the grand jury that investigated the death on November 30 of 18-year-old Arlene Draves.

Miss Draves was asserted to have been criminally attacked. The Indiana law provides the death penalty for a person convicted of perpetrating a criminal attack that results in death.

Those indicted were Virgil Kirkland, 20 years of age, former high school football star; David Thompson, 22, in whose home a liquor party is said to have been held; Leon Stanford, 21, former high school basketball and football star; Henry Shirk, 21, another former high school athlete, and Paul Barton, 21.

Girl Confesses Drugging Slain Gem Salesman

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 9. (AP)—Miss Jean Dayle, 21 years of age, was arrested here today and confessed, officers said, she had planned the robbery of Sam Frank, 65-year-old Memphis (Tenn.) jewelry salesman, found slain in his room here last week, but denied she struck the blow which killed him.

Miss Dayle was arrested at a residence here and admitted, police said, she had planned the robbery of Frank for about two weeks prior to his death. She said she placed a sedative in his whisky Friday night and after the drug began to work on him, entered the hall of the hotel to "see if the coast was clear," but two men overpowered her, struck Frank on the head with a bottle, looted his clothing of money and jewelry, and escaped.

SEATTLE BANKER DIES

SEATTLE, Dec. 9. (AP)—Samuel Collyer, 83 years of age, former Seattle banker and founder of the Washington Bankers' Association, died today.

LIVERWORT OL' ADAM IN PLANT EDEN

Delicate Gelatine Found in Alaskan Lava Beds Seen as First of Earth's Flora

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—A small delicate variety of the liverwort plant found growing in Alaskan lava beds was advanced by science today as the possible pioneer of all vegetable life.

Striving to solve the riddle of the start of vegetation on the earth's crust in the dim past, an expedition of the National Geographic Society explored the lava wastes of the Alaskan Peninsula, last summer and found the liverworts thriving where no other plant life could survive.

The preliminary report of the expedition, headed by Dr. Robert F. Griggs, botanist, says the lava areas, created eighteen years ago during the great eruption of Katmai volcano, were barren of soil, and there was no apparent trace of nitrogen, necessary for plant growth.

Where the liverworts had been established long enough to decay and form beginnings of soil, however, other plants were starting, said Griggs, who is making experiments to determine if the liverwort is able to obtain nitrogen from the air.

ARTIFICIAL FOG TO BE PRODUCED

Queen's Commission Seeks Mystery Deaths' Cause

BRUSSELS, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—An artificial fog will be produced in Brussels and Liege shortly and will be mixed with industrial gases to discover the cause of the mysterious deaths in the Meuse Valley last week.

Lungs, brains and blood were taken today from the bodies of two more fog victims for chemical analysis. Government officials persist in declaring that the thick fog alone caused the disaster. Queen Elizabeth has privately appointed a commission of physicians and refuses to bow to the superficial verdict of the local authorities.

MAYOR WALKER WEEPS, BUT NOT FOR CITY'S SINS

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (Exclusive) — Mayor Walker broke down and wept publicly, like a spanked child, at City Hall today. A startlingly large number of his official family, including commissioners, assistants and secretaries, to say nothing of random callers, sports writers, heel coolers, newspaper men, judges and Aldermen, wept with him.

It was, as some one remarked afterward, a wholesale crying jag that afflicted every human being who found himself at 3:15 in the afternoon in the west end of the main corridor. And it confirmed a popular belief that anything can happen at City Hall—and usually does.

For the cause of the tears was a gas attack. Unrestrained tears, salty tears, tears that flowed not from the wells of emotion, but from a more modern source—chlorine and phosgene gas—made for a few minutes the seat of city government a lachrymose chamber.

Chief Magistrate Corrigan, protagonist of peace and order, accidentally discharged a tear gas pistol in the midst of a meeting in the reception room at which the Mayor presided.

Shaped like a fountain pen, but slightly larger, the instrument is made of metal and is operated by a plunger which loads the barrel. When the clip is turned, a small button is exposed, and this, when touched, discharges the gas ammunition.

OATH OF OFFICE TAKEN BY DOAK

Settlement of Strikes to Be His First Concern

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—Settlement of labor disputes will be the first effort of W. N. Doak, who today took office as Secretary of Labor.

Settling into his new position eight days later than had been expected, Mr. Doak began getting acquainted with his duties. He was scheduled to take the oath of office, the 1st inst., but was not confirmed by the Senate until yesterday.

Doak said at the first opportunity he will endeavor to assist in settling the Danville (Va.) textile strike.

Mexican Party Expels Bolters

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 9. (AP)—The expulsion of four Senators from the National Revolutionary party was announced tonight by Gen. Lazaro Cardenas, president of the party, who accused them of indiscipline for attacks on Finance Minister Luis Montes de Oca, who also is a member of the party.

The expulsion followed attacks in the Senate on the Finance Minister, which yesterday drew from President Ortiz Rubio a spirited defense of his Cabinet officer.

MINE WAGE CUT ASKED

BRUSSELS (Belgium) Dec. 9. (AP) Owing to a serious crisis in the coal industry, mine owners today suggested a further wage cut of 5 per cent in all districts.

GROWERS WANT HECKE RETAINED

Bay City Meeting Indorses Agriculture Director

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—Governor-elect Rolph will find himself in the midst of the protracted controversy among the farming interests of California over the retention in office of George H. Hecke, director of the State Department of Agriculture, when a delegation of farm leaders calls on him tomorrow to ask that Hecke be reappointed.

The committee was named today following a State-wide meeting of agricultural leaders at the Palace Hotel, where a resolution indorsing Hecke was approved after a short debate.

LAVAL RETAINS CABINET HOPES

Organization to Be Tried Minus Radicals

New French Government Needed at Once

Right Group Insisting on Two Portfolios

PARIS, Dec. 9. (AP)—Senator Pierre Laval, charged by President Doumergue to form a new Cabinet to replace the defeated Tardieu Ministry, reported to the President tonight he still hoped to succeed despite setbacks he had met during the day.

After a conference with Edouard Herriot, former Premier and a Radical Socialist leader, Senator Laval made a statement which was interpreted as meaning he would assemble a Cabinet without aid of the Radical Socialists, the chief stumbling-block so far. This followed a meeting of the Radicals.

"In view of the apparent deadlock of parties," he said, "and the evident differences of opinion between the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies, it is most important that the government be formed as soon as possible."

This interpretation was bolstered by the fact M. Laval announced he also had arranged a conference with Andre Tardieu, the Premier overthrown last week.

It is considered no French Cabinet would have much chance without M. Tardieu, but the fact he insists on at least one member of the Rightist group—which has always backed him—being included has caused the opposition of the Radical Socialists. The Right group, led by Louis Marin and holding nearly 100 seats in the Chamber, has insisted on two Cabinet portfolios or one minister and two undersecretaries of State.

The attitude of the two groups made it extremely improbable M Laval could secure any wide concentration of parties in his ministry and political observers felt tonight that, like Tardieu, he must omit the Radical Socialists from his calculations and form a ministry, much like that of his predecessor, leaning on the Center and Moderate Right elements.

FIRST FIFTY YEARS HARDEST

Ex-Countess, Past Century Mark, Says Woman at Best After Brain Has Chance to Exert Itself

CHICAGO, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—A woman drinks of the elixir of life and enters the gates of Utopia only after she is through with sex and food. In that moment a woman's intelligence starts unfolding like a rose in a garden, and her brain has a chance to exert itself.

Dr. Charlotte De Galliere Davenport, born a Russian countess 106 years ago, and once wedded to a prince, sat in her room at the Hotel La Salle today and spun a new maxim to the effect that the last fifty years of a woman's life are the happiest.

The ex-Russian noblewoman explained why women are happiest after 50 years. In doing so she told of her personal life in the last thirty-four years and her life as a child. The years in-between, when she was married to a prince and bore him six sons, she chooses to forget.

Dr. Davenport, thirty-four years ago married a young newspaper man, who is now 58 years of age. It was the only one of her three marriages that was nappy, she declared. Her present husband, an American, collaborates with her in writing and translations, she said.

After she was 50, the elderly noblewoman said, she began leaving hearty foods alone. Bean soup with onions was part of her diet. Today she subsists on a glass of cream a day.

Dr. Davenport gives credit to simple, sane thinking, food adapted to one's years, daily exercise and a life philosophy carefully worked out, as some of the reasons for her longevity, clarity of brain and soundness of health.

Although she smokes cigarettes, she does not indulge in the cosmetics of the flapper. In all her life, she declared, she has never painted or powdered her face.

Death Penalty Recess Favored

LONDON, Dec. 9. (AP)—A recommendation that capital punishment be suspended for an experimental period of five years understood to be the chief feature of a report by the House of Commons Committee on Capital Punishment which completed its sessions today.

The report was signed by a bare majority of fifteen members.

KEEN RIVALRY OVER DAM ROAD EXPECTED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—Keen competition between contractors seeking to build the highway from Boulder City to the dam was predicted by R. F. Walter, chief engineer, in a report today to Commissioner of Reclamation Mead. Bids for the highway will be received at Las Vegas, Nev., until January 7. Commissioner Mead expects the railroad from Las Vegas to the dam to be ready for operation by January 15. Seventeen of the twenty-two miles of roadbed have been graded.

Sinking Launch Drowns Scores

SHANGHAI, Dec. 9. (AP)—Approximately 100 Chinese are believed to have drowned in the sinking of the overcrowded launch Sientau in the Yangtse River above Hankow, the 2nd inst.

While the number of Chinese jammed aboard the 100-foot launch could not be determined, investigation by officers of foreign gun boats at Sinti indicated about 100 perished.

AMERICAN EMBASSY BANQUET BONE DRY

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 9. (AP)—J. Reuben Clark, new United States Ambassador to Mexico, gave his first reception in the Embassy this afternoon. It was without liquor, as Mr. Clark recently announced no alcoholic beverages would be served in the Embassy during his term.

BRUENING WINS REICHSTAG TILT

Debate on International Questions Shut Off

Cries for Scalp of Curtius Quickly Silenced

Chancellor Threatens to Take Over Portfolio

BERLIN, Dec. 9. (AP)—Chancellor Bruening won two important victories in the Reichstag today, shutting off debate on difficult international questions and silencing threats against Foreign Minister Curtius. The ministry now looks safe until after Christmas, at least.

By a rising vote the Reichstag approved Bruening's appeals and agreed the nation's best interest would not be served by discussing the Polish situation, the Versailles treaty, the Young plan or other questions running through the minds of some of the Reichstagers.

AGGRESSIVE THREAT

It was by an aggressive and open threat the Chancellor backed down attempts to unseat Foreign Minister Curtius. Bruening flatly told the Reichstag if such attempts were successful he would take over Curtius's portfolio himself.

The warning was effective and a no confidence motion on Curtius was withheld. None of the opposition wants Bruening to take charge in what would be virtually a one-man government.

Bruening's victory was achieved, however, only after passions had flared up in discussions preceding a vote on a motion offered by the Fascists, Nationalists and Communists to debate foreign policy.

DESERTION CHARGED

Charges of deserting the Germans in Poland by shutting off debate, hurled by the Nationalists and Fascist members, were countered by charges from the government and Social Democratic benches such talk was bound to harm the cause of the minorities in Poland.

Foreign Minister Curtius now can prepare without interruption a plea concerning the German minorities in Poland for consideration at the January session of the League Council and Adam Stegerwald, Labor Minister, will be permitted to busy himself with efforts to bring employees and employers together to reduce the number of unemployed.

BEAUTY SHINES AMID SNOWS

Eskimo Maiden, Plump and Pleasing, Chosen First of Northern Stars

WINNIPEG (Man.) Dec. 9. (AP)—Enoosiak, a 24-year-old Eskimo girl, reigns today as queen of beauty in the Arctic.

Andrew Brown, in charge of the trading post at Baker Lake on Chesterfield Inlet, 1000 miles north of here, picked her from among two dozen dark-eyed, brown-skinned entrants in the first beauty contest ever held within the Arctic Circle.

Enoosiak, whose name in English is "Shining Star," received the first mirror she ever owned as a prize.

British Soldiers Slain in India

LONDON, Dec. 9. (AP)—A Lahore dispatch to the London Evening News today said that Capt. P. J. W. McClenaghan of the Tenth Battalion, Eighth Punjab Regiment, and a sergeant, were shot and killed on parade at Lahore today by a lance corporal.

Indian soldiers fired two rounds at the assailant but he shot and killed himself before it was possible to capture him.

A. M. HUNT, ENGINEER, DIES

BERKELEY, Dec. 9. (AP)—Andrew Murray Hunt, 71 years of age, electrical and mechanical engineer, died last night.

WATERWAY MEN HEAR RAIL PLEA

Don't Cripple Roads, G.O.P. Counsel Warns

Completion of Lake Erie Ship Canal Urged

Larger Boats Recommended at Rivers Congress

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—Rivers and harbors advocates were warned today by James Francis Burke, counsel of the Republican National Committee, against pressing their cause to the point of crippling American railroads.

Burke, who represented the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce before the annual convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress which opened today, made a plea for completion of the Lake Erie ship canal.

"Every thoughtful American," Burke said, "must realize that we have reached the point in modern transportation development where the railroads could never long survive the unbridled use of public monies to support other highways over which their competitors may conduct their private business at a profit, while the railroads and other taxpayers foot the bill."

Maj.-Gen. Lytle Brown, chief of army engineers, said that where a waterway project will not show a saving over rail rates the engineers do not recommend it.

Other speakers, T. V. O'Connor, Shipping Board chairman; John F. Galvin, chairman of the Port of New York Authority, and Representative Cooper of Ohio, all urged larger and better ships and waterways.

TRAGEDIENNE DIES

PARIS, Dec. 9. (AP)—Julienne Madeleine Roch, one of the most noted of France's tragediennes, died today at Marly-le-Roi, Paris suburb. She was 45 years of age.

VALENCIA RIOT KILLS STRIKER

Policeman and Many Others Receive Injuries

Fifty Arrested as General Walkout Begins

Three Street Cars Tipped and Attacked

VALENCIA (Spain) Dec. 9. (AP)—Rioting that raged unabated here today resulted in the death of one striker, the serious wounding of a policeman, numerous minor wounded cases and fifty arrests.

The disorders started after a forty-eight-hour general strike had been called in protest against failure of attempts to arbitrate a dispute between employers and workers in several crafts, which had crippled shipping and transportation facilities.

POLICEMAN BADLY HURT

The only casualty reported suffered by the police was the serious wounding of Bravo Nunez, a member of the city force, who had been reported as having died.

While officers carried on a round-up in sections of the city, new disorders broke out elsewhere. Three street cars were overturned and attacked by strikers, indignant because the cars were functioning in defiance of the strike. The strikers attacked vegetable peddlers and wrecked their carts because they refused to join the walkout.

LETTER BY FRANCO

In the pockets of the dead striker, Sanches Garcia, were found printed copies of a letter attributed to the missing aviator, Maj. Ramon Franco, making light of the government.

Authorities declared Communist and Socialist elements incited the Valencia workers to strike.

Under orders of the Governor, and heavily guarded by police, a few street cars began to move through the streets this afternoon.

The principal conflict precipitating the strike was between employers and carpenters, but other crafts are believed ready to join the walkout.

ARMORY FOUND IN LISBON TUNNEL

LISBON, Dec. 9. (AP)—Quantities of arms, bombs and ammunition were discovered by police today in an underground tunnel leading from a wine cellar in the center of the city.

The discovery was one result of a nation-wide search for antigovernment plotters, a number of whom have been arrested in the past several days.

Several arrests were made, among them Lieut. Manuel Correia, accused as one of the leaders of an elaborate movement to overthrow the government.

NOTE LIFTER PRISON QUIZ TO BE ASKED

Tennessee Convict Said to Have Been Busy Again at "Raising" of Bills

NASHVILLE (Tenn.) Dec. 9. (AP)—Leo S. Williams, Federal secret service operative, said today he will seek a Federal grand jury investigation of "raised-note activity" at the State penitentiary.

Williams arrested Henry Ford and another youth, Everett Hill, both of Franklin, on charges of passing a bill raised from $2 to represent a $20 note.

The agent said the note raising was the work of Howard Barr, in whose cell he has seized equipment for raising notes three times within the last five years.

Barr, Williams said, is one of the cleverest "raised-note artists" in the country.

"Barr received training as a cartoonist, I understand," the agent said. He came originally from Indianapolis.

"He is serving two fifteen-to-thirty-year sentences for robbery imposed in Knox county. In addition, he is under one Federal sentence of three years for raising notes in the State prison."

GILA RIVER DISPUTE INQUIRY EXTENDED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—The question of water rights of 1000 farmers living above the Coolidge Dam on the Gila River in Arizona was referred by Secretary Wilbur today to Solicitor E. C. Finney for further investigation following a hearing given the Arizona delegation. Senators Hayden and Ashurst and Representative Douglas and John Gust, Phoenix attorney representing the water users, appeared before Secretary Wilbur and explained the desire of the Arizonans to avoid further litigation over the problem.

VENEZUELA DEDICATES STATUE OF HENRY CLAY

CARACAS, Dec. 9. (AP)—A statue of Henry Clay, presented to Venezuela by the United States government, was dedicated today by James Rockwill Sheffield, former American Ambassador to Mexico. The statue, which is being given in return for one of Gen. Simon Bolivar, hero of South American independence, unveiled in New York in 1921, was formally received by President Perez for Venezuela.

POLICE CHECK CHINESE MAKING RUN ON BANK

SHANGHAI, Dec. 9. (AP)—Police were called today to restrain thousands of Chinese who charged against the Hongkong branch of the National City Bank of New York to withdraw deposits. Tellers paid out money as fast as possible. The manager of the Shanghai branch bank said it possessed ample silver currency to meet all demands.

GANGSTERS' "WAR" PLAN DISRUPTED

Seizure of Armored Car in Detroit Balks Wide Sale of Like Machines

DETROIT, Dec. 9. (AP)—Investigators of Wayne county's twenty-two-man grand jury said today a raid they sponsored in which an armored car was seized had disrupted a plan for nation-wide distribution of cars specially constructed to withstand machine-gun and rifle fire of gang wars.

They said they had learned that the automobile they seized yesterday, heavily reinforced with steel plates and glazed with bullet-proof glass, was being built for Angelo Meli, reputed Sicilian gang leader, who has been sought unsuccessfully for questioning since the slaying July 23, last, of Gerald E. (Jerry) Buckley, militant radio political commentator.

From three persons found at work in the garage where the armored car was seized, grand jury officials said they had learned at least three other "war" automobiles had been built there.

FARMER TRIO GIVEN HONORS

Two Men and Woman Get Service Awards

American Group Recognizes Outstanding Labors

California Organization Also Receives Merit Cup

BOSTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—An Iowa farm woman, an Illinois farmer and a retired agricultural professor from the University of Minnesota received distinguished-service medals today from the American Farm Federation for outstanding service to agriculture.

Mrs. Ellsworth Richardson of Albia, Iowa, is the first woman to receive the award. The other recipients are Dudley Myers of Mendon, Ill., and Prof. T. L. Haecker of Lincoln, Neb.

They were chosen from a list of fifty persons in twenty-one States who had rendered particularly valuable service to agriculture. Mrs. Richardson, State and community chairman for the Iowa Farm Bureau, has been a pioneer worker in organizing farm women besides carrying on the duties of home and family.

NOTABLE WORK

Myers is credited as being largely responsible for the development of the Adams County Livestock Shipping Association, the largest in Illinois, which has become the model for the national expansion of the co-operative marketing of live stock.

Prof. Haecker is known to farmers as "the father of the co-operative dairy system in Minnesota." His particular service to agriculture has been through researches, the first on the feeding of live stock and the second, regarded by Farm Bureau leaders as even more important, in the field of co-operative marketing.

Today's awards bring to a total of six the number who have received the federation's highest award for service to agriculture.

A cup emblematic of the membership championship of the American Farm Bureau Federation was presented to the San Joaquin county (California) organization which numbers 1960 families.

Raymond W. Miller, of Linden, Cal., president of the San Joaquin County Farm Bureau, left his native State for the first time in his life and crossed the country to receive the award.

TAXATION ASSAILED

Earl C. Smith, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association, assailed what he termed "inequitable" taxation of rural communities and said lack of organization has led to these conditions. He proposed organization to remedy the situation.

H. G. Smith, president of the National Council of Shipbuilders, declared patronage of American vessels would help develop the farmers' foreign markets and Mark Graves, Commissioner of Taxation for New York State, said the burden of taxation on real property must be lifted.

"I am confident," Graves said, "that a program aimed to give rural taxpayers much-needed relief will require the redistribution of the tax load in such a way that real property, whether rural or urban, will carry a much smaller share of the total bill."

The resolutions committee of the federation, completing a session late tonight, announced it would recommend continued support of the Federal Farm Board to the convention tomorrow. It will urge also that stabilization activities which have been applied to wheat and cotton be extended to other crops at once.

DAM FUND REQUEST CRITICISED

Arizona Attorney-General Says Wilbur Shows Lack of Respect for Court

SAFFORD (Ariz.) Dec. 9. (AP)—K. Atty.-Gen. Peterson's statement was made during an address he delivered at the annual meeting of the Graham county Chamber of Commerce.

He pointed out that under the suit filed by Arizona the validity of the Boulder Dam act is being questioned and at present is at issue before the Supreme Court.

"We did not go to court," he said, "until all other gates were closed to us. We have right on our side, we have the law on our side and it is with the greatest confidence we await the outcome."

MAN HELD IN BOMBING CASE

'A. I. Hodges, Employee of County, Under Arrest

Questioned on Fatal Blast in Filipino Rooming-house

IMPERIAL, Dec. 9.—A. L. Hodges, 26-year-old caterpillar driver, employed by Imperial county, was taken in custody today and is being questioned by deputy sheriffs in connection with the bombing here last night of a Filipino rooming-house and the death of Oriston E. Lampkey, vegetable worker.

Hodges was identified by clerks in an El Centro hardware store as the purchaser of dynamite believed to have been used in making the home-made bombs which caused the death of Lampkey and the injury of three other Filipinos. The suspect denied that he purchased the explosive and asserted he was playing pool in Imperial when the explosion occurred.

Following the outbreak last night, which came as the climax to a series of minor clashes between American and Filipino workers, Sheriff Charles E. Gillett took steps today to guard against further trouble involving the 3000 Filipinos who are now in Imperial Valley to harvest the lettuce crop.

According to investigating officers, the bomb, which contained pieces of chain and metal slugs, evidently was tossed through a window. A huge hole was torn in the flooring and pieces of the chain crashed through the loft and roof above. Between fifty and sixty Filipinos used the building as sleeping quarters, but only a small number of them were present at 8:15 p.m. when the explosion occurred. Elogio Lampkey, brother of the dead man, is critically injured and may not live, according to physicians. Two other Filipinos received only minor injuries.

Sheriff Gillett stated today that there have been several fist fights in El Centro streets during the past few days, involving Americans who resented the attitude of the local Filipinos toward American girls on the street. Officers were instructed here several days ago to prohibit the dark-skinned workers from assembling in groups on the main business streets.

Dead Body of Mexican Found on Desert Road

EL CENTRO, Dec. 9.—Evidently the victim of heat and thirst, the bodyq of Leonardo Gonzales, Mexican, was brought in last night from the desert north of Chocolate Mountains, where it was found last Sunday by R. S. Corn of Calipatria.

Papers found in the clothing by Deputy Coroner Charles C. Cockley identified the man and indicated that he was formerly an employee of the Pacific Electric Railway in Los Angeles. There were no marks of violence and Cockley expressed the opinion that the man died during the period of extreme heat last summer.

The remains were found on a little-traveled road between Chuckawalla Well and Beal's Well, near the Imperial-Riverside county line. Cockley has reported the case to the Los Angeles police for further investigation.

POLICE LIEUTENANT UNDER SUSPENSION

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 9.—Charging him with "misconduct unbecoming an officer," the Police Commission today suspended from the Santa Barbara police force Lieut. H. H. Coit. The charges against the officer were not specified, but probably will be Thursday afternoon, when Coit will ask for particulars from the commission. It has been intimated that Lieut. Coit acted as a "tip-off" man in police raids, although Tom B. Clark, president of the commission, would not confirm the report. Chief George Sloan expressed considerable surprise when informed of the commission's action, but deferred commenting until Thursday's hearing. Lieut. Coit came to Santa Barbara three years ago highly recommended from Inglewood.

NEW JUSTICE NAMED

GARDENA, Dec. 9.—Carl B. Sturzenacker, local attorney, has been selected as justice of the peace of Talamantes township and will take up his residence there shortly. THEATER TO JOIN ELKS IN CHARITY

Pomona B.P.O.E. and California Movie House to Give Yuletide Cheer

POMONA, Dec. 9.—An ambitious Yuletide charity program has been launched by the Pomona Lodge of Elks and the California Theater, working hand in hand. The two organizations have set a goal of 600 baskets of groceries to be distributed to needy local families Christmas Eve.

The theater and its employees have donated a comprehensive program of talkies, to which the admission charge will be an article of groceries. On the 20th inst. the packages will be deposited in the theater lobby in lieu of admissions, and through this source, a truckload of edibles is anticipated. The groceries will later be packed into baskets for distribution by the Elks organization which has undertaken a task this year far greater than ever before attempted here, anticipating that charitable demands will prove much heavier this Christmas than heretofore.

In addition to this, hundreds of free theater tickets are being distributed by the two organizations through co-operation of the city schools, to children who otherwise would be unable to witness a movie. All children presenting these tickets at the theater will be given a substantial toy and candy, while Santa Claus will preside for a week before Christmas to entertain all children holding these guest tickets.

Theater parties are also being planned for 100 children of the David and Margaret home of La Verne, and for 250 children from the Spadra Pacific colony, who will be guests of the two organizations. These kiddies will be entertained by a special picture, "Tom Sawyer," arranged by the joint hosts for their entertainment on the 17th inst.

Man Counting Counterfeit Cash Lands in Jail

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 9.—The alertness of Police Captain Joe Mendez last night resulted in the arrest of Lawrence J. Waters, 40 years of age, said by the police to have had counterfeit money in his possession. Capt. Mendez was on his way to work when his attention was attracted to a man standing at Seventh and Mulberry streets counting over a handful of coins with an absorbed interest that aroused the officer's suspicions.

"Let me see that money," demanded the officer. An inspection revealed, the police say, that it was counterfeit, and of a grade calculated to deceive anyone not making a close inspection.

At the police station Inspector Paul Scott questioned Waters and obtained a confession in which Waters said he had bought the money in Los Angeles at half its face value. Inspector Scott was skeptical of the asserted purchase and announced he will make further investigation. The following counterfeit coins were taken from Waters: Twelve half-dollars, twenty quarters, ten dimes, eight nickels and six pennies.

Riverside Man Dies Suddenly

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 9.—After an illness of only twelve hours Charles P. Pharaoh, for ten years a resident of Riverside, died suddenly yesterday morning at his residence, 3314 Orange street.

Active up to a few hours before his death, Pharaoh went to Redlands and later in the day visited the Lake Norconian Club. Returning home in the evening he retired, apparently in good health, but about 10 o'clock he was stricken with a heart attack. After medical treatment Pharaoh rallied, but another attack proved fatal.

He was 70 years of age. For more than forty years he was a prominent business man of Worcester, Mass. He was in the clothing business for many years and was president of the Walker Ice and Coal Company in the Massachusetts city before his retirement from active business.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Isabel Pharaoh of Riverside, and four brothers and two sisters. The brothers are Walter C. and Ernest E. Pharoah of Riverside, John Austin Pharaoh of Redlands and William Pharaoh of Haverhill, Mass. Sisters are Mrs. J. Henry Smith of Montreal and Mrs. H. M. Welch of New York.

WEB SPUN FOR TOURISTS

San Diego County Planning Commission Purposes to Provide Two Major Highways From East

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 9.—The County Planning Commission purposes to provide two San Diego highways connecting with main routes now serving Los Angeles from the East, it was announced here today by Edgar F. Hastings, ex-officio member of the commission. The plan is comprehensive and will be carried out with a view to taking full advantage of existing highways.

The Los Angeles-Orange area now is fed by two laterals, one via Blythe and the other by way of Yuma, both crossing the Colorado River. The biggest unit in the San Diego plan is a projected road tapping Blythe and leading here by way of Brawley and other Imperial county cities. It will cut directly across three other Los Angeles roads and offers an inviting short-cut to the pines and thence to the ocean. Enthusiastic support of the plan is promised from Imperial county residents who see in it a realization of their desire to condense the east-west flow of traffic through the valley cities. Much of that traffic now by-passes Imperial to the north. The proposed new San Diego-Blythe road would divert traffic from the north to the south by an easy, wide short-cut. The San Diego short-cut route is to be the battle cry of the Planning Commmission and adherents of the idea, Supervisor Hastings announced. Hastings said it was part of the plan that the San Diego Chamber of Commmerce, the San Diego California Club and other booster agencies should unite to provide funds to advertise it by huge signs along the route.

AUTOIST SEES "SMOKE," REPORTS FIRE

Desert Tree Lives Up to Name By Deceiving Traveler

This Is What Fooled Wayfarer Near Palm Springs

The above photograph partially explains how a false fire report was made to Palm Springs residents recently when an excited motorist reported that while driving on the Indio road he had seen clouds of smoke lying over the desert and was quite sure that somebody should do something to extinguish the fire which was causing it.

PALM SPRINGS, Dec. 9.—An excited motorist caused some concern here yesterday when he reported at the office of the local Chamber of Commerce that while driving over the Indio road clouds of smoke were seen lying over the desert. He was quite sure that some one should do something to extinguish the fire that was causing it.

A brief investigation revealed that the "smoke" was not smoke at all but was the effect caused by the Smoke Tree Forest in the moonlight which so closely resembled the effects of fire that the man had been completely deceived by the illusion.

The Smoke Tree Forest is the only one of this strange kind of trees known to exist in the world, and is one of the most interesting sights on the desert.

The following morning, not being entirely convinced of the fact that he had not actually seen real smoke, the motorist returned to the scene and photographed the forest in daylight, and entered it as his contribution to the Palm Springs desert contest, feeling confident that such an unusual picture should win him either a cash award or a free week-end at one of the hotels.

BASKETBALL STAR HURT

Jeff Nibley, Captain of Glendale High's Five, in Fall During Game Incurs Concussion

GLENDALE, Dec. 9.—Jeff Nibley, captain of the Glendale High School varsity basketball team, is in the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital with a severe case of concussion of the brain, the result of a fall on the floor of the Lincoln High School (Los Angeles,) floor last night.

Nibley had leaped for the ball when an opposing player collided with him, and the Glendale star landed heavily on his head. It was at first feared that Nibley's skull had been fractured, but X-ray examinations dispelled this fear.

Nibley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Nibley, Jr., and a grandson of Charles W. Nibley, Sr., presiding bishop of the Mormon Church, who comes from Utah to spend part of each winter with relatives in this city.

Officer Does Duty Between Radio Numbers

GLENDALE, Dec. 9.—Hearing a crash of colliding automobiles as he sat by the family gas heater taking his slippered ease, Patrolman R. E. Gidden walked out on Sonora avenue to investigate the trouble.

Search of a car driven by John G. Patterson, 1126 West Twenty-eighth street, Los Angeles, revealed, according to the officer, three bottles of beer, and Gidden summoned the wagon. Detective Sergeant Warwick and Detective Freeman placed Patterson under arrest and instructed a companion who had been riding with him, to take Patterson's machine to a garage or somewhere to have its battered fender repaired. The other car belongs to Frank Evans, 1151 Sonora avenue.

Patterson was booked for driving while intoxicated and was held for trial before Judge F. H. Lowe in $350 bond, which he furnished after spending a night in the City Jail.

His duty accomplished, Gidden strolled back to the family fireside and hearkened to some more radio selections.

Glendale Man's Mystery Death Will Be Sifted

GLENDALE, Dec. 9.—A Coroner's inquest will be conducted to determine the exact cause of the death of Albert M. Fowler, 58 years of age, who succumbed to a sudden attack at his home, 1975 Verdugo Knolls, in spite of the efforts of the family physician, Dr. Edward Swift, and the fire department inhalator squad, to resuscitate him.

Fowler was alone with his daughter, Miss Alberta Fowler, when he was stricken, and after the girl had run from the house to summon aid, a party of friends, E. B. Mitchell, his son and daughter, and Robert I. Jarvis, all of Santa Monica, entered the residence.

Receiving no response to their greetings from the silent form on the couch they investigated and found that Fowler was dead. Miss Fowler, on her return, stated that her father had been in good health except for occasional spasms of indigestion.

AGED TRAFFIC VICTIM IN SERIOUS CONDITION

ARCADIA, Dec. 9.—As the result of an automobile accident yesterday C. D. Hammerly, 60 years of age, of 945 Fairview avenue, is in a serious condition at the Monrovia Hospital, according to local police records.

Chief Richards stated today that the aged man was knocked down by a car driven by Albert E. Donovan, 23-year-old youth of 11 El Dorado avenue, on East Huntington Drive. According to reports of the accident young Donovan was traveling at about twenty miles an hour and was turning out around the man when Hammerly, evidently confused, walked directly in front of the machine.

ELKS IN MEMORIAL

REDLANDS, Dec. 9.—Annual memorial services for the Redlands lodge of Elks were held today at the Presbyterian Church with the memorial sermon being given by Rev. O. F. Hofstead. Those who have died during the year were H. O. Smith, John P. Hird, Theodore B. Sherman, W. C. Hargraves, W. C. Guerth and Henry N. James. Exalted Ruler Richard Lackey had charge of the services.

Rites for Hero and Daughter at Redlands

REDLANDS, Dec. 9.—Funeral services for Henry N. James, local attorney, who died a heroic death while attempting to rescue his little daughter, Virginia Mary, from their burning home at Bloomington, and for the little girl, were conducted here this afternoon. The services were private, only relatives of the family attending.

Mr. James, wakened by smoke, having succeeded in saving his wife and their two sons, went back after the little girl, when the floor caved in and the two were burned.

He was a member of the Redlands lodge of Elks and of the ritual team, a member of the Kiwanis Club here, and also was the Bloomington member of the Colton School Board. He had been successful in corporation law in New York and came to California sixteen years ago because of ill health.

He spent several years in Los Angeles but four years ago bought a home at Bloomington and about two years ago opened a law office here. He was a cousin of Mrs. B. J. Willis of Highland avenue.

WOMAN VANISHES

WALNUT PARK, Dec. 9.—Mrs. Lena Rawlings of 2922 Broadway, Walnut Park, has been missing from her home since Thanksgiving Day, according to a report made at the Florence-avenue substation of the Sheriff's office, by Mrs. M. Jones of the same address. Mrs. Rawlings is described as being 34 years of age, weighing 135 pounds, is five feet three inches in height, and has brown hair and eyes. It is said that she has been mentally depressed for some time.

WALNUT PARK, Dec. 9.—A lone bank robber was successful in holding up the Walnut Park branch of the Bank of America at 8001 Seville avenue, just before closing time this afternoon, making his escape with several hundred dollars.

MERGING OF COUNTY FAIRS PETITIONED

SANTA ANA, Dec. 9.—A resolution was filed by the Laguna Beach Chamber of Commerce with the Orange County Board of Supervisors today, urging the abandonment of the Orange County Fair and its consolidation with the Riverside and San Bernardino county fairs in the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona. The resolution suggested the move as for the best interests of Orange county. The board took no action on the resolution.

SANTA ANA'S PARTY BURGLAR AT ORANGE

ORANGE, Dec. 9.—The "party burglar" who recently has become very obnoxious to local police, is operating in Orange. Police reported that Santa Ana's burglar entered the home of Lyle Richards of 159 Lester Drive last night and relieved guests of four pocketbooks which he found on a bed in the back room and disappeared. Approximately $20 was in the purses taken.

FIRE MENACES LANDMARK

Early-Morning Blaze in Apartment House Fashioned From Half of Ontario's First Hotel Causes Shower of Belongings From Windows

ONTARIO, Dec. 9.—Ontario nearly lost one of its oldest landmarks by fire, but when the carpenters' hammers quit sounding this week all marks of the near-conflagration will be removed.

At an hour in the morning when the milkman is making his rounds, fire broke out in the rear of the Moore Apartments, 208 West A street, and in a short time the huge wooden structure was filled with smoke.

Scantily clad occupants scampered to the street, and a three-alarm call brought all the equipment and four trucks to the scene.

Quick work in getting water on the blaze prevented a heavy loss.

A score of minor mishaps resulted to the throng of curious drawn to the scene. Excited residents of upstairs rooms began to throw their possessions out of windows, and those on the ground sped from the shower. Phonograph records, shoes and clothing, sailed out of the windows, and one excited person dragged a large radio set to the window and sought to throw it out, but was dissuaded by some one who managed to keep cooler inside.

One boy of 15 years of age struggled downstairs with his arms full of bed clothing. He stumbled and fell downstairs and crashed into a wall. His head went through the plaster partition, but he was not seriously injured.

The apartment-house is half of the first hotel built in Ontario. Several years ago the old Ontario Hotel was cut in two, and half moved to A street and Campus avenue, and the other half to West A street.

Both halves are now considered large structures.

The property that was damaged by fire belongs to F. W. Woodman of 3201 Euclid avenue, Lynwood.

RABBI TELLS OF COMMUNISM

Dr. George Laiken Relates Observations in Russia

Famous Hebrew Scholar Says Red Teachings Grow

Persistent Propaganda in Schools Grip Youth

GLENDALE, Dec. 9.—Persistent propaganda circulated through the schools of Russia has fastened the Communist principles on that country with a closer grip than ever before, resulting in the almost complete destruction of real culture and religion. This is the verdict of Dr. George Laiken, world-famous Hebrew scholar and rabbi, who is now recuperating at the Glendale Sanitarium from a breakdown that resulted from the hardships he was forced to undergo while he was a prisoner of the soviet in 1920.

DEATH SENTENCE FACED

Dr. Laiken, who was rabbi of the rich Kasan district, in the Volga country, was imprisoned and sentenced to death for his opposition to the soviet teachings, but his sentence was later commuted through the influence of Lenin, but although he was released from prison, he was forced to leave Russia.

"Russia has assumed the burdens of Communism without reservations and is today more strongly Communistic than ever before," Rabbi Laiken declared.

"The soviet system of education has succeeded in overcoming much of the illiteracy that once existed in Russia, but the Communistic principles receive a new supporter in every graduate who completes the school course."

Communism must face a crisis when the "five-year plan," adopted a year ago to bring about a new economic and political dominance, reaches its expiration, Dr. Laiken declared.

LEADER OF HEBREWS

He has long been recognized as one of the leaders of the Hebrew people. Ordained a rabbi at 19 years of age, he obtained degrees from the University of Petrograd and also from the University of Heidelberg, besides being instructor in philosophy and religious history at the German institution. Later he was professor of jurisprudence at Russia's oldest university, at Kasan, being the only Jew ever to teach there. From 1915 to 1917 he was the unofficial representative of his government, aiding the refugees in the Volga region, and he also worked with the Hoover relief organization in 1919.

His studies of educational affairs in the United States have led him to conclude that this country is leading in widespread education, but that its schools are developing a tendency to teach widely but not deeply. This nation, he also believes, has the finest laws in the world, but lacks the executives to enforce them effectively.

Two Admit Part in Burglary of Ventura Place

VENTURA, Dec. 9.—Two youths, one 23 years of age and the other 16, today had confessed to police that they entered the Rex pool hall here Sunday night and took several packages of cigarettes, but denied any knowledge of the $80 in cash reported as missing from a safe.

The pair are Benny Espenosa, 23, laborer, arrested last night at Main and Ventura streets, and Anthony Encinas, 18, seized at a local theater.

Espenosa at first denied any knowledge of the burglary, but later confessed to Chief of Police Clarence Mattson, when he heard of the confession of Encinas, with whom he is asserted to be implicated.

John Radford Rites Conducted

MONROVIA, Dec. 9.—Last rites were conducted yesterday for John W. Radford, prominent Republican leader of this city, who died Friday at his home, 210 West Greystone avenue.

Radford had been seriously ill since Thanksgiving Day, when he suffered an acute heart attack. He was 77 years of age and would have celebrated his golden wedding anniversary had he lived until December 30.

The deceased was born in Fond du Lac, Wis., January 12, 1852. Moving later to Illinois he was for more than thirty years a member of the Chicago Board of Trade and for some time was a member of the Civil Service Commission in that State.

He and his wife came to Monrovia in October, 1922, following retirement from active business in Chicago.

Besides his widow, he leaves two sons, John J. and Robert T. Radford of Monrovia, and a brother, James B. Radford of Fargo, N. D., all of whom were at his bedside when death came. There are two grandsons, John Raymond and Robert T., Jr.

Services were held from the chapel of the Temple Mortuary, and the Masonic lodge was in charge of rites at the grave.

LIMA BEAN PESTS WILL BE STUDIED

Federal Entomologists to Make Their Headquarters in Ventura County

VENTURA, Dec. 9.—Dr. R. Cecil of Washington and Roy Campbell, with headquarters in Alhambra, both from the entomology division of the United States Department of Agriculture, were in this city today consulting with the staff of the farm adviser's office on the location of a laboratory for the study of lima bean pests. This climaxes three years of work on the part of the Ventura County Farm Bureau to secure Federal aid in this cause. The lima bean pod borer is to be the principal pest studied, although all phases of work will be covered.

The government has set aside $7500 per annum for the maintenance of this laboratory. The site has not yet been selected, but will be somewhere east of this city.

Dr. Cecil will make his home here.

San Bernardino May Build New City Hall Soon

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 9.—Proposal to build a new City Hall will be discussed probably Friday at a meeting of city officials with San Bernardino business men, it was announced today by Mayor John C. Ralphs, Jr., after the project had been placed before members of the Council.

It is planned to erect a four-story structure on Court street between Arrowhead and D streets at a probable cost of $400,000. The city would give its equity in the present City Hall on Third street as down payment and complete the purchase on a monthly rental basis over a period of twenty-five years.

Mayor Ralphs is in favor of the proposal because of the stimulus to building in the city, and also to provide employment to a number of craftsmen. If the plans meet with support at the mass meeting, it is likely that an effort will be made to get the project under way shortly after the first of the year.

Mayor Ralphs said that he will insist on a clause in the city's contract, in the event the proposal is accepted, providing for a home contractor and use of home labor in the erection of the building.

The negotiations are being carried on with the Community Builders, Inc., of Los Angeles, and an official of that company has been invited to attend the meeting this week to explain details of financing the project. It is proposed to form a citizens' committee to co-operate with the City Council in making the arrangements for the new building.

AZUSA CHILDREN TO GIVE YULETIDE PLAYS

AZUSA, Dec. 9.—Students of the Intermediate Grammar School will begin their celebration of the holidays on Wednesday, when they will present two fantastical Christmas stage acts, which will be open to their parents and friends.

Under the direction of Miss Marion Henthorn, the young thespians will be seen in "The Canticle of Pan," a fantasy, and "The Toy Maker," a colorful operetta.

According to Superintendent Charles C. Carpenter, students will begin their holiday vacation next Monday, and will not return to school until the 29th inst.

The estimated cost of the project is approximately $200,000. Of this amount the Highway Department will pay one-half and the city of Newport Beach and the county of Orange will together pay the remaining half of the cost.

Negotiations have been in progress for two years. An earlier plan recommended that the State, county and the city of Newport Beach share a third of the total expenditure, but Newport Beach contended that since the highway was a State one, the State should share a greater part of the expense.

Plans and specifications will soon be ready, it is believed, and work on the project will begin later in the winter. The Southern Pacific Company has agreed to give the necessary land required for the right of way for the overhead crossing.

MANY CRASHES THERE

Many serious accidents have occurred at this intersection, which resulted in death to several persons and injuries to numerous others. During the summer seasons and on holidays and Sundays, when thousands of persons visit the Orange county beaches, traffic congestion is extremely acute. At times of congestion, which occurs frequently, machines have been lined up four abreast for a distance of three or four miles on the four avenues leading into the intersection. Special traffic officers are stationed at this point in rush seasons. A stop-and-go signal, installed at this point, has been of great assistance in relieving traffic. This location is about fifty miles south of Los Angeles, yet traffic at times is as great as that at Seventh and Broadway in the northern city.

The Coast Highway from Long Beach to this point, a distance of about twenty miles, has been widened, or is in process of being widened, and is expected to proceed to-

My Friends: Correct Your Eating Faults and Lose Your Fat With Kruschen Salts

Yes: I'm forty-five today—built like a race horse, my friends say—and I know I feel 10 years younger than I did three months ago—and I'd hate to tell you how much fat I lost with Kruschen.

I call Kruschen Salts the "magic salts" because when I was fat and wretched, despondent and half sick all the time—it took only one bottle that I bought for 85 cents at my druggist's to liven me up—put ambition and energy into me—make me feel years younger and with the help of a change in diet show me how to lose the fat I was so ashamed of.

Cut out pastries and desserts—go easy on potatoes, cream, cheese and butter—eat lean meat, chicken, fish, vegetables and fruits and never fail to take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning.

All Owl & Liggett Drug Stores and every other drug store worthy of the name in the World sells Kruschen Salts—an 85-cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—not much to pay for buoyant health.—[Advertisement.

TENTATIVE ALIEN BAN AGREED TO

House Committee Prepares Suspension Bill

Proposed Five-Year Period Reduced to Two

Commission on Immigration Study Suggested

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—A tentative agreement to suspend immigration for two years was reached today by a House committee.

The Immigration Committee had not completed its study of a pending measure or finished amending it. But the members agreed it should suspend immigration for two years instead of five, as would have been provided under the bill introduced by Chairman Johnson.

Johnson plans legislation to establish a commission to codify and clarify immigration and naturalization laws "during the two years" the suspension measure would be in effect.

While Representative Dickstein, Democrat, New York, ranking minority member on the committee, indicated he will approve a two-year suspension, he said restriction for any time longer than that would be "dishonest."

WAR-GUILT ISSUE RAISED

Question Revived in Senate Discussion of Debts; Reed and Borah Disagree on Responsibility

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—The question of who started the World War was raised in the Senate today and a brief but vigorous debate ensued. Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, blamed Germany. Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, thought Great Britain and France must share in the responsibility.

It all began in a discussion of international debt cancellations, precipitated by Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, who sought to insert a magazine article on that subject in the Congressional Record.

Reed asked if it was not German propaganda and said he would oppose with his last "ounce of strength" the cancellation of German reparations because, in his opinion, Germany caused the war.

Borah disagreed and opposed another Reed assertion, to the effect that Germany is not paying excessively.

Senator Dill, Democrat, Washington, asked that the debt question be considered in the light of American adherence to the World Court.

"I wonder what would be our position," he said, "if we go into the World Court under the Root formula and can only protest but not prevent the court passing on questions vitally affecting us."

It was learned the government is not considering any plan for permitting European nations to withhold their debt payments, or to return them as loans.

Nor has it entered into any agreement with France, Great Britain or other nations to control the world's gold supply. These courses have been suggested in recent reports.

Other Nominees Expected to Get Quick Approval

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—Notice of a contest over confirmation of Edgar B. Brossard, Republican, Utah, as a member of the reorganized Tariff Commission, was given in the Senate today after the Finance Committee had approved all six commission nominees.

Chairman Smoot reported the nominations to the Senate. Immediately Senator Harrison of Mississippi, a Democratic member of the Finance Committee, announced Brossard would be opposed.

COMMITTEES VOTE

Brossard was approved in committee by 11 to 8. One Democrat, King, Utah, voted with ten Republicans for a favorable report, and one Republican, La Follette of Wisconsin, joined seven Democrats in opposition.

The only other record vote was on Alfred P. Dennis, Democrat, Maryland. His nomination was approved, 16 to 2, with Senators Couzens, Republican, Michigan, and Harrison, in opposition.

OTHERS APPROVED

Henry P. Fletcher, Pennsylvania, chairman; John L. Coulter, North Dakota, Republicans, and Thomas W. Page, Virginia, and Lincoln Dixon, Indiana, Democrats, were approved without roll calls.

Sugar underlies the opposition to Brossard. He was one of three commission economists who worked on a sugar cost report in 1923 which was used by former Commissioners Marvin and Burgess in reporting to President Coolidge no reduction in the sugar duty was warranted.

Hetch-Hetchy Plans Settled

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—The Hetch-Hetchy conference at the Interior Department was concluded today with agreement on the part of San Francisco to construct all roads and trails in Yosemite National Park called for in the Raker Act. This building program will cost $1,500,000 over a period of six years, with work to start at once.

The question of the sale of power to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company pending installation by the city of municipally owned lines was discussed with the result Secretary Wilbur decided San Francisco was making a diligent effort to comply with its obligations and the sale of power could be continued for the present.

"Peaches" Wins and Then Loses

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Mrs. Frances "Peaches" Heenan Browning won a verdict late today in the $10,150 lawsuit brought against her by Edgar Allen, her former manager, but lost on a counter suit which she had brought for $4545 against Allen during the course of the trial.

Allen sued "Peaches," estranged wife of the millionaire Edward W. "Daddy" Browning, for 25 per cent of her gross income during the time she was playing in vaudeville under his management. Her counter-suit was for asserted loans to Allen.

House Offers Compromise Proposal to Senate

Let Government Run Power Plant, It Suggests

Lease of Nitrate Unit Forms Other Part of Plan

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. (AP)—The deadlock between the House and Senate on Muscle Shoals remained unbroken tonight despite a new offer of compromise from the House.

Conferees are hopeful of working out some plan at the next meeting Friday, however, which will open the path for settlement of the ten-year dispute and thus remove one threat for an extra session in the spring.

SENATORS HOLD OUT

The compromise proposed by the House delegation today calls for government operation of the power plant and lease of the nitrate plant.

The Senators continued to hold out for a vote in the House on the Senate bill for government operation of the entire project.

The House members, however, proposed that the Senate conferees should go back for another vote on the government operation bill in the Senate.

TEXT OF PROPOSAL

The text of the House compromise proposal, which will be further considered at the meeting Friday, follows:

"(1.) The government to operate the dam and power-generating facilities, retaining control of the switchboard.

"(2.) Government to lease the nitrate plants, making liberal provision for the manufacture of fertilizer and fertilizer ingredients, with provision in the lease contract or contracts for ample power at such price and terms as will encourage quantity production of cheap fertilizer for the benefit of agriculture.

"(3.) Government to sell surplus power at the switchboard, giving preferential rights in purchase of same to States, counties and municipalities.

"(4.) Make definite provision for government to build Cove Creek storage dam, authorizing sufficient appropriation for that purpose."

WASHINGTON served fine, old MADEIRA for just one reason . . .

Always a lover of the best in life, our First President became famous throughout the colonies for the fine food and drink he set before his guests. He sent to the far away Mediterranean for his favorite wine—Madeira. That wine was the choice of George Washington and thousands of others, because it had a matchless bouquet nothing else could imitate.

In Busch Extra Dry you'll find just such an individual bouquet plus a subtle, zestful flavor all its own. This bouquet gives Busch Extra Dry a personality that makes it entirely different from any of the 1200 other brands of ginger ale in America.

Anheuser-Busch experimented for years to achieve these results. After many failures, a process was perfected whereby the essence of a little shrub flowering in the tropics was mated to a new and finer effervescing quality. They gave to Busch Extra Dry its brilliant individuality of bouquet and lasting fullness of flavor. To be sure, the Anheuser-Busch method is a secret carefully kept from would-be imitators.

Your first sip will reveal to you the difference between Busch Extra Dry and plebeian ginger ales. You'll discover what ginger ales always have needed—spirit, freshness, breed and a never tiresome personality. You'll know instantly that at last you've found the one of 1200. Then try to be satisfied with any other!

RICHFIELD CUTS BACK AGAIN

Retrenchment May Help Company to Ride Thruogh; Union Oil Flirting With Merger Idea

BY EARLE E. CROWE

As forecast, the directors of the Richfield Oil Company passed the quarterly dividend on the preferred stock yesterday. This action conforms with the general policy of retrenchment initiated with the passing of the common dividend recently and which has extended to all phases of the company's business.

Richfield's management, working with representatives of the banking group that loaned $10,250,000 to satisfy current obligations, has taken hold of the retrenchment problem aggressively and already has made progress in addition to the dividend economies. Drilling, sales, personnel and executive department savings amount to substantial sums to date.

NEW LIFE GIVEN

It appears now that the Richfield management is attempting to ride through without losing its identity through sale or consolidation. The excellent prospects for the development of light oil production on holdings in the Belridge and Lost Hills areas have given new life to the company, and it is possible this crisis in Richfield's affairs will be successfully bridged.

When the crisis first developed and the Los Angeles bankers promptly responded with financial support, the general impression pointed to sale or consolidation as the only solution of the company's difficulties. Several oil companies were interested and made tentative overtures, but only the Tide Water Associated submitted a definite proposition.

The Tide Water Associated proposal has neither been rejected nor accepted, it is understood. Numerous conferences have been held in an effort to reconcile differences on the terms, and in the meantime the Richfield company is working hard to develop new light oil production and put its house in order.

Richfield's progress is undoubtedly watched closely by the Union Oil Company, which has manifested interest in this company on several occasions in the past. Recent reports have indicated the probability of an early proposal from Union, but there is nothing definite to either confirm or deny these rumors. Possibly the best supposition is that conversations have been held, but both companies are only flirting with the idea at this stage.

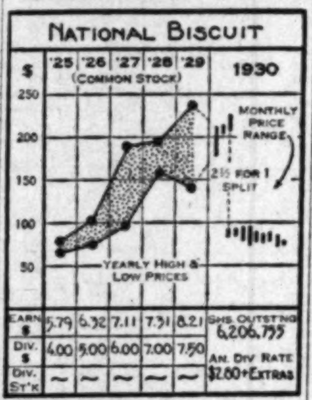
LIGHT OIL NECESSARY

In the industry it is generally believed that Richfield has good prospects for the development of high-gravity production in its Belridge and Lost Hills acreage. While it will take time to drill the wells necessary to open up these areas for any substantial amount of production, the company controlling an oil supply running from 40 to 50 deg. gravity is certain to rest in a strategic position during these times of high crude oil prices.

Referring to this prospective production in nine months' statement released the other day, the company states that 5000 barrels of 45-deg. gravity oil are equal for gasoline-producing purposes to from 10,000 to 15,000 barrels of the heavier oil in the Los Angeles basin.

Anticipating the more active development and consumption of its own oil, the company has given cancellation notices on crude oil purchase contracts amounting to approximately $1,000,000 a month dating from March 1, next. Replacement of these purchases by company production is expected to increase earnings by about $750,000 monthly.

WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



Already leading the world in the baking of specialty crackers and biscuits, making more than 500 varieties, this large food manufacturer is extending its operations into the production of profitable bread and cake baking lines. The acquisition of the Shredded Wheat Company in 1929, also makes National Biscuit an important breakfast-food manufacturer. Products are distributed almost entirely through a nation-wide group of wholesale selling agencies. Subsidiaries manufacture the organization's flour and paper-box requirements.

That this company is able to show continuing progress even in bad business years is evidenced by the nine months' report of earnings at $2.49 per share in 1930, as against a corresponding figure of $2.45 in 1929. Net income for the full year 1929 was about 20 per cent above that for 1928, and 32 per cent in excess of the 1927 total.

CAPITALIZATION

Current data: Recent estimates place net earnings for 1930 at around $23,500,000, equivalent to $3.50 on the outstanding common stock. This total includes net income of the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company and other recent acquisitions.

Kennedy Urges Ratification of Pathe Merger

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Joseph P. Kennedy, chairman of the board of Pathe Exchange, Inc., in a letter to stockholders today urged ratification of the merger agreement with Radio-Keith-Orpheum Corporation. The stockholders will meet on January 5.

Under the merger terms R.-K.-O. would pay $4,630,789 for Pathe studios, stars and other assets. Of this amount, $500,000 would be in cash and the balance in 6 per cent notes, maturing in five equal installments beginning January 1, 1932. The outstanding indebtedness of Pathe, as shown by the last annual statement of December 28, 1929, was $7,301,503.

"The board," said Mr. Kennedy, "believes the consideration to be received on this scale, together with the remaining assets to be liquidated, should provide ample funds for current requirements and should enable the company gradually to liquidate its indebtedness."

Martin-Parry's Board Changed

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—F. M. Small, president, was elected today chairman of Martin-Parry Corporation's board, succeeding John J. Watson, resigned. W. A. Keysworth, W. C. Beitzel, J. E. Small and V. K. Keesey, all of York, Pa., were elected directors following the resignations of John J. Watson, Walter R. Herrick, William T. Dewart, Sir Ashley Sparks, Douglas McKay, Henry Hopkins, Jr., and C. G. Cottes. The membership of the board was reduced to five from eight.

Stockholders approved the reduction in capital from $2,280,000 to $1,000,000 in order to create a surplus permitting the payment of a liquidating dividend of at least $4 a share to stockholders and the creation of adequate working capital for maintenance of the company's business at York, Pa. The company manufactures auto truck bodies.

Silver Drops to New Low Level

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Silver reached a new low on the New York market today at 33 cents, a drop of a full cent since yesterday. The previous low was 33 1-4 cents reached last June 21.

DIVIDEND PASSED

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Sloss Sheffield Steel and Iron Company today passed the quarterly dividend of $1.75 on the preferred due at this time.

Canadian Bank to Open Branch in Los Angeles

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 9. (Exclusive)—Canadian Bank of Commerce of California received a permit today from the State Bank Department to open a branch office in Los Angeles, A. C. Stevens, president, reported.

The San Francisco branch was one of the first banking organizations in the city. Last year the Canadian Bank of Commerce of California was formed to operate under State laws, with headquarters here. This is the first expansion step of the bank, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Toronto institution, and may be followed by opening of branches in other California cities.

President Stevens reports that while the bank is considering several locations in the metropolitan district of Los Angeles no site has been selected and no decision has been reached as to personnel.

LEHIGH VALLEY RAIL EARNINGS DECREASE

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. — Lehigh Valley Railroad Company today reported for the September quarter net income of $657,164 after taxes and charges, equal, after dividends on the 10 per cent preferred stock, to 54 cents a share on 1,210,030 shares of $50 par common stock, as compared with $2,530,140, or $2.08 a share in the 1929 period. Net income for the first nine months of the year totaled $1,496,775, equal to $1.23 a common share, as against $5,393,727, or $4.45 a share in the 1929 period.

OLIVER FARM PLANT ON FULL SCHEDULE

CHICAGO, Dec. 9. — Full operations were resumed this morning at the Battle Creek (Mich.) plant of Oliver Farm Equipment Company, following the resumption of full operations last week at the Charles City (Iowa) tractor plant of the company. DIVIDEND OF OCEANIC OIL DUE AT YULE

Payment of $19,907.20 Brings Total for Year to 14 Per Cent

Marking the first Christmas dividend to be declared by a Los Angeles industrial company, Oceanic Oil Company yesterday announced through Cecile B. Springer, secretary-treasurer, the declaration of a Yuletide disbursement of 2 per cent, payable the 22nd inst., to stock of record the 15th inst.

The dividend payment will total $19,907.20 on 995,360 1-2 shares of $1 par stock. The company already has paid 12 per cent in regular dividends this year, making the total for 1930 14 per cent.

Since December 15, 1923, when the first dividend of 2 per cent was paid by the company, the total dividend disbursements including the present Christmas payment aggregate $1,211,850.68. In 1924 the company paid 15 3-4 cents a share; in 1925, 12 cents; in 1926, 14 cents; in 1927, 16 cents; in 1928, 30 cents, and in 1929, 18 cents a share.

At present, the company is operating one well at Signal Hill, the rest of its income being in the form of royalties. Although the curtailment of production has reduced earnings as compared to last year, the company has covered its dividends by a fair margin, officials said.

Yule Dividend Payment List Grows Longer

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Year-end distribution of special dividends to stockholders was augmented today with the declaration of extra payments by a bank, a trust company, an oil company and a mining company.

Bank of New York and Trust Company voted an extra of $2 a share in addition to the regular quarterly of $4.50 a share, and Guardian Trust Company, Cleveland, declared a special of $3 a share as well as the regular quarterly of the same amount. Both these institutions paid similar extra dividends last year.

Sunray Oil Company voted a special stock dividend of 5 per cent on its common stock and New York & Honduras Rosario Mining Company declared an extra dividend of 50 cents a share in cash, having also made a similar payment last year.

These certificates which certify actual proportionate ownership of an equal amount of municipal improvement bonds against the district to be improved are issued to provide denominations of $500 to $1000.

Jantzen Mills Clears Up Doubt

PORTLAND, Dec. 9.—Jantzen Knitting Mills directors put at rest today speculation regarding 100,000 shares of the company's capital stock which, on completion of the capital reorganization recently approved by shareholders, will be authorized but unissued. The stock, the board said, will be used for future developments and on any disposition stockholders will receive prior rights.

The statement was issued in response to numerous inquiries from shareholders. The board also pointed out that it had no present plans with reference to the stock but that prospects make it seem more likely than not that subsequent developments will require its issuance. Stockholders recently voted to increase the authorized common from 100,000 to 300,000 shares and to effect a two-for-one split-up making 200,000 shares outstanding.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—An early decline which carried cotton prices into new low ground for the season on the near months under a continuation of the recent selling movement, was followed by a moderate rally during today's trading.

After selling off to 10.45, or 12 points net lower, March rallied to 10.55 on covering and trade buying, but the bulges were not fully maintained and the midafternoon market was quiet, with prices ruling about 3 to 6 points net lower.

WALL STREET EYE ON LEGGE

Additional Loan for Program of Stabilizing Grain Prices Viewed Skeptically

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

(Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance)

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The banking world is watching Alexander Legge and the Federal Farm Board, as they work through their Grain Stabilization Corporation. Now the Farm Board, with 110,000,000 bushels of wheat on hand, has asked Congress for an additional $150,000,000 of the $500,000,000 revolving fund, authorized last year by Congress for the board.

Chairman Legge is relying a lot these days upon wheat being fed increasingly to live stock. The Department of Agriculture estimate of 236,000,000 bushels as the amount which will be fed to live stock this year, he believes is an underestimate, if anything. He expects a wheat carry-over of about 175,000,000 bushels—around 100,000,000 bushels under the 1929 surplus—even if no more wheat is exported abroad.

Wall street is frankly skeptical of the whole business and pressure is being brought to bear on Congress to turn thumbs down upon this $150,000,000 appropriation to the board, upon the ground that it is a useless expenditure and only storing up trouble in the future.

But Congress is more than likely to work with Chairman Legge and the Farm Board, if upon no other theory than to give the latest farm legislation a fair trial.

Last year, the stock market was not disturbed nearly as much by sales for income tax purposes as this year. In 1929, most investors who had lost money in the market, sold stocks, establishing losses, only to buy immediately into other stocks. But not this year!

Sales for tax purposes are being made, but the money received from stocks sales is being put into the banks and left "until later." That "until later" business is what's causing plenty of anxiety and trouble today. The market has been dropping for some time and many stock market observers believe that it will continue in its present condition, until the tax liquidation has been disposed of.

That means until the 31st inst., when the records of this year are closed on the books of both individuals and the corporations, and all losses, from stock market operations, are charged against net income, computed for Federal income tax purposes.

Wall street was somewhat perplexed today by rumors regarding the proposed $1,000,000,000 bank merger which includes the Manufacturers' Trust Company, the Public National Bank and Trust Company, the Bank of the United States and the International Trust Company.

Early in the day there was a report that the project had been abandoned, but after the close of the market it was announced that negotiations had been resumed and that there were good prospects that the merger would go through.

The big obstacle in the way is said to be the problem of providing for membership in the New York Clearinghouse. It seems that the clearinghouse does not allow its members to pay more than 3½ per cent on savings accounts. As about 60 per cent of the deposits in these four banks are in savings accounts which receive from 4 to 4½ per cent interest, the merger was not viewed with favor by the clearinghouse. Those who are working for the merger, however, now believe this obstacle can be overcome.

Richfield Oil Omits Dividend

Directors of the Richfield Oil Company of California yesterday omitted the quarterly dividend of 43¾ cents on the $25 par value 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock due for payment February 1, next. This action was taken to conserve the cash resources of the company, the board stated.

The omission of the dividend affects 399,900 shares of preferred stock outstanding with a dividend requirement of $175,000 a quarter.

Index for Rail Group Off to May, 1926, Low

Fresh Drop in Silver Value Bearish Factor

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Share prices fluctuated uncertainly and ended the day about where they started today, while bar silver dropped to a new low.

Rails were under considerable pressure early and the general level was depressed to a new low since May, 1926, as measured by the average price of twenty issues. Several recovered late and the price average showed a net loss of only 1-5 of a point.

The price average of ninety issues, including fifty industrials and twenty utilities ended the day unchanged. Although the turnover was only 2,116,340 shares, it was the largest in about a fortnight.

Fresh heaviness in silver, which dropped 1 cent to 33 cents, which carried it below the bottom level of last June, was viewed in some quarters as a rather cheerless development, since some observers feel general commodity price stability requires a good tone in the market for this metal, which is important to the purchasing power of the Far East, where it is used as a monetary base. Other nonferrous metals were very dull.

Richfield Oil and Sloss Sheffield Steel omitted the preferred payments.

Call money remained plentiful at 2 per cent, and a little was offered at 1½, although about $20,000,000 in loans were called. The United States Treasury announced the amount of money in circulation increased about $168,000,000 during November, which was regarded as a seasonal gain reflecting holiday requirements. The weekly condition statement of reporting member banks showed a decline of about $115,000,000 in time deposits.

Current Earnings of Crown Zellerbach Corporation

In a period of depression, it is characteristic that unfavorable facts are overemphasized and exaggerated, while substantial favorable facts are minimized in importance.

During the past six months, the unfavorable developments in the paper industry (decreased demand for paper products, decline in newsprint prices, severe competition) have received prominent attention. These facts, interpreted in the light of existing adverse business conditions, have given rise to much pessimistic comment regarding the prospective earnings of Crown Zellerbach Corporation and subsidiaries.

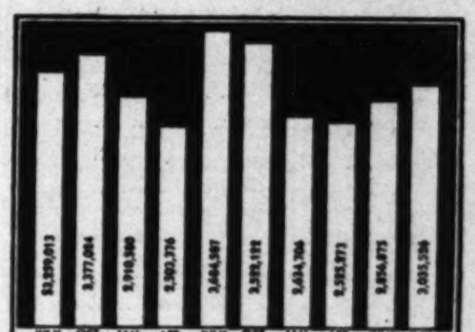
To such comment, official statements of earnings are the only adequate answer. The facts are:

1. Consolidated net earnings of Crown Zellerbach Corporation for the first six months of the current fiscal year, after all prior charges and after writing off $2,216,912 for depreciation and depletion and after providing for United States and Canadian income taxes, were $1,830,780 which is over 6 times gold debenture interest requirements.

2. After payment of such debenture interest, the balance of net earnings was $1,530,780 which is very close to two times the dividend requirement of its preference stock.

3. For the Crown Willamette Paper Company, net earnings, similarly stated, were equivalent to over 3 times bond interest requirements and the balance was equivalent to over 1.9 times first preferred dividend requirements.

The attached chart, based upon official statements, sets forth the net profits, before depreciation, depletion, interest and United States and Canadian income taxes, by quarters for the past two and one-half years.



Whether the "turn" has come in the affairs of Crown Zellerbach Corporation, in conditions in the paper industry and in the general business situation is necessarily a matter of individual opinion. The substantial facts should not be obscured, namely, (1) Crown Zellerbach Corporation is a well established enterprise, diversified as to activities, with assets of about $120,000,000; (2) the management has demonstrated its aggressiveness in meeting conditions as they exist instead of awaiting hoped-for conditions; (3) its physical plant is excellent, its financial position is sound and its organization is experienced and alert.

Crown Zellerbach Corporation 6% Gold Debentures are currently selling at 85 to yield about 8¼%.
Crown Zellerbach Corporation $6 Preference Stock is currently selling at 54 to yield about 11%.
Crown Willamette Paper Company 6% Bonds are currently selling at 99½ to yield about 6.05%.
Crown Willamette Paper Company $7 First Preferred Stock is currently selling at 73 to yield about 9½%.

We recommend the purchase of securities of Crown Zellerbach Corporation and Crown Willamette Paper Company.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Stocks Continue to Head Lower on Local Board as Selling Operations Increase

While selling activities gained momentum on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday and lifted the volume of transactions to the highest level for any session of the past two weeks, recessions with one or two exceptions were again held to narrow limits. This was especially evident in the case of some of the more active issues on the board. A slightly firmer tone was displayed generally at the close.

Richfield Oil held the center of the stage with the announcement early in the day that directors had voted to pass the preferred dividend. With 2000 shares traded the preferred stock broke 2 1-4 points to a new low at 8 3-4 and recovered to end at 9 3-8 for a net loss of 1 5-8. On Monday the stock yielded ½ point net. The common issue sold rapidly with a turnover of more than 7000 shares and reacted in sympathy with the preferred. The stock fell off 5-8 to 6 3-8 and finished at 6½.

Transamerica continued further into new low territory and led all other market operations with sales of 15,400 shares. After marking a new low figure at 14 the issue closed at 14 1-8 for a net loss of 3-8.

Union Oil and Union Associates were other leaders with an outstanding trading activity. Both issues again slipped back to record new minimum prices but recovered near the close to end unchanged for the day. Union Oil sold as low at 24 3-8 and finished at 24 5-8 and the Associates hit bottom at 23 1-4 and closed at 23½. Standard of California and Shell were unchanged while Pacific Western and Signal on light sales eased fractionally to the former low points at 9 and 17½ respectively.

Douglas Aircraft suddenly came into prominence with a turnover of 1200 shares. The stock fell off 1 1-4 points to 14. Pacific American Fire Insurance Company continued in a downward direction dipping ½ to hit another new bottom at 28. Security-First National Bank firmed up 1-4 to 91½. Edison slipped ½ to 45 3-4. There were no other changes of consequence.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Curb stocks resumed their decline in an active session today and petroleum shares and miscellaneous industrials dropped to new lows for the year, although there was some recovery toward the close.

Utilities were steadier and gave only a little ground early when the day's lows were reached and were the first to turn upward in the final hour, a few closing with substantial gains. Total turnover of 612,900 shares was the best in a fortnight.

Heaviness in the petroleum group was marked in Gulf, Humble, Standard Oil of Ohio, which registered new minimums for the year, and Standard of Kentucky. Standard of Ohio reacted 2¾ points, the largest loss. Cities Service sold off ⅛, but recovered to close steady.

Electric Bond and Share closed only a fraction off from the previous close.

American Gas and Electric rallied 2½. Driver Harris new reacted 2¼ and A. O. Smith was depressed 7⅛ to a new 1930 minimum. American Cyanamid B and Technicolor closed at the lowest level of the year. Newmont Mining rallied 2.

Goldman-Sachs dipped to a new low at 7⅛, off ⅛, but its net loss was only ⅛.

(If last price omitted, low and last are same. If low and last are omitted, high, low and last are same.)

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—A heavy tone was manifest in the bond market today. Liquidation covered a large list of domestic bonds and while the highest grade obligations gave ground slowly, second grade and speculative issues moved into new low ground for the year.

Sales exceeded $11,000,000 for the first time in about a month.

Stock privilege issues were generally at new 1930 minimums and in some instances losses ranged as high as several points. Allegheny Corporation 5s dipped 5 to a new year's low, Rock Island 4½s, 2½ and International Telephone 4½s reacted 4½. American Telephone 4½s gained 2¼.

The sharpest recessions among rails were in obligations of about a dozen railroads, notably Baltimore and Ohio, Chicago and Northwestern, Rock Island and Missouri Pacific.

International Telephone debenture 5s slipped off 3⅛ and debenture 4½s, 1½ and American Telephone debenture 5½s 1⅛. North American Edison issues sagged 1 to 2 points.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

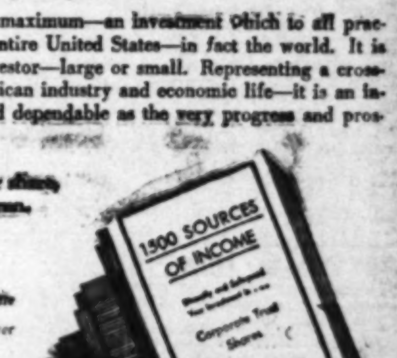
Moody's Composite Investment Rating A

WHEN an investor holds Corporate Trust Shares, he participates in the earnings and increases in value of the 28 great corporations listed at the left—the very backbone of the country's industry and wealth. Their names alone indicate an outstanding diversification. Combined assets exceed 23 billions and combined surpluses 6 billions.

But these 28 premier corporations are only the beginning. Back of them stands a group of 1532 progressive and well-managed, affiliated and subsidiary companies—in whose assets, earnings and increases in wealth, Corporate Trust shareholders participate.

This is diversification to the maximum—an investment which to all practical purposes includes the entire United States—in fact the world. It is within the reach of every investor—large or small. Representing a cross-section of the whole of American industry and economic life—it is an investment that is as stable and dependable as the very progress and prosperity of the nation itself.

Price Market, about $6¼ per share, to yield 7% minimum return.



We Have Prepared an Interesting Booklet giving the list of 1532 subsidiary companies back of Corporate Trust Shares. We will gladly mail it to you, together with further information about these shares, on request below.

Corn Futures Hold Interest on Grain Mart

CHICAGO, Dec. 9. (AP)—Brokers in wheat went on a virtual strike today. Many flocked over to the corn crowd, general trading interest in wheat having been reduced almost to zero, apparently because government-sponsored operations had permitted little or no freedom of movement. Active commission-house buying rallied corn briskly from price setbacks, associated with ideal weather over the corn belt.

Corn closed unsettled at yesterday's finish to ½ cent higher, wheat irregular, from 1-4 decline to ½-cent gain, with oats 1-4 off to 1-4-3-8 cents up, and provisions unchanged to 17 cents lower.

The new Australian wheat crop was estimated unofficially at 47,000,000 bushels under the latest official forecast. Oats were firmed by the rally in corn.

Provisions were governed by the fluctuations of hog values.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

The very moderate fresh receipts of cattle for Tuesday were augmented by about 811 head, largely stockers and feeders, bulk of which arrived late Monday. No hint of quality was offered early but a few cars of late arrivals included some good steers and she stock. Trade was moderately active and fully steady, the only offerings unsold after noon being a few loads of thin cattle.

A load of 834-pound California steers that arrived late brought 9.60, with a package of 918-pound Montanas at 8.50. Odd head of low grade steers ranged from 6.00@7.50, with a load of 720-pound Mexicans at 6.50. A load of 861-pound Montana feeders brought 7.50, with odd head at 7.25 down.

Odd head of in-between grade heifers brought 5.50@7.00, with top medium to good cows going at 5.85@6.25, dairy type animals selling up to the outside figure. Bulk of common to medium cows scored 4.50@5.75, with low cutters and cutters generally 2.50@4.25. A load of stock cows turned at 4.25. One outstanding bull brought 6.40 with bulk of medium to good kind at 4.50@6.00.

CALVES—Light fresh receipts and around 175 holdovers were fairly well cleaned up at fully steady rates. A package of strictly choice native vealers brought 14.00, with medium to good kind at 10.00@12.00. Some medium light southwestern calves brought 8.50, with heavier weights at 7.50@8.00, and common kind down to 6.00.

HOGS—A slow trade at 15@25c lower rates took practically all offerings. A load of 197-pound Nebraska butchers topped at 9.65, with four loads of 147 to 195-pound Utah and New Mexico hogs at 9.50@9.60. A load of 172-pound New Mexicos sold down to 9.25, this price also taking some local fed butchers. Several loads of weighty butchers sorted off loads bought, 8.50@9.00, with odd packing sows at 7.50@8.00. A few head of light feeder pigs brought 10.00.

SHEEP—About a deck of fairly good 84-pound trucked-in lambs sold fully steady at 7.25. Choice light lambs are quoted to 8.00, and medium to choice ewes are quoted at 3.00@4.00.

Egyptian Cotton Mart May Close

CAIRO (Egypt) Dec. 9. (AP)—The government is reported planning to close temporarily the cotton futures market, owing to continued sharp decline in prices, but this is regarded by Cairo cotton traders as ineffective so long as the Liverpool market remains open.

A leading authority tonight attributed the decline to the fixing of prices on cotton sold on call last September, combined with a demand only half normal for certain kinds of staple. Apparently the government views the situation seriously, having instructed the financial undersecretary to analyze conditions at Alexandria.

El Ministro Doak Presta Juramento

WASHINGTON, Diciembre 9.—Hoy apareció una nueva cara en la sesión del consejo de ministros del presidente Hoover.

William N. Doak, confirmado ayer ministro del Trabajo, prestó juramento y fue por primera vez a la Casa Blanca en calidad de miembro de la familia oficial del jefe del ejecutivo.

El juramento fue ceremonia sencillísima, que no presenciaron más que los funcionarios de los ministerios. Ya la semana pasada se había efectuado la formalidad que acompaña a la toma de posesión de un miembro del gabinete.

Cinco Consignados por el Asesinato de una Muchacha de Indiana

GARY (Indiana), Diciembre 9.—El grand jurado que conoció de la muerte de Arlene Draves, de 18 años, perpetrada el 30 de Noviembre último, ha consignado hoy a cinco muchachos por el delito de asesinato en primer grado.

Los inculpados son, Virgil Kirkland, de 20 años, que fue as preparatoriano de balompié; David Thompson, de 22 años, en cuya casa hubo una juerguecita con licor; Leon Stanford, de 21 años, ex-as preparatoriano de "basketball" y balompié; Henry Shirk, de 21 años, también atleta preparatoriano, y Paul Barton, de 21 años.

WASHINGTON, Diciembre 9.—Si la señora Hoover se pone a conducir su auto en Washington puede ser aprehendida, pues la licencia de que disfrutaba expiró en Octubre y no la ha refrendado.

Según explicaron en la Casa Blanca, la señora Hoover gusta de guiar su automóvil en verano; pero cuando el invierno reviste de hielo las calles de Washington, la cosa es diferente. De allí que no se haya preocupado por renovar su licencia para conducir automóviles, y que no piense hacerlo antes de la próxima primavera.

Automóvil que Lanzaba Curiosos Maullidos

SALT LAKE CITY, Diciembre 9. Un médico de Preston (Ohio), cuyo nombre no pudo averiguarse, entró hoy con su coche en un garaje de aquí y dijo al empleado Phil Lawrence: "A ver cómo le quita usted ese ruido al coche. Todo el día he estado oyendo una especie de maullido en el motor, y ya me cansa la cosa."

Lawrence levantó la cubierto del motor y el ruido salió de un bote: era un gatito negro que protestaba indignado porque el abanico del motor le había cortado un pedazo de cola. Se dio auxilio de urgencia al minino, en vez de atender al coche.

Ethel Barrymore Abrevia un Contrato en Broadway

NUEVA YORK, Diciembre 9.—El contrato de Ethel Barrymore con un teatro de Broadway para actuar en la pieza "Scarlet Sister Mary" vencerá la noche del próximo sábado, después de sólo tres semanas de representaciones.

"Mis amigos de Nueva York están resueltos a no venir a verme en papel de negra", dijo la señorita Barrymore. Ello explica la corta duración en el cartel de ese drama de negros, en el que lleva ella el papel principal, y ha hecho su presentación Ethel Barrymore Colt, hija de la gran actriz.

"Todo eso está muy bien", agregó; "pero yo creo en esta pieza, y voy a llevarla en jira por diversas ciudades, donde se han manifestado deseos de verme actuar en ella."

POLICE SIFT NOTE SENT TO ACTRESS

Letter Citing "Murder" in Home Thought Work of Deranged Mind

Believed to be the work of a deranged mind, a letter received by Dorothy Christie, screen actress, at her home, 509 Rockingham Road, Brentwood Heights, was being scanned yesterday by Capt. Curtis, Lieut. Anderson and other detectives of the West Los Angeles division, signed "I. M. Notacrank." The missive states: "Your house is haunted. December 6, 1926, a woman was murdered in the same room you are sleeping in. Note the blood spots near the front of your bed. Beware! Tomorrow is the 6th!"

The letter was mailed in Los Angeles on the 5th inst. and received the next day, investigating officers said. Yesterday an unidentified man called the house on the telephone and asked whether Miss Christie was in. A maid, answering, replied she was not. The man then said: "If she don't move me throw bomb." The voice, according to the maid, was that of an American.

An examination of records revealed no murder in the house at the date mentioned in the letter.

FRANCE HONORS VON KLEINSMID

Legion of Honor Insignia Given Educator

Work for International Amity Recognized

Award Made During Dinner at Mission Inn

BY CHESTER G. HANSON
"Times" Staff Representative

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 9.—The insignia of the Legion of Honor of France was awarded Dr. R. B. von KleinSmid here tonight for his contributions to the cause of friendly relations between France and the United States and for his work as chancellor of the Institute of International Relations, which is holding its seventh session here.

Award of the medal came as a surprise to all except a few officials, although Dr. von KleinSmid had been advised that the award was to be made some time in the near future. The dinner at Mission Inn, at which the Alliance Francaise groups of Los Angeles, Pasadena and Hollywood were hosts, was made the occasion of the presentation. M. Henri Didot, French Consul at Los Angeles, presented the medal.

KISSES EXCHANGED

The French government had directed him, he said, to present the medal in recognition of Dr. von KleinSmid's fine work in cementing the happy relations between the two governments, and for his efforts in behalf of world peace through the Institute of International Relations, which was organized under his leadership. He is the chancellor of the institute, as well as the president of the University of Southern California. Following the actual presentation, or as part of it, Lucien Brunswig, head of the Alliance Francaise of Los Angeles, made it official by kissing the doctor on both cheeks—and the doctor kissed him right back amid the happy applause of those in the dining-room. Dr. von KleinSmid responded with a few words expressing his appreciation and his humbleness at the great honor bestowed upon him. He renewed his pledge to continue the work he has undertaken in the field in which he has won this international recognition.

Dr. Raphael Herman of Beverly Hills, an ardent advocate of world peace and an active worker for that cause, felt moved to pay tribute to Dr. von KleinSmid and called upon the diners to join him in a toast to the chancellor.

UNITY OF POLICY

Following the dinner two lectures were given in the music room: one by Dr. Rene Belle, of the University of Southern California on the "French Foreign Policy," and the other by Prof. Paul Perigord, of the University of California at Los Angeles, on "Europe in 1930."

One of the most significant observations made by Dr. Belle was that the French foreign policy had presented continuous unity for the past ten years, despite the many changes in the French government.

"France," he said, "is most interested in the stability of things as they are, and being that the country is not overpopulated, mostly agricultural, and having no unemployment, is only anxious about the protection of her own territories and her national security."

Prof. Perigord presented a brief but enlightened picture of conditions and problems in Europe. He touched upon the new divisions of the European nations into democracies and dictatorships; the significance of the success of the Nationalistic party in Germany; the Franco-Italian problem; France's escape from the world-wide depression; Great Britain's economic problems of the dominions; the danger of demoralization of the world's markets by Russia, and the United States of Europe.

ORIENTAL PROBLEMS

Ultimate replacement of great foreign-owned plantations in the Far East by native owners and workers was predicted by Deon Carl L. Aisberg of Stanford University in an address before the afternoon session.

In his discussion of "Agriculture and Political Policies of the Far East," Dr. Alsberg pointed out that in the tropical Asiatic Far East two types of agriculture exist side by side. The one is the farming by the native of crops for home consumption alone, such as rice, maize and peas. The other is the farming on the plantation for export purposes only of such crops as coffee, tea and rubber. The foreigner owns and manages the big plantation. The native labors on it.

"The population of the Far East is growing rapidly," Dr. Alsberg said, "and the time is coming when

ROLPH GOES WEARILY HOME

Governor-elect Sees All Interviewers Except Hair Grower and Gathers Load of Appeals

Comforted by the thought that he had failed to see only one of the many persons having an appointment to see him here, Gov.-elect Rolph departed from Los Angeles has last night for San Francisco.

He carried with him several portfolios crammed to the burtsing point with the recommendations and personal appeals of a veritable horde of office-seekers and others desiring his consideration.

Demonstrating a remarkable patience under the stress of two days of uninterrupted conferences and interviews with those asking appointment to public office for themselves or for their friends, the Governor-elect greeted several hundred callers Monday and yesterday.

His last act before boarding the Southern Pacific Company's Lark for San Francisco was to permit a photographer to get a flashlight picture of California's next Governor purchasing an unemployment relief ticket from a Salvation Army worker.

Then, obviously fatigued and despite the protestations of his secretaries, Mr. Rolph indicated that he would devote a few minutes to an unidentified man who had called several times in an unsuccessful effort to lay a matter of considerable importance before him.

This caller, it was explained, had waited for many hours outside the hotel suite of the Governor-elect and had insisted upon an interview after midnight last night. However, upon the personal assurance of Mr. Rolph that he would be

CITY POWER BUREAU TO AID JOBLESS

Work for 400 Men Will Be Provided by $107,000 Maintenance Program

In a move to help relieve the unemployment situation, the Board of Water and Power Commissioners yesterday approved expenditure of $107,000 for work on various sections of the municipal power system. The work will provide jobs for 400 men three days a week for ten weeks, it was stated.

Items of construction and road work which have not heretofore been contemplated for the present but which may and can be done are listed in the program to help relief of unemployed, according to a letter presented to the board by E. F. Scattergood, chief engineer and general manager of the Bureau of Power and Light.

H. A. Van Norman, chief engineer and general manager of the Bureau of Water Works and Supply, told the board he is working out a similar plan. Funds for the emergency relief work will be provided from revenues of the department. Action of the board must have the approval of Mayor Porter.

The two general managers have been asked by the board to confer with the City Employees' Association relative to further plans for employment relief.

Included in yesterday's program are items for conduit connections, underground work in Hollywood, road work at Power Plant No. 2, and maintenance repairs along the right of way of the transmission line.

Police Board Would End Job

On recommendation of Mayor Porter the Police Commission yesterday passed a resolution asking the City Council to rescind its action of several months ago in creating an additional berth of deputy chief in the police department.

The position was created to provide a place for Chief of Police Steckel in case he did not obtain the permanent appointment to that office under civil service. Recently the Chief received the permanent appointment.

The Mayor explained to the commission that the position was created for a contingency which no longer exists, and that it should be abolished.

MISSOURIANS PLAN FETE

A Christmas entertainment will be presented next Tuesday in connection with the monthly reunion and dance of the Missouri Society at Moose Hall, 1024 South Grand avenue.

SWEPT off her feet, so to speak, Mrs. Myrtle M. Mims, nee Disney, was flown home yesterday a bride—flown home in the same airplane in which her transport pilot husband, Luke Wesley Mims, took her to Ventura last Friday, married her and took off on an aerial honeymoon.

And there is no back-seat driving in the Mims family, for the husband saw to it that there was only one set of controls in the Waco biplane which the couple used on their novel wedding trip.

"I can't fly yet anyway," the bride said, "but I am sold on the idea and I'm my husband's newest student."

Mims operates an aviation school at Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport and agreed that his bride will have to solo in a plane.

On the wedding hop to Ventura Miss Alice E. Lee went along in the front seat to act as bridesmaid at the wedding ceremony performed by Judge Chambers.

The newlyweds flew Miss Lee back to Metropolitan and made a swift tour of the State by air, dropping in at Palm Springs to spend most of their honeymoon. They will reside in Burbank.

NEW PLANES ASSIGNED TO GUARD UNIT

Five Up-to-Date Aircraft Expected in Few Days at Griffith Park Base

Five new service-type airplanes, to replace planes of an older type which are to be sent to other squadrons in the National Guard, will be delivered within the next few days to the National Guard Armory Air Corps in Griffith Park, the Fortieth Division aviation corps of the California National Guard, according to word received here by Maj. John N. Jeffers, commanding officer of the local base, from Adjt.-Gen. Mittelstaedt.

The ships, valued at approximately $20,000 apiece, are the Douglas O-38 type, equipped with 525-horsepower Hornet engines. They have a speed of 147 miles an hour, carry 146 gallons of gasoline and have a cruising radius of five hours without refueling.

In receipt of the planes the California National Guard air squadron will have ten new ships, five of the service type, one basic training ship and four primary training planes.

STECKEL TO GET SEDAN

Approval was given by the Police Commission yesterday to the request of Chief of Police Steckel for a new sedan to replace the one he now uses, which has gone 52,016 miles. The approval provides for setting aside from the police equipment fund $1510 for a new car, the used value of the present machine being estimated at $623.

NURSE LASHES DOCTOR'S HEAD WITH RIDING-CROP

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Dec. 9.—Bernard Nelson, elderly physician and surgeon, was beaten over the head with a riding-crop in the hands of Mrs. Ernest Donahoe of 1020 Orizaba avenue, at his office, 605 East Tenth street, this afternoon, police who investigated the disturbance, reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Donahoe, who were brought to police headquarters for questioning and released when the physician refused to sign a complaint, told police that they went to Dr. Nelson's office and Mrs. Donahoe, who for nine years was employed as a nurse by Dr. Nelson, demanded that the physician retract remarks which she asserted he made about her to her husband.

When the physician refused to retract, the Donahoes declared, Mrs. Donahoe struck Nelson over the head with a riding crop. The broken whip is held by police. Dr. Nelson started to take a revolver from the drawer of a desk and Donahoe took the firearm from him and turned it over to police.

A report of the incident was made by Detective Sergeant Lorge, who answered the call, and was filed in police records, but no arrests were made, police informing the parties that they could seek complaints from the City Prosecutor or the District Attorney.

GRAND JURY'S EVIDENCE OF VICE "PLOT" TOLD

Details in Central-Avenue Graft Scandal Indictments Link Politicians to Scheme

Disclosure of an asserted scheme to organize and control bootlegging and vice in the Central-avenue district came yesterday when the transcript of testimony given before the grand jury in the case of George Brown, Negro politician, and Bennie Kelso and Reuben Scott, colored officers, indicted recently as conspirators in a vice plot, was released. The indictments grew out of an investigation of municipal affairs

The transcript, which includes testimony by Mayor Porter, Chief of Police Steckel and others well known, also contains a copy of a purported conversation between Brown and Captain of Detectives Trainor, which took place at the Newton-street police substation November 17, last, a few weeks before the indictment was returned and during which Brown assertedly outlined a plan to organize vice in the Central-avenue district.

DICTOGRAPH USED

The conversation between Brown and Trainor, which Louise Moeller, court reporter, testified she took down with the aid of a dictograph and at the behest of Capt. Trainor and other officers, is the outstanding part of the transcript. In it appear the names of W. B. Mosher, confidential secretary to the Mayor; Hugh Macbeth, colored politician and at present Brown's attorney, and various other officers appear.

After the transcript was released, Macbeth made a statement to newspaper men in which he declared that wherever Brown used his name during the conversation he used it in an wholly false light and for the purpose he (Brown) was trying to accomplish.

Brown's testimony before the grand jury before the indictment also reveals that he asserted at that time that when he was talking to taken down by Miss Moeller, were summed up as follows:

Brown told Trainor that he intended to open ten disorderly houses and as many liquor establishments from which he expected to make $1000 a day.

Question (by Trainor:) "Suppose we take in $7000."

Answer: "Then you (Newton-street officers) get two-thirds of it. That would be something like $4500."

Q.: What would become of the $2500?

A.: I take it and square (here the dictograph became indistinct.)

This led to a discussion of the police officers whom Brown desired to be placed or kept on the Newton-street vice squad. He named Kelso and Scott.

The transcript continues verbatim:

Q. (by Trainor:) How are you going to get these fellows transferred down here?

A. (by Brown:) The Chief will see to the transfer.

Q.: Supposing he don't o.k. it?

A.: He will o.k. it through somebody else.

Q.: There must be somebody behind the Chief.

A.: Of course, Mosher is behind him.

Q.: Who connects with Mosher?

A.: The Mayor does. We don't have to say anything to the Mayor about it because we will have Macbeth go to Mosher. Macbeth is the biggest man in our race over here.

Q.: Who is Macbeth connected with?

A.: The whole outfit up at the City Hall. If they want a man they see Mosher and he goes to the Chief.

Brown in his testimony before the grand jury insisted that he knew the conversation was being overheard.

"Mr. Stewart," he said, "I was just kidding with Jack. I knew what was going on. I was wise to the game and I was, you know, just playing him."

When he was asked directly concerning the Macbeth-Mosher-Porter assertions which he made in the dictograph conversations, he gave an evasive answer.

RAMBLING DEFENSE

He recalled only a part of the assertions and said he made them in a different sort of a way. What way was not brought out clearly in the examination. Throughout 100 pages of transcript he gave a rambling narrative of being oppressed by enemies, some of whom were policemen . . . of attempting to break up a pay-off ring . . . of being enlisted by Macbeth to reform Central avenue.

This display of the academic am is short and stocky, repeatedly fou holes in the line and boredind

H. P. Smith, Negro police informer, however, told the jurors

CITY AQUEDUCT INQUIRY BEGUN

Grand Jury Looking Into Water Distribution

Quiz Centers on Irrigation of Valley Ranch

Power and Water Employees Not Yet Examined

The county grand jury yesterday included in its investigation of municipal affairs a survey of conditions along the Los Angeles aqueduct system.

Approximately a score of witnesses were called before the inquisitorial body and it was reported during the day that the jurors had adopted a resolution asking Judge Wood, in charge of the grand jury, and Presiding Judge Doran to extend their tenure of service sufficiently beyond the first of the year to allow them to complete the work in which they are now engaged. Judge Wood refused to affirm or deny the report, but it is known that he was called before the body during the afternoon for a conference.

All of the witnesses yesterday, it was asserted, were called to give testimony regarding the distribution of city water on a 4300-acre ranch in the San Fernando Valley, and the method of checking water taken from the aqueduct system.

Early in the morning H. A. Van Norman, chief engineer and general manager of the Bureau of Water Works and Supply, and George Reed, superintendent of city water service, appeared at the jury room, but were excused without being examined, it being stated that they might be called later.

Other witnesses included Frank Belcher, former investigator for Mayor Porter; J. L. Hixon, ranch superintendent; J. E. Christerson, water-meter reader; E. E. Still, architect; Sam Gonzales, ranch worker, and others. Many other witnesses who appeared at the jury room yesterday were not examined, but were told to return tomorrow morning, when the jury will hold its next session.

Board Today to Increase Study of Flood Curbs

Beginning today flood-control and water conservation problems will be discussed one morning a week by a special committee of the newly organized Board of Supervisors. The committee is composed of Supervisors Thatcher, Quinn and Wright. Each conference will be attended by Chief Engineer Eaton of the flood control district, and Flood Control Counsel Dowds.

One of the first matters will be the consideration of new plans for flood control in the San Gabriel Canyon to replace the high dam project.

Dead Policeman Has Huge Escort of Motorcycles

One hundred and fifty city and county motorcycle officers yesterday escorted the body of Motorcycle Officer S. E. German, 33 years of age, to its final resting place in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

German, on the police force seven years, died in Hollywood Hospital last Sunday of pneumonia. He leaves his widow.

The funeral services yesterday afternoon were in the Utter funeral chapel, Forty-second Place and Broadway.

FOX-PUBLIX DEAL PENDING

West Coast Theaters Negotiating for Lease on Six Paramount Theaters in Pacific States

A deal which will give the operation of six Pacific Coast picture houses, belonging to the Paramount-Public Corporation, to Fox West Coast Theaters is now being negotiated in New York and the papers are about ready for signatures of the executives of the two companies, according to authentic information obtained yesterday in Hollywood. Reports direct from New York were to the same effect.

Under the terms of the proposed deal, Fox West Coast Theaters will take leases on the Publix houses along the Coast with the exception of those in Los Angeles for a period of twenty years. The fact that Milton Feld, a high executive from the Publix home office in New York, arrived here yesterday lent considerable credence to the report of the deal. Feld was not reached for his statement, nor could a statement be obtained from local officials of the Fox chain, it being stated all information concerning the deal will be given out in New York.

If the deal goes through Fox will operate Paramount houses in San Francisco, Seattle and Portland. The deal is also said to involve a releasing arrangement for Paramount pictures in Fox West Coast houses.

Also of interest yesterday to motion-picture circles was Harold B. Franklin's statement that he has not concluded financial agreement for his future activities. Franklin, formerly president of Fox West Coast, is now said to be organizing an independent theater chain on the Coast, the report being he is to get financial backing from Howard

by Harry Carr

I HAVE been driving down the Gold Coast . . . the big chain of tourist hotels that runs down the length of California.

The tourists have begun to come in for the winter. In a general way they represent the solid and substantial men and women of America.

They do much to restore one's faith and hope.

THE TEST

I have learned from experience that the acid test of a man is the way he treats his servants. Or—to say it more accurately—the way he is treated by the servants.

You can put this down as a fact: That in the hotels where the hired help fawn on the guests, bend double and say, "Yes, sir; thank you, sir; if you please, sir," the cash customers are miserable scrubs who distrust themselves.

A CALIFORNIA HOTEL

For a night or two I stopped at a big hotel in Riverside which has probably housed more men of power, wealth, influence and fame than any other hotel in America.

All the traditions of the house are built upon the needs and demands of that type of people. You can—from it—assess the character of the successful American who goes there. This is what happened to me.

THE FRIENDLY TOUCH

The head bell man came up like an old friend and asked me reproachfully if I was mad at them—not to come oftener.

The bell man who took my baggage to the room fixed everything up and said I looked tired; and he thought I had better sleep late the next morning.

I slept so late that the dining-room was empty. I asked anxiously if I was too late to get anything to eat. The head waitress laughed and said: "Whenever you want to eat, that is breakfast time—if I have to go into the kitchen and cook it myself."

ON THE WAY

The elevator man told me I must be sure to drive over to the Desert Play at Palm Springs. Starting, I forgot the cigarettes and the bell boy galloped back for them. When I fished out the usual tip he looked embarrassed and said: "Why, thank you, but I assure you that this is not necessary."

When I left—in a flivver—they all asked me not to wait so long again. And you can imagine how much I really meant in their lives.

A GRACEFUL GESTURE

At another hotel the girl who leads the Mexican orchestra sent word in a quaint little note that they had found out what my favorite song was and that the Mexican musicians wanted me to know that they were going to play it "just for you"—"Todos para Usted."

IT'S THE BUNK

The point I am sure is plain. These people who are coming out here to spend the winters with us have found out that the kind of service you buy is like the kind of love you buy; it's the bunk.

Our hotels have surrounded them with friends who honestly try to make them happy—because most of them are great old guys.

They don't have to bribe servants to say, "If you please, sir"—and pocket the tip with a snicker.

HAND BANDAGE CONCEALS GUN

Bank of America Branch in Walnut Park Involved

Cheap Crystal Offered for Loan of $1500

Teller Forced to Turn Over Bills Totaling $325

A lone unmasked bandit with a revolver trussed in a bandaged hand robbed the Walnut Park branch of the Bank of America near closing time yesterday, kidnaped the bank manager, bound nim with wire and cord in a near-by apartment, and escaped with $325.

Edward Schultz, the branch manager, was approached at the close of the day's business by a youthful-appearing person, who appeared to have a bandaged hand hanging limply in a sling about his shoulder.

LOOKS INTO GUN

"What'll you give me as a loan on this?" he inquired. "I want $1500."

Schultz gazed with amusement on the contents of the box—only a cheap crystal bead the size of a marble. He smiled, looked up toward the "customer," and found himself gazing into the barrel of a .32-caliber revolver protruding from the bandages around the right hand.

Schultz told the gunman he did not have $1500 on hand at that moment.

"All right, tell 'em to bring you all the money you have," the bandit said, indicating Tellers Harry Youngclaus and T. A. Wilson, the only others in the bank.

GETS $325 IN BILLS

Schultz ordered them to bring the money, and Youngclaus brought two handfuls of bills—$325 in $1 notes. As the bandit stuffed the money into his coat pocket, he ordered the trio to accompany him outside.

On the sidewalk he changed his mind, and ordered the tellers back into the bank with the threat that if they told of the robbery he would murder Schultz. Meanwhile the traffic—pedestrian and motor—was flowing heavily past the busy corner.

BANKER TRUSSED UP

With his bandaged gun-hand jostling Schultz in the ribs, the bandit escorted the banker two blocks down the street through the traffic to 7865½ Seville street, where his apartment-lair was located.

Inside the apartment the robber bound Schultz tightly with cord and electric-lamp wire—tying his hands behind him, and trussing his knees. He changed clothes, all the while threatening Schultz with death if he made an outcry, and slipped out of the apartment, closing the door.

Back at the bank, the employees notified Schultz's family that he had been kidnaped, and a member of the family telephoned the Sheriff's office. During that time Schultz was struggling at his bonds, and succeeded in freeing himself approximately twenty or twenty-five minutes after he was first approached in the bank. About that time the officers had been notified, but the bandit had escaped.

W. O. Wigginton and Harry West, deputies from the Sheriff's office, arrived and took charge of the case. In the apartment they found all the paraphernalia used in the robbery, the gun and the clothes the robber discarded as well as the tangled bonds that had held Schultz.

According to Wigginton and West a good description of the bandit has been obtained from Schultz, the apartment-house manager and others who saw him.

What the Bank Manager Faced

McPherson Girl Soon to Return From Ireland

Roberta Semple, daughter of Aimee Semple McPherson, pastor of Angelus Temple, who has been visiting with her paternal grandfather in Ireland since May, will arrive in Los Angeles in time for a Christmas reunion with her mother, it was announced at the temple yesterday by F. C. Winters, business manager.

When Mrs. McPherson made her trip to the Holy Land last spring her daughter accompanied her. Since that time she has been visiting in Ireland, England and France.

Mrs. McPherson, who is recovering from a nervous breakdown suffered last August, has again gone to the beach with her secretary, May Waldron, denying all callers. She is recovering nicely, according to temple officials, although the date of her active return to work has not been announced.

CO-ED BEAUTY KILLS HERSELF

Death Shot Fired as Time for Gay Outing Nears

Daughter of Wealthy Texan Brilliant in Studies

ALTADENA, Dec. 9. (Exclusive) Five minutes before she had planned to mount a horse for a gay gallop with friends through the foothills, the body of Elizabeth Arthur, beautiful 23-year-old Columbia University student, was discovered at 10:30 a.m. today lying fully clothed between twin beds in the guest room at the home of her sister, Mrs. Earl Buchanan, 2796 Boulder Road.

Miss Arthur, according to deputy sheriffs, shot herself through the head early today in a fit of despondency induced by her failure through intensive study of philosophy to discover any meaning in life.

HINTED AT SUICIDE

While motoring across the Colorado-street bridge, Pasadena, yesterday, Miss Arthur, who was the daughter of W. A. Arthur of Texarkana, Tex., wealthy cotton planter, remarked, "More than thirty people have ended their troubles here, but I know a better way to do it."

She came here two months ago to visit her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan, and was occupying the residence while the Buchanans were spending the holiday season at her parents' home in Texas.

After attending the Notre Dame-U.S.C. game Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gibbons of 1750 East Third street, Long Beach, Miss Arthur became very dispirited, so much so that Gibbons, her cousin, decided that he and his wife would stay with her so that she would not be left alone in the palatial home.

DISCOVERY OF BODY

"After sitting around talking until midnight last night," Gibbons declared, "my wife and I retired to our upstairs bedroom, and we were under the impression that Elizabeth had retired to her room on the first floor.

"About 10:30 a.m. one of a group which was to go riding telephoned and I knocked at Miss Arthur's door. When she did not answer my wife and I became alarmed and when we opened the door discovered the room vacant and the bed made. We searched the house and I found the body between the beds in the guest room, which adjoins the room occupied by myself and my wife.

"We heard no shots or unusual sounds and our pet dog, which was in the room with us, did not bark."

PISTOL FOUND

Deputy Sheriffs E. W. Graeb and S. W. Robinson of the local Sheriff's office reported after investigating the tragedy that a single shot had ranged upward through the victim's left temple and punctured the ceiling. A .32-caliber automatic pistol was found beneath the body and there was no evidence of a struggle.

Mrs. E. G. Gibbons of Long Beach, Miss Arthur's aunt, hurried to the scene when notified by her son, Jack Gibbons. She revealed that Miss Arthur recently completed a four-year course in journalism at Columbia University, where she made a brilliant record as a student.

"My niece," Mrs. Gibbons asserted, "was a victim of too much study and thought regarding to meaning of life." Other relatives revealed that she recently completed a study of the relation of mind and matter which left her in a melancholy mood. Those interrogated are unanimous in declaring that Miss Arthur never had a serious love affair.

The aunt, Mrs. Gibbons, will accompany the body to Texarkana, where funeral services will be held. Reynolds & Eberle Company is in charge of arrangements.

admitted today, he reluctantly departed.

His mission, according to the information he supplied in his first brief conversation, was largely patriotic, as, he said, he possessed an infallible preparation for growing hair. And this preparation, he assured his astonished listeners, would guarantee a luxuriant and impressive hirsute growth upon the head of the State's incoming Governor.

Whether from a desire to learn more of the pretentious remedy, or merely because of a kindly impulse to keep a casual promise, Mr. Rolph was unsuccessful in his search for the hopeful visitor.

With him when he left last night were Mrs. Rolph and their son, James Rolph III.

The Governor-elect plans to return to Los Angeles for further conferences prior to his inauguration in Sacramento next month.

Plans for the inauguration ceremony contemplate a great celebration in which residents from all sections of California will participate.

POLICEMEN GOING BACK ONTO BEATS

Fifty-three Doing Office Work Will Be Replaced by Civilians Under New Plan

Steps to relieve police officers from nonenforcement duties, replacing them with civilians, were taken by City Council yesterday in the form of a committee report and a resolution submitted by Council President Sanborn.

The Police and Fire Committee reported its approval of a recommendation of the Police Commission that civilians be employed to supplant fifty-three policemen in office work, these officers to be shifted to beats. The matter was referred to the Efficiency and Personnel Committee to work out details.

According to the report of Police Chief Steckel, policemen who can be supplanted by civilians are seventeen in the property division, eighteen in the record division, one in the detective division, two in the valley division, four in the jail division, ten in communications and one in the San Pedro division.

Sanborn's resolution proposes that means be evolved whereby war veterans can be employed to guard school crossings, thus releasing 160 policemen from this work. The veterans also can protect children both at school and at playgrounds from annoyers. He suggests that these positions be exempt from civil service.

His resolution was referred to the City Attorney and to the Finance Committee.

SUM ASKED FOR CARS TO COLLECT FEES

An appropriation from the City Council of $3000 for the operation of eight automobiles in the police license division to collect delinquent business license fees in co-operation with the City Clerk's department was requested by the Police Commission in a unanimous resolution yesterday.

The plan was suggested by Chief Investigator Carter and approved by City Clerk Dominguez and Chief of Police Steckel on the ground that the expense would provide for an efficient collection system which would bring in a large volume of delinquent fees.

the native will demand the land now farmed by the foreign planter because the native will starve without it. If the land still belongs to the state the native can become an independent land-owning farmer. The political land policy of countries controlling tropical possessions is, therefore, of the greatest importance to the future of the native population.

"This question touches the United States in the Philippines, where the Legislature, in guarding the future of the islands, has wisely prevented the acquisition of great tracts of the public domain by foreign capital."

NATIVE PRODUCTION

The time is coming, Dean Alsberg believes, when the natives also will be growing crops now grown only on the great plantations. Already, he said, the natives are producing a great amount of rubber, 35 per cent of that produced in The Netherlands' East Indies, for instance. The natives do everything wrong from a scientific point of view, of course, but they produce a lot of rubber which is marketable. And California, one of the greatest consumers of rubber, is vitally interested in the trend.

Miss Amy Heminway Jones, division assistant for the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, told of some of the work being done in the higher schools through what are known as international relation clubs. The endowment can only send books and a lecturer or so, but it is vitally interested in the formation of such clubs. Considerable work is also being done by the endowment through the placing of proper books in the libraries of the country, particularly in the smaller communities. Steps are to be taken to organize such clubs in Southern California.

MISSIONARY INFLUENCE

The effects of the Christian missionary movement in China, both favorable and unfavorable to international relations, were discussed by Prof. Willard D. Lyon of California College in China. He reviewed some of the treaty relations with China as affecting missionary work and showed some of the unfavorable results. There was the Chinese criticism that upon occasion, such as once with Germany and once with France, the killing of missionaries was made the pretext for territorial aggrandizement for the offended nations. On the other hand, he felt sure, the missionary is, on the whole, a great factor in developing friendly relations between China and other countries.

At the noon luncheon Alan Blaisdell, president of International House at the University of California, told of the work being done through that agency to develop the best in the foreign students at the university.

INQUIRY SOUGHT OVER SHOW RAID

Action Against Promoters Asked of Fitts

Fraternities Defend Boys Taken by Police

Youths Said to Have Been Enticed to Exhibition

Charges that hundreds of young Los Angeles boys were enticed by unscrupulous promoters to a questionable show in a large Hollywood storage building that resulted in their arrest on vagrancy charges Friday night were lodged with the District Attorney's office yesterday by a group of fraternity leaders.

These charges, handed directly to Dist.-Atty. Fitts, will be referred to Miss Florence Woodhead, chief of the juvenile department, today for further investigation to determine whether or not the promoters shall be charged with contributing to the delinquency of the youthful guests present.

When a complete inquiry has been made and all available information has been obtained a decision will be made concerning its disposition, Dist.-Atty. Fitts said.

At the same time it was disclosed that the District Attorney also was asked to investigate charges of many of the youthful victims that while in custody they were victimized by bail bondsmen or forced to submit to the indignity of fingerprinting.

The complaint made to the District Attorney was in written form. It is backed by more than sixteen leaders of Los Angeles fraternal organizations devoted to the welfare of young boys. They ask that the promoters of the entertainment, which is asserted to have been questionable, be prosecuted for contributing to the delinquency of the youthful guests who purchased tickets at $1 each, understanding that it was an ordinary fraternity benefit performance.

Two Warehouse Structures Will Be Put Up Soon

Preliminary plans are being prepared by Architect Rudolph Falkenrath for two Class A reinforced concrete warehouse buildings to be erected at Pico Boulevard and Highland avenue for L. D. Machado, owner, and to be occupied by the Hancock Park Warehouse Corporation. Total cost of construction is estimated at $600,000.

The buildings will be in modern design, with concrete slab floors and roof, two stories in height, and each to cover an area 60 by 300 feet. Freight elevators and a fire sprinkler system are included in the plans. Double spur tracks will be provided.

Engineer Will Talk Aqueduct

In an address to be given today noon before the University Club Thaddeus Merriman, chief engineer of the New York City water system and builder of the famous Catskill Aqueduct, is scheduled to outline engineering problems relating to the aqueduct to be built from the Colorado River by the Metropolitan Water District.

As chairman of the board of review retained by the Metropolitan Water Board to recommend the best and most economical route for the Colorado River Aqueduct, Merriman has been in Southern California for two weeks with the other two members on the board making a first-hand study of the problem. The other members of the board serving with Merriman are A. J. Wiley of Boise, Idaho, and Richard R. Lyman of Salta Lake City.

Today's Bible Text

And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.—Rev. vii:13, 14.

HENS

California boasts of a chicken ranch with 500,000 hens, which, "if they stood in a straight line a foot apart, would reach ninety miles" to Christmas.

A NAME

A San Diego woman advertises to give your babies names while you wait and alter unsuitable cognomens already acquired. She has developed a science of numbers, the vibrations of which unconsciously affect thought. Thus day by day are we gradually coming to explain Russia.

HOPEFUL

With big business, clubs, corporations, social leaders and idealists all getting behind the "Golden Rule" movement it would seem that there is a great fund of altruism, optimism and genuine, practical Christianity still left in the world. To practice the precepts of that rule is to join the cause.

BRAIN STICKLERS

Quartz window in cylinder head enables scientists to determine the cause of engine trouble by the making of pictures. Now if the eminent surgeons can do the same with the human head perhaps we may discover why a man will store up his coin when the buying is right and spend it lavishly when prices are at the peak.

LIFE FORCE

The eminent scientists who have reduced animal tissue to mineral salts and then re-established protoplastic phenomena by electric currents believe that they have re-created life. Might not this experiment prove, equally well, that there is a life force which neither man, nor mechanism, nor heat, nor pressure nor any material device can destroy?

NOT SUCH A BAD RACE

Just when we begin to worry over the writings and preachings of eminent men and women who deplore "the decadence of American society" and warn us about the fate of Rome and Greece along come the Rockne Ramblers and the Helen Madisons and Helen Willses and the Bobby Joneses to make us realize what a lot of piffle it all is.

COUNTY EXTRAORDINARY

Los Angeles county has a larger population than that of any one of twenty-five individual States of the Union. How many of our residents realize this astonishing fact? Yet the last census figures are indisputable. Moreover, it nearly equals the total population of the progressive State of Iowa.

By the last census Los Angeles county accommodates 2,199,657 within its borders. Louisiana's total population is 2,101,593. Los Angeles county also exceeds in numbers these other States: Mississippi, 2,009,821; Arkansas, 1,854,482; Kansas, 1,880,999; South Carolina, 1,738,765; West Virginia, 1,729,205; Maryland, 1,631,526; Connecticut, 1,606,903; Washington, 1,563,396; Florida, 1,468,211; Nebraska, 1,377,963; Colorado, 1,035,791; Oregon, 953,786; Maine, 797,422; South Dakota, 692,849; Rhode Island, 897,427; North Dakota, 680,845; Utah, 507,847; New Hampshire, 465,293; Idaho, 445,032; New Mexico, 423,317; Vermont, 359,611; Wyoming, 225,565; Arizona, 435,572; Montana, 537,606, and, of course, Nevada, the tail-ender.

If this one county could have representation at Washington in proportion to its population—which is obviously impossible—it could outvote any one of these sovereign States. Even as it is, with our power and prestige we can exert an influence in national affairs greater than that of many whole States.

Taxes raised in Los Angeles county, agricultural and industrial values, volume of bank clearings, amount of business transacted and money spent on public improvements, all tell the same story. And the carrying on of the administration of this county extraordinary is handled by five Supervisors on the modest salary of $5000 a year. And perhaps that is the most extraordinary count in the whole score.

FARM BOARD REPORTS

A period of falling wheat prices expected to last until 1937, from the effects of which only drastic reduction of acreage can save the farmers of the United States, and a similar overproduction of short-staple cotton, held also to require drastic reduction of acreage, are seen as the principal obstacles to profitable agriculture in the report of the Federal Farm Board. Having set forth the conditions, the board succinctly summarizes its views as to the remedy in these words:

"The board could see no hope for arresting such a movement, or preventing its serious consequences to American wheat farmers, by co-operative marketing as such, by stabilization measures of the type already employed, or through adopting any of the proposed measures designed to dispose of the surplus abroad at prices below domestic levels. The obvious and economic remedy for the overproduction of wheat, to which our own wheat growers are contributing, is curtailment of production with a view to reducing and if possible eventually eliminating our export surplus so that the tariff might become effective on American prices."

But the result of the curtailment campaign has been disappointing, the board also reports, the reduction of spring wheat area being only about 4 per cent last year, though 10 per cent was asked for. A larger curtailment of winter than of spring wheat is considered necessary.

While the board does not say so in so many words, it is plainly its opinion that the day of the United States as a great wheat-exporting nation is over and that its position as a cotton exporter is being seriously impaired. If this is the case, it seems certain that either a new crop must be developed to occupy a considerable amount of present American farm acreage, manufacturing will have to absorb many present farm workers or the economic level of American agriculture will be forced much lower than at present.

The latter alternative is not pleasant to contemplate, the second difficult to bring about. What the new crop might be is difficult even to speculate upon, but the possibility of raising something that can be turned into paper, considering the rapid depletion of the pulp stocks of the world, seems to deserve serious attention.

It is not alone wheat and cotton in which the future outlook is unfavorable, the board reports. The dairy industries, milk, butter and cheese, are affected to a lesser extent; live-stock production has not been particularly profitable, and many fruit growers, especially growers of grapes, have suffered depression.

Since the board's activities have had to do only with crops in need of practical assistance, it is perhaps natural that no mention is made in the report of the one white spot of all American agriculture—the great co-operative crops of Southern California.

The board has had nothing to do with these, no government aid for them being necessary, and consequently has no official concern with them, notwithstanding that one of its members, C. C. Teague, is president of the two great Southern California co-operatives dealing in citrus fruits and walnuts.

Admitting that many of the factors which have made successful grower-co-operation possible in this area are lacking in the grain and cotton sections of the country, the local showing has been so extraordinary, in a generally lean agricultural year, as to suggest the possibility of some, at least, of the lessons of co-operation being applied elsewhere.

While the return to the grower of most other staple crops was below cost of production, Southern California's citrus fruits, walnuts, beans, etc., brought aggregate cash to the five counties immediately surrounding Los Angeles to a total $5,000,000 larger than the previous banner crop year of 1927. Not because the crops were large, but because scientific marketing, by-product development and sales and skillful advertising, all co-operative methods, have, for these crops, laid the old specter of "overproduction" and have eliminated waste and market gluts. Recognition of this remarkable achievement is indirectly given by the Farm Board's report of assistance given the citrus growers of Florida and the Rio Grande Valley of Texas in forming co-operatives.

It is plain from the report that the Farm Board has spent few idle moments, since, in addition to its major work in wheat and cotton and the aid extended to grapes and raisins, it has been busy with problems of vegetable growers, of tobacco growers, in fact, of growers of all sorts of agricultural products from one end of the country to the other. In many of these diverse problems it has made only a bare start, in a few it has accomplished good results.

But if it has done nothing but discover the worthlessness of the nostrums offered by some of the radicals, it has justified its existence. Its flat declarations against export debentures and the equalization fee are not the least important part of the report, though neither scheme is mentioned by name.

THE PADRE OF THE RAINS

In a December night falling quietly over peaceful Santa Clara Valley, surrounded by love and secure in the arms of the Master he had so long and so faithfully served, Father Jerome Sixtus Ricard, teacher, priest, scientist, astronomer and lover of his fellow-men, has said his last good-bys to the mysteries of this earth life and has entered the mysteries of the greater life beyond.

He, who for half a century had added to the fame of the Santa Clara University and for thirty years had devoted himself to studying the relations between the spots on the sun and weather conditions on the planet we inhabit, has gone, leaving the results of his labors for others to carry on—bequeathing them a record for honest and unremitting perseverance in the service of science no less than in the service of religion.

California's well-loved "Padre of the Rains" endeared himself to all who followed him in his long vigils at the telescope in the Santa Clara observatory, whether they were erudite scientists who questioned the accuracy of his theory or everyday citizens who enjoyed reading his monthly forecasts of Pacific Coast weather conditions. His gentle but firm insistence on the faith he held in his astronomical experiments was a natural counterpart of the faith he felt for the church of his fathers and his belief in the divinity of his Creator. His indubitable sincerity disarmed criticism.

With the passing of the Padre another historic character has been removed from the glamourful history of California, another bright star has set beyond the vast horizon of the peaceful sunset sea. Thousands will miss the quaintly told prophecies of the month's coming weather which for so long appeared regularly in the morning newspapers of California. Father Ricard approached the unraveling of the religious and scientific questions which were his life's labor of love, not with any assumed infallibility, but in the spirit of that other great churchman, Cardinal Newman, expressed in the words of his beautiful hymn:

"Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see

THE MANNING-LINDSEY ROW

Judge Ben B. Lindsey has probably not advanced himself in popular estimation by his tactics in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York, where Rt. Rev. William T. Manning of the Episcopal diocese of that city commented unfavorably upon his companionate-marriage idea and referred to his disbarment. Whatever element of unfairness to Lindsey there may have been in what the bishop said was more than overbalanced by Lindsey's discourtesy in interrupting a church service, and Lindsey was put definitely in the wrong when he failed to observe the rules of decorum.

The trouble with Lindsey seems to be that he feels his success with the Juvenile Court in Denver entitles him to set up as a universal authority whose word is law on any subject on which he may choose to speak, and that he makes the customary assumption of a fanatic that anyone whose opinion differs from his is vicious and corrupt. Such an attitude is easier to understand than to defend. If Lindsey's undue cranial expansion could be reduced he would be a more useful citizen.

It is probably true that Bishop Manning is not invariably the most tactful person in the world, but if a bishop cannot speak his mind from his own pulpit, where can he speak it? A church service in a cathedral is not an open forum, however, and Lindsey's efforts to try to make it one deserved rebuke. He was entitled to make a reply, but to do it he should have hired a hall.

VERIFICATION

The old dime-novel expression, "She stabbed him with a frozen glance," doesn't seem so ridiculous when we read that light rays have been frozen by science.

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

WE USED to know him when he didn't have much money, but he always dressed and spent as if he had it. Then luck came along and he got into the really wealthy class, so that even when the stock market nicked him for some hundreds of thousands of dollars he could shrug his shoulders and say that so long as his other investments held up he wouldn't have to worry much. But he's still very lovably simple in some ways and has gone to a great deal of trouble these last few years to gladden the heart of his aging mother. Though business affairs often have been pressing, he has come out from the East to visit her twice a year. And while here he even goes to church with her, which is something of a novelty for him.

The other day he arrived to pay her his Christmas visit and took her to church, as usual. Just in front of them sat four little girls, and when it was time for the plate to be passed the eldest of the children looked about in agitation, appearing to analyze and assay the men in the congregation. Finally her eye fastened on the stranger and brightened. He seemed to fairly exude prosperity. So she stepped nearer to him, leaned over the pew and whispered:

"Mister, have you got change for a nickel?"

Many Keen Readers

We were by no means the only reader who noticed that typographical error which threw an advertisement of John's Pipe Shop under the heading, "For Little Folks." But of all who sent the clipping to us William B. McCullough suggested the best headline—"Flaming Youth."

Incidentally, what a wonderful advertisement that must have been for the pipe shop, since everyone who saw it read it aloud and spoke of it to everyone else. It ought to have to pay treble.

To find out if you are read, make a blunder.

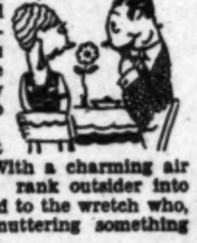
Acres of Poinsettias

Now is the time to drive out Beverly Boulevard in the daytime and see the acres of blooming poinsettias. It will prove what Keats said about a thing of beauty being a joy forever and what Wordsworth said about the golden daffodils he saw beside the lake, beneath the trees. For that drive will put a glow in your memory which shall not fade. The flash of sunshine on those acres of rich red makes them flame like a smokeless prairie fire.

Many Hungry Women

It happened at one of our quite important women's clubs. The wretch happened to be there because his wife insisted that he needed a little real culture and ought to hear the imported novelist who was the luncheon speaker. He was the only man there, besides the speaker, and felt pretty hopelessly overwhelmed. He ate the food samples placed before him in submissive silence and listened intently to all that was said, hoping he could absorb enough culture in one sitting to make it unnecessary for him to come again for quite a while.

Before the speaker was given the floor, however, certain club matters had to be disposed of, including the selling of tickets for the big Christmas party. "Remember," said Madame President, "that the profits of this party will be used to buy Christmas baskets for hungry women. If any of you know of any hungry women we will be glad if you will let us know. Perhaps some of you can report the names of a few hungry women to us right now."



EAT THAT AND LIKE IT!
UMMMA!

She waited, but no one spoke. With a charming air of bringing the rank outsider into things, she turned to the wretch who, she noted, was muttering something under his breath.

"This invitation includes our guests, Mr. Blankly," she assured him. "Maybe you know of some hungry women."

"I'll say I do," he responded. "Why not bring your baskets right here? I'll bet half the women who just finished this lunch are hungry."

Cobbler Philosophy

While getting our shoes half-soled, we learned of an anomalous situation. It was one of those accommodating shops in which we who have only one pair of shoes may wait while the job is done, and the genial cobbler was not above chatting with us on terms of equality.

"Supply and demand are supposed to regulate prices," he said, "but there's more demand for shoe repairs now than in quite a few years, and yet prices have gone down sharply. This job would have cost you $1.75 a year ago, now it costs you only $1.15. The reason is that the prices have dropped so that if we still charged $1.75 a lot of folks would buy new shoes instead of having old ones repaired, and it's the same in a lot of other lines. Business is better than many people think it is because now you can get more than your money's worth in many cases and the really smart people are buying. But the briskness of demand fails to raise prices because there still is oversupply."

PLACING THE BLAME

Mr. Hoover says the crime problem belongs to every citizen. And their chief responsibility rests in the electing of tried and honest men to hold public office. No crime organization can exist long without official connivance.

LET 'EM FIGHT!

The unemployed of California and other States have no objection to the battle between the United Artists and Fox forces. The building of twenty-five new theaters in this State will make things hum in many lines of business.

ME, TOO, JOE

By James J. Montague

"Most of what I learned at school is now found to be inaccurate or wholly false."—Joseph Hergesheimer.

I have toiled over reading and spelling,
I have waded through many a tome
That told of the rise—and the later demise—
Of cities like Athens and Rome.
I have spent weary hours in learning
The names of world heroes by rote,
Not to mention the words of historical birds
Which my teachers delighted to quote.

I have worked out quadratic equations,
Extracted no end of cube roots,
And studied the habits of weasels and rabbits,
And wombats and zebras and newts.
I have waded through Caesar and Vergil,
Learned the German phrase, "Kellner, zwei glass!"
And hunted for flowers through long weary hours
With a wandering botany class.

I supposed, while employed on these labors—
Which involved a severe mental strain—
I was stowing exact, incontestable fact
In the innermost depths of my brain.
I thought, if I figured and studied,
Doing home work far into the night,
That the world some fine day would admiringly say:
"That man is exceedingly bright."

But now that my toil is completed
An author of note comes along
And declares that the lore that I gathered of yore
Is probably most of it wrong.
And oh! how I wish I had loitered
By the side of some leaf-shaded pool
And loafed in content through the days that I spent
In a dreary and profitless school.

Income Sufficient

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] A correspondent in Sunday's Times says it is impossible for two people to live on $140 per month under present standards.

Now let us see if this is really the case. Let us make up a budget for a month's requirements:

Rent of furnished bungalow	$40.00
Grocery bill for fairly good living	30.00
Gas for cooking and such heating as this climate requires	5.00
Electric light	2.00
Milk	4.50
Phone	3.00
Church envelopes	2.00
Shows	2.00
Car fare and small incidentals	10.00
Clothing, $150 per year or per month	12.50
Leaving to deposit on savings account	29.00
Total	$140.00

The trouble is too many spend haphazard. They make no budget for their guide and have no idea as to how they will come out at the end of the month. The housewives squander hard-earned money at beauty parlors, teas, bridge parties, women's clubs, etc., gad about and leave the home to take care of itself.

Policy Fraught With Danger

MONTEBELLO, Nov. 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] There are many suggestions for remedying the employment situation, one of which is to dismiss married women from positions of gainful employment outside the home. Everyone knows to belittle marriage and home life is disastrous to society. Why must the most unselfish, industrious and ambitious women of the United States pay a penalty for becoming a wife and a mother? Our schools prepare women for industry as well as men. The woman who places her time and capital in such education has just as much right to enter industry and claim its rewards as a man.

Certain labor organizations who advocate keeping married women from industry seem to forget that they are tearing down the institution of the home by encouraging the satisfying of natural laws through falsifications and secret marriages. America should be very cautious about adopting a policy of selfishness on one hand and ignorance on the other for the panacea of hard times during a period of plenty.

MR. AND MRS. RAY REESE.

Bandits and Burglars First

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In your always interesting paper there appears this morning an account of the suppression of a questionable entertainment. Officers to the number of 150, including fourteen in evening dress or tux, directed by three lieutenants, performed the duty. In another column appears the daily chronicle of violent crime, including kidnaping, assaults and hold-ups of women and of men, burglary, etc., with a record total of forty-four robberies for the first five days of December. One wonders if the 150 who so sternly suppressed the vulgar show might not have been more usefully employed had the high police command directed their efforts toward the prevention of violent crimes or the apprehension of the perpetrators thereof.

All of us may avoid evil effects of nasty shows by the simple expedient of remaining away from them, but there does not appear to be any convenient method of avoiding the risk of becoming the victim of the thug, the kidnaper, the purse snatcher or the burglar.

A VISITOR.

Another Complaint

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Permit me to unite with the Rev. Dr. Mills and many of the long-suffering public in protest as to the wretched service rendered by the Los Angeles Street Railway of late. Recently I waited at the corner of Vermont and Jefferson, in the early evening till about 250 autos passed. The company added 25 per cent to the cost of a ride and seem to have taken off a like amount of cars.

Doubtless a half million persons thank you for your labors in their interests.

SAFETY IN DEEP SEA

All the members of the crews of the English submarines are to be provided with a safety dress which has been successfully tested at depths of 130 feet. The dress contains a breathing bag which is supplied by a small cylinder of oxygen fixed below it. Poisonous carbonic acid gas of the exhaled breath is absorbed by a cartridge of soda lime.

Should a submarine sink, every man aboard will don his escape dress, which will keep him safe in spite of the poisonous gases given off when salt water comes into contact with the storage batteries. The hull of the submarine will then be flooded in order to equalize the water pressure within and without. If this were not done the hatch of the conning tower could not be opened owing to the terrific weight of water above it. Once the hull has been flooded the hatch is easily opened and the crew can pass through it.

Only a cheerful idiot would buy for himself handkerchiefs, hosiery or ties in the days immediately preceding Christmas.

INDIVIDUAL EDUCATION

BY HAL FORREST

The plan of the University of Chicago to free students of superior minds from the chains of mass education is the first major effort toward revolutionizing modern teaching methods and will be watched with keen interest at Southern California seats of learning where experimentation has progressed satisfactorily for a number of years. Psychiatrists have, for many years, advocated the acceleration of superior-minded children, through the public schools, as a means of keeping them preoccupied and to prevent a dulling of moral fiber in the individual. Many of the problem children in our schools possess exceptional mental equipment. But because their grade advancement has been retarded by mass education, because the school work they find so simple no longer interests them, because there is not enough in the schoolroom to keep their minds occupied and because they become disgusted with what, to them, is the slow progress of the other pupils, there is a tendency on the part of many of these children to become individualistic, to feel themselves above the mass, to ignore rules and regulations, and often, as the psychiatrists point out, to develop criminal tendencies.

Up to the present time, the chief obstacle to the adoption of an educational plan like that to be tried at Chicago University aside from the cost has been the social angle. A child of 10 may have the mental equipment to enter high school, but the age of the average high school freshman is 14 and at that time of life there is a vast difference in the average size and social aspirations of the student. Again the average age for college entrance is 18 years and the girl or boy of 14, mentally equipped for the university courses, is the social butt of the older students.

Many years of research have proved that the individual is born with a certain degree of intelligence that maintains itself throughout a normal life. Standard tests, such as the Stanford revision of the Binet scale, and the Army Alpha, agree almost exactly in determining the mental age of the individual as against his chronological age. The degree of intelligence of an individual is designated as his "intelligence quotient." The average is 100. One who can test 140 or over is termed a genius. The moron average is about 50 and the imbecile rates about 30. Those who can test 125 or more are credited with superior minds. Those who rate 80 or under are the mental laggards.

Because of the expense involved for teaching staffs, it has been found impractical to group children in the public schools according to their mental ages, rather than their chronological ages, yet that is the ideal of the modern educator, and is the foundation of plans like that to be tried at Chicago University. The average age for the pupil in the first grade of the California schools is six years, according to law. If the children could be grouped according to mental age, those of superior minds could accomplish the eight grades of the grammar school in from four to six years. Their work would not be retarded by the duller minds and the work of the teachers would not only be more interesting, but less trying and this would redound to the advantage of the pupil. The children of average mentality would progress through the eight grades at a normal rate and special courses would permit the dullards to progress satisfactorily without hampering the advance of other pupils. The groups would be smaller and more individual attention could be paid by the teacher. It is pointed out by psychiatrists that under the present system both the dullard and child of superior mind suffer through the system that aims to teach only the average mind.

The problem goes much deeper than the university stage of individual education. Psychiatrists declare that the grading of the child according to its mental, and in spite of its chronological age, should begin before it is 10 years of age. A child of 10 having an intelligence quotient of 140 has a mental age of 14 years. Under the present system he would be doing fourth-grade work in school and is capable of eighth-grade work. But, in addition to the mental test, the child also must be given an achievement test. If he has been doing fourth-grade work it is not probable that he would rate 100 in achievement. Psychiatrists advocate acceleration classes or individual instruction, in these cases, to enable the pupil to make up the deficiency. In such instruction, only the essentials necessary to pass tests are required. But the mental experts point out that the first four years of the child's education were wasted and that if he had been permitted the advantage of a specially devised course at the age of 6, when he entered school, he would have rated 100 in achievement at the age of 10.

Dr. Terman of Stanford University tested the child of a friend when she was at a tender age and found that she had a very advanced mental age. Given permission to direct her education, he kept her out of school until she was past 10 years of age, but assigned her certain books to read. Her first actual school work was done in high school, where she finished in three years and then was admitted to Stanford, where she accomplished the four-year course in three years and was graduated with high honors.

Individual education is costly, but Chicago University is a wealthy institution. However, it usually is the case that where an experiment proves successful the means are found to put the system into general use.

LONG BURGLARY ORGY CUT SHORT

Much-Sought Pair Captured and Plunder Found

Police Make Most Important Coup of Years

Expensive Articles Stolen in Wealthy Homes

Carelessness in leaving his fingerprints in several of the scores of homes which he is said by police to have plundered of more than $250,000 worth of jewelry, rugs and other expensive furnishings in the last two years resulted in the arrest of Hazell M. Sanders, alias Al White, 30 years of age, and the subsequent recovery of nearly half the plunder, Captain of Detectives Lynn declared late yesterday.

Fingerprints were identified by Fingerprint Expert Barlow as Sanders's after comparison with prints taken from the suspect when arrested in San Francisco three years ago, Lynn said.

Apprehension of Sanders and his asserted partner, Peter Ryan, alias Paul Hackley, 38, and recovery of nearly $100,000 worth of oriental rugs, radios, diamonds and other miscellaneous articles of unusual value, cached in apartments and a garage rented by the pair, were announced yesterday by Lynn and Capt. McCaleb of the burglary and robbery squads at Central Police Station. The suspects were taken into custody several days ago and the investigation kept secret until it was made certain they had no confederates.

LONG HUNT ENDED

The arrest of Sanders and Ryan, culminating a search of six months, and the recovery of the property, are considered by Chief of Detectives Taylor as one of the most important captures here in years. The investigation was made by Detective Lieutenants Malina, Woolman and Burris of the robbery squad and Vannice and Lennen of the burglary squad.

Most of the plunder recovered has already been identified as having been taken from numerous large homes in Beverly Hills and the Hollywood and Wilshire districts, according to the detectives. In addition, oriental rugs worth many thousands of dollars have been traced to the homes of numerous wealthy motion-picture stars and other residents of Hollywood to whom Sanders sold them in the role of a wholesale rug importer, the detectives report.

Sanders's asserted method of operation in plundering the dwellings was unique and daring, the detectives say. The majority of the burglaries were perpetrated in daylight. Sanders and Ryan, dressed in immaculate white linen suits, enacted the roles of electric refrigerator service men and, in some cases, as milk truck drivers, according to the detectives. They used two automobiles, one a truck for hauling away the plunder and the other a sedan in which they made their business calls.

FIRST "SIZE UP" PLACE

The pair would call at a dwelling and obtain entrance to repair or "look over" a refrigerator or to deliver milk. Then they would "size up" the place for later operations. In some cases where conditions were propitious the pair would, without further preparation, drive their truck into the grounds, load it and drive it away in broad daylight, the detectives declared.

Sanders fell into the hands of the police first. Following identification of the fingerprints by Barlow, Detective Lieutenants Malina and Woolman received information that a man answering Sanders's description was using a truck bearing incorrect license plates in the neighborhood of Olympic Boulevard and Meadowbrook avenue.

Malina and Woolman, after many days of waiting, caught Sanders as he drove up in the truck in front of 5320 Olympic Boulevard. Placing him under arrest they went into his apartment at this address and made the first discovery of the asserted plunder caches.

FORBES'S SUITS FOUND

Property recovered here included half a dozen suits of clothes bearing the name of Ralph Forbes, motion-picture actor, twenty suit cases, containing various other articles of wearing apparel, and $5000 worth of jewelry and five pistols, according to the detectives.

Search of his person revealed a chamois bag containing $20,000 worth of diamond jewelry attached to his left leg by a garter, the police said.

Two sets of keys were found in Sanders's pockets and one was found to fit the lock of a garage under surveillance near Ninth street and Sycamore avenue. Here the detectives said they found the second cache of plunder, consisting of more than $30,000 worth of rugs, tapestries, shawls and boxes of silverware.

With information uncovered by Sanders's arrest Ryan was traced to an apartment near Ninth and Oxford streets. Here the detectives declared they found more suits of clothing, articles of jewelry and a $600 radio which was later identified as having been taken from the home of E. K. Nelson at 13695 Beverly Boulevard in a burglary last October.

Part of the plunder found in the garage was identified as having been taken in the $3000 burglary of the home of Roy T. Minor, aviator, at 3937 Sunswept Drive, October 3, last, and from the homes of Don C. Preston at 13946 Beverly Boulevard; F. L. Shaffer at 133 Swall Drive, Beverly Hills, and E. C. Yourell at 1500 North Laurel avenue. The latter burglary occurred November 20, last.

The suspects are being held in the City Jail on a charge of burglary. Both deny the accusations against them. Sanders asserts he was formerly an officer in the Army Aviation Corps, and has recently been employed at the motion-picture studios as an actor under the name of Al White.

CASHILL HELD FOR TRIAL

Thomas F. Cashill, Jr., was held for Superior Court trial on statutory charges by Municipal Judge Frederickson yesterday. His bail was set at $500. The asserted offense was committed against a 17-year-old girl last June, according to testimony introduced by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Sullivan.

BAN ASKED ON PATENT PAVING BIDS

Cost Declared Excessive Due to Royalties in Plea to County Supervisors

A petition asking that Los Angeles county invalidate all license agreements on patent paving was presented to the Board of Supervisors yesterday by the engineering firm of Barnett & Steele and on motion of Supervisor Quinn was referred to the County Road Commission with a request to make a report relative to this class of street work.

According to those who are opposing the use of patent paving in the construction of highways, costs are increased because of royalties involved in the patents. It is estimated that the cost of patent paving to the taxpayers is approximately 28 cents a square foot, as against 18 to 21 cents for the kind of paving that does not involve royalties on the patent methods of laying it.

The letter sent to the Supervisors by Barnett & Steele is in part as follows:

"We have been recently retained by petitioners on one county improvement to investigate certain costs of such improvements and to render an opinion on the advisability of the construction. As this improvement involves patent paving for which the petitioners will be assessed in excess of a legitimate cost of an economic paving, we have advised against it. On a number of such other improvements we have been consulted and in each instance have given similar advice where patent paving has been at issue. We wish to ask your honorable body at this time that all license agreements on patent paving materials be invalidated by the county of Los Angeles."

PILGRIMAGE PLAY RITES SET SUNDAY

Breaking of Ground Will Culminate Long Effort to Provide Outdoor Theater

Plans for a public ground-breaking ceremony for the new $200,000 home of the Pilgrimage Play were completed yesterday afternoon by a committee headed by George L. Eastman, president of the play association. The ceremony will take place at 3 p.m. Sunday at the site of the new theater, Cahuenga and Highland avenues, Hollywood.

Breaking of ground for the new structure culminates two years of effort on the part of a group of citizens to give Los Angeles an outdoor theater worthy of the presentation of the Pilgrimage Play which, in its ten years of operation, has become internationally famous.

When the play opens next July it will mark the eleventh season of the production, which has been witnessed by more than 500,000 persons. The season last summer was interrupted by a fire that in sweeping Hollywood hills razed the Pilgrimage Play wooden structure.

The new theater is to be entirely of concrete with a seating capacity of 1471, or nearly 300 more than the old structure. Each seat will be individual and upholstered with soft cushions. Together with the land the enterprise will represent a total investment of $350,000.

Young Mother Fights to Keep Custody of Son

MRS. EVELYN C. GALLAGHER

Mrs. Evelyn C. Gallagher, only 19 years of age, with a 3-year-old son, went into Superior Judge Valentine's court yesterday to defend her custody of her child, sought by her husband, who asserts he is better fitted to care for the child.

Mrs. Gallagher who admits she proposed marriage to Bernard Francis Gallagher when she was only 15, now declares he had another wife living when the ceremony was performed.

The court referred the eligibility of the parties as custodians of the child to a referee.

McCabe Begins Battle Against Death Sentence

Wilbur McCabe, convicted in Superior Court of the murder of Henry P. Miller, night clerk at the University Club, and of attempted robbery, yesterday filed the opening brief in his appeal to the Supreme Court from the death penalty and a sentence to a term in the penitentiary.

McCabe's counsel asserts in the brief that the question before the court is not whether or not McCabe is guilty or not guilty of the crimes of which he was convicted, but of whether or not he was given a fair trial. It is contended that the trial judge's instructions to the jury deprived the defendant of a fair trial.

Jascha Heifetz Sued for $5500

Jascha Heifetz, violinist, yesterday was made defendant in a suit on file in Superior Court in which B. A. Byrne, acting as assignee for L. A. Lambert, asks $5500 for what he asserts is a breach of contract. Heifetz, through his manager, George Engle, it was charged, contracted with Lambert for seven concerts in Cnaada in 1927, and Heifetz it is asserted, did not carry out his part of the deal.

Of Interest to Women

Society

by JUANA NEAL LEVY

One of the attractive affairs of the week was the luncheon with which Mrs. Harvey S. Mudd entertained yesterday afternoon at her home, 1500 Benedict Drive, the guests including members of the Beverly Hills women's committee of the Philharmonic Orchestra. Among the guests were Mrs. Roy Pinkham, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Eugene Consigny, Mrs. Paul English, Mrs. Shiemerdine Perkins, Mrs. Marion Terry, Mrs. Otto Wartenweiler, Miss Mary Woodchase, Mrs. Robert Linton, Mrs. Robert Pollack, Mrs. Charles Craig, Mrs. Albert Millinkoff and Mrs. Oscar Lawler.

The house was lovely in its decorations of fall shaded chrysanthemums, while the luncheon table was centered with yellow roses and ferns. Mrs. Mudd is chairman of this particular group.

Tea-Reception

Mrs. Clarence A. English and Mrs. Albert Laurence Bagnall will give a tea at the home of the latter, Ninth street and Western avenue, Tuesday afternoon the 15th inst., complimenting Mrs. Patrick Campbell.

Mrs. Bagnall has just returned from a month's visit in New York, where she was joined over Thanksgiving holidays by her son who is a student at Yale.

Sorority Dance

Phi Sigma, Zeta Chapter at the University of California at Los Angeles, has chosen the Beverly Hills Hotel as the scene of its annual charity ball Saturday evening. Five hundred couples are expected to be present at the event, which is considered to be one of the outstanding formals of the university social season.

Miss Genie Kahn of South Hobart Boulevard has been named as chairman. Working with her during the past weeks have been Miss Miriam Olden, ticket chairman; Miss Ruth Ziegler, program; Miss Trixie Silver, refreshments; Miss Ruth Kleinman, publicity. Every member, alumna and pledge of the sorority has taken an active part in planning the ball.

Last year's philanthropic dance, also held at the Beverly Hills Hotel, enabled the sorority to support its various charitable enterprises, including a substantial contribution to Rainbow Camp, Phi Sigma's national project, and several local causes.

Bridge Tea

Entertaining members of the day nursery auxiliary of the assistance League and their friends, Mrs. George M. Wallace will give a bridge and tea this afternoon at her home in Oxford avenue, fifty guests being bidden.

The Yuletide motif will be carried out in decorations. Mrs. Hancock Banning and Mrs. Joseph Francis Sartori will preside at the tea urns. Mrs. Harcourt Hervey is chairman of the auxiliary.

Informal Tea

Especially honoring a group of officers from the battle fleet and their wives, Mrs. Thomas Lee Woolwine and her sister, Miss Mary Foy, entertained with an informal tea at the home of the former in South Lorraine Boulevard. Among those calling during the tea hours were Admiral and Mrs. Frank H. Schofield, Rear-Admiral and Mrs. W. D. MacDougall, Rear-Admiral R. H. Jackson and his niece, Miss Jackson, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. W. P. Upshur, Capt. Harry E. Lickey, Capt. R. H. Ghormley, Capt. J. J. Brady, Capt. McNamee, Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. W. J. Ruble and Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. R. E. Kerr.

Decorations carried out a yellow and green color scheme with golden glow chrysanthemums throughout the house and spring shades of roses on the tea table where Mrs. Constance Deighton-Simpson, Mrs. Remington Olmsted and Miss Laura Griver Smith presided.

Among the out of town guests were Lady Henry Sharpe of London, and her daughter, Mrs. Eno Hamm Palmer of Vancouver, B. C., Capt. and Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. John M. Foy of Berkeley.

Golden Wedding

Celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis were at home to their many friends Sunday afternoon November 30, at their home 5137 Eagle Rock Boulevard, sixty guests calling to wish them many happy returns of the day.

The house was lovely in its decorations of golden chrysanthemums and royal poinsettias, the table appointments carrying out the golden motif. Two huge wedding cakes centered the board, reminiscent of the cakes at their wedding in New York half a century ago. As part of the afternoon's entertainment Judge H. Z. Austin of Fresno, brother of Mrs. Lewis, read an original poem.

Guests included friends from Glendale and Pasadena as well as Judge and Mrs. Austin and their daughter, Miss Katherine Austin, from Fresno, and Willard Lewis of Rochester, Minn.

Assisting Mrs. Lewis in serving were Mmes. W. D. Austin, E. C. Austin, L. Smith and Miss Marian Le Cour.

Notre Dame Party

One of the loveliest post-football courtesies extended Notre Dame athletes was that given Saturday evening at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, with Knute Rockne and his staff, more than 400 members of the Alumni Association and a great throng of Los Angeles Athletic Club members and their friends participating.

The huge lounge and card room as well as the dining-room, were filled with tables all beautifully decorated and appointed, Notre Dame colors predominating in the downstairs decorative scheme, while the huge gymnasium, where dancing followed the dinner, carried out the football effect. The dance floor was arranged to represent a football field, with goal posts adorning the ends and spectators crowding the side lines. A reception was given by the alumni for the football team in the ladies' annex between 7:30 and 8:30.

Smart Affair

One of the attractive affairs of recent date was the dinner party with which Mrs. Caroline Galbraith and Mrs. Olive Phillip entertained at the Arcady in Wilshire Boulevard, honoring Miss Lucy Vandemark, who recently came to Los Angeles to make her home after four years teaching voice, concerting and studying in European musical circles. The affairs took place in the Pompeiian Room, the table being centered with vari-colored chrysanthemums and yellow roses. Those included were Mr. and Mrs. William E. Brown, who also make their home at the Arcady, Mrs. Nora L. Puterbaugh, Col. and Mrs. Rutherfurd S. Hartz, Miss Leileith Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Puterbaugh, Miss Grace Munger, Hale Brown, John Vale, the honor guest and hostesses.

After dinner Miss Vandermark, Mrs. Hartz and Mr. Vale gave a delightful program of songs accompanied at the piano by Miss Grace Munger. Mr. Vale, an Englishman by birth who possesses a rich tenor voice, sang some of his own compositions. He came here recently to join his mother, now a resident of the Southland, after studying and filling concert engagements abroad.

Reception Musicale

Much interest is being evidenced in the reception and musicale which the Cadman Creative Club is giving Friday at the home of Baroness Ryiner-Morrill in Portland street, honoring Mme. Caro Roma, composer, who now is making her home in Hollywood, having come from the East recently.

Hostesses assisting Baroness Morrill will be Mmes. Myra Kane Grant, Mabel Dyer, Marshall Stookey Anderson and others while Flora Myers Engel is to sing a group of songs written by Mme. Roma. Laurel Nemeth Saunders also will present Mme. Roma's compositions. Dr. Franz Darvas will play several ensemble piano numbers with Baroness Morrill and Mrs. George Mitchell will give several French dialect numbers.

Health Better Than Riches

"Before I was married, my mother and sister and I did all the farming work on a 64-acre farm for eleven years. I married a farmer and now in addition to my housework and the care of my children I help him with the outside work on our farm. After my last child was born, I began to suffer as many women do. Our family doctor gave me medicine but no results. One day he told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did and now I am a new woman and I know that good health is better than riches."—Mrs. Clyde I. Sherman, R. #1, Lickdale, Pennsylvania.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

TREATING INFLUENZA

If an influenza epidemic is in your neighborhood, you should avoid crowded meetings and stuffy rooms. You should also be careful not to tire yourself out by worry or overwork. Go out in the open for an hour every day. Begin to develop strength and soundness by exercising and taking long walks. If you will follow this advice and the cleansing regime in yesterday's article, you will be better able to avoid an attack of influenza, but if you disregard such advice until you feel the first symptoms coming on, you should not delay in going home and going to bed. If you are working, do not try to keep on and finish your day's work, because most of the deaths from influenza are due to neglect in the beginning.

The first thing to do is to use an enema of two quarts of warm water and thoroughly cleanse the bowels. Next, take a hot tub bath, lying in water as hot as can be borne, for about twenty minutes. The temperature should be about from 104 deg. to 106 deg. F. After the bath, dry quickly and wrap yourself in some heavy woolen blankets, then lie down in bed and have somebody else place plenty of covers on top and a hot water bottle at your feet. You will need some assistance because you must not uncover yourself once you begin to sweat. The bedclothes should be well tucked around you so that no air will be drawn under the covers if you move about. Drink a glass of hot water every thirty minutes as long as you are awake. You will soon begin to sweat and will continue to do so until your fever has disappeared. If the head becomes congested apply a cold compress to the forehead.

This sweating treatment should be continued for several hours, then the patient should take a tepid bath and return to bed between clean bed clothing. If the fever continues, an occasional short cool shower may be used, followed by a brisk rubdown.

Repeat this sweating treatment every day for the first two or three days. One enema should be used morning and evening, using a bed pan if necessary, as the patient should not be exposed too long to the cold air. The patient should not be given food of any kind except water which may be flavored with lemon or orange juice.

The patient should not under any circumstances attempt to go out, or return to work, until he has entirely recovered. Once your temperature has become normal and your appetite has returned you may start eating any kind of food in proper combinations. However, you very likely will not feel hungry for several days, and it is advisable to only use plenty of water and acid fruit juices during this period.

The theory that the body requires nourishing food during an acute attack of influenza is very wrong and has probably resulted in many deaths which could have been prevented by the methods I have just outlined.

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

USE OF MILK BOTTLE AS A PACIFIER IS BAD HABIT

How very easy it is to lead baby into the habit of using his bottle of milk as a pacifier! This habit gets a start when the mother tucks the baby into bed with a bottle of milk and allows him to hang onto it, whether empty or not, until he has fallen asleep. This is really just as bad a habit, and just as difficult to cure, as if baby had the habit of going to sleep with a blanket or a thumb or a rubber pacifier in his mouth. Some mothers have been known to use water in bottles in this fashion, ending up each meal with a bottle of water with which the child was allowed to go to sleep.

Bottle feeding has a technique which would do away with this habit. Hold the small baby while feeding him. Hold him in a comfortable position, and tip the bottle so that the nipple is always full of milk. Stop frequently and let baby rest. If the nipple collapses, lift it a moment and let the air fill it again. This prevents baby from sucking on a nipple that is only partly filled with milk and the rest with air, thus causing him to swallow air.

WON'T SLEEP WITHOUT BOTTLE

Mrs. L. R. S., is now overwhelmed by the inability to get her baby of 14 months of age, to sleep without the bottle. Her letter follows: "My baby weighs twenty-four pounds, has twelve teeth, has been walking since she was 10 1-2 months of age, and has sixteen ounces of milk daily by cup. She east cereals, vegetables, toast, eggs, cottage cheese and stewed fruit. She also takes ten drops of viosterol.

"But my trouble is that she won't go to sleep at night without her bottle, regardless of whether it is empty or not. I have let her cry but she wakes in an hour again and cries more. She wakes at least seven or eight times at night. This is very trying on us. She started this about three months ago."

SOMETHING ELSE WRONG

Undoubtedly the bottle is used as a pacifier, but this would hardly account for her waking seven or eight times at night, after she had once gone to sleep. There must be other factors at fault.

She really should have four cups of milk daily, no bottles, with her meals. Her night meal may be unsatisfactory so that hunger or discomfort from overfeeding are making her restless.

First of all have a thorough physical examination to rule out all physical handicaps to good sleeping. Send me a self-addressed and stamped envelope with your requests for the leaflets on "Week's Menu for the Child from 12 to 18 Months" and "Reasons for Wakefulness."

Insufficient fresh air, too heavy and too constricting covers, sleeping with parents, use of too small a bed, too much or too little food, and adenoidal growths are all causes for sleeplessness. End the bottle habit immediately; you do not help her by continuing it. Be certain her night meal is just right and then stop the bottles abruptly.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

LOBSTER AND GREEN PEAS NEWBURG

Two tablespoonfuls of butter, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of flour, one cupful of thin cream, salt and paprika, one two-pound lobster, one cupful of peas, the yolks of two eggs, one tablespoonful of lemon juice and two tablespoonfuls of salt cooking sherry. Make a white sauce of the butter, flour, cream and seasoning, then add the lobster, which has been cut in large dice, beat the egg yolks, add a little of the hot mixture to them, then slowly pour in. Do not allow to boil, add the lemon and sherry. Make croustades of bread or in other words, small bread boxes. Butter them inside and toast them in the oven, pour the mixture in, garnish with parsley and strips of pimentos.

PRUNE CUSTARD

One and one-half cupfuls of stoned, cooked prunes, three eggs, two cupfuls of milk, six tablespoonfuls of sugar, one-half a teaspoonful of vanilla extract, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, three slices of buttered bread. Beat the eggs, add to them the sugar, salt, vanilla and the milk. Place the prunes in the bottom of a baking dish, pour in the milk mixture, place the bread on top with the butter side up, place in a moderate oven and bake until the mixture is firm and the bread brown and crusty. Serve warm.

CHEESE CROQUETTES

Place in a saucepan three tablespoonfuls of butter, and allow to melt, sift one-third of a cupful of sifted flour with one-half teaspoonful of salt and a seasoning of paprika. Stir this into the melted butter and when smooth, stir in slowly one cupful of milk, and bring the mixture to a boil. Beat the yolks of two eggs with two tablespoonfuls of cream, and add them slowly to the cooked mixture, then add two cupfuls of mild American cheese that has been grated. Stir until the cheese has dissolved, then spread on a cold plate. When the mixture is firm, form it into croquettes, roll in sifted bread crumbs, dip in beaten egg, roll again in crumbs and fry until brown in deep hot shortening.

ORANGE AND GRAPEFRUIT CUP

This should be prepared at least six hours before serving, for each portion peel half of a grapefruit and carefully remove the white membrane; do the same with half of a navel orange, arrange the sections in a stemmed glass, sprinkle each layer with powdered sugar, do not fill the glass too full as a delicious syrup will form above the fruit, when placed in the ice box to chill and ripen. Just before serving add a teaspoonful of maraschino cherry syrup, garnish with the cherries and sprigs of mint.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORNTON W. BURGESS

JERRY MUSKRAT HEARS THE NEWS

Sift well the news and it is clear
How little quite worth while we hear.
—Jerry Muskrat.

Stumpy, the three-legged young Muskrat, had bumped his nose. He had bumped it hard against something hard and it had startled him so that he had very nearly let go all the air he was holding in his lungs while he swam under water. In vain he tried to put his nose out for fresh air. The Smiling Pool had a top, a hard top or roof, or else he was having a bad dream. He turned back to the bottom, swam down to the underwater entrance to the underwater hall that led up to the comfortable room above water in Jerry Muskrat's house, and there drew a long breath of fresh air. How good it was. My, my, what a relief it was not to have to hold his breath any longer.

His father, Jerry Muskrat, was asleep. So was his mother. His sister was awake and to her Stumpy excitedly told of his queer experience. "So the Smiling Pool has got a top, a hard top on it," he concluded.

His sister yawned. "Go to sleep," said she. "You've been dreaming. Go to sleep and when you awake again you'll find the Smiling Pool is just as it always has been." She yawned twice and then calmly went to sleep.

Stumpy couldn't. No, sir, he couldn't go to sleep. He wanted to. He tried to. It was of no use. He was too excited to go to sleep. He kept thinking about that hard top on the Smiling Pool and wondering where it had come from and who had put it there and what it was for. He did wish his father would awaken. Two or three times he started to go back out into the Smiling Pool, but each time his courage failed. There was something queer about the Smiling Pool. He had had hard work to get back before losing his breath that other time and he really didn't dare try it again. No, sir, Stumpy really didn't dare go out in the Smiling Pool again. He had a feeling that he might not get back.

At last Jerry Muskrat yawned and stretched. "I've great news," whispered the young Muskrat excitedly. "I've been outside and what do you thing has happened?

"What?" asked Jerry, beginning to be interested.

"The Smiling Pool has a top, a hard top," cried the excited Stumpy.

Jerry stopped yawning and looked at his crippled son with a queer expression. "What was that you said?" he asked.

"I said that the Smiling Pool has a top, a hard top, a sort of roof," replied Stumpy.

"Have you been dreaming?" asked Jerry, and added: "You must have been. The idea of the Smiling Pool having a hard roof or any kind of a roof for that matter! You've been eating too many carrots."

"I haven't been dreaming and I haven't eaten too many carrots," retorted Stumpy indignantly. "The Smiling Pool has a high roof even if you don't believe it. I bumped my nose against it, so I ought to know."

Jerry grinned. "If that is the case you really ought to know"

Jerry grinned. "If that is the case you really ought to know. When did all this happen?" said he.

"Just a little while ago," replied Stumpy. "I started out for an early swim and a bit of breakfast, but bumped my nose against that hard top to the Smiling Pool and had all I could do to get back here to draw another breath. I don't see what we are to do. If that hard top stays on the Smiling Pool how are we ever going to get out again? How are we going to get enough to eat? Where did it come from and who put it there?"

Jerry Muskrat began to chuckle. He understood now just what had happened. It was news he had been expecting for some time. "I'll answer your last question first. Jack Frost put it there," said he.

NEWS OF THE CAFES

The Adagio dance has been emancipated! And even sophisticated Hollywood has enthusiastically indorsed the new reign of Adagio as presented by Jack Shutta and Jean O'Rourke at George Olsen's Cafe on Washington Boulevard beyond the M.-G.-M. studios. Unlike the oft-persecuted Adagio of the finer Terpsichorean family, the novel burlesque of the symbolic dance is entitled "Adagio as you like it" as is fittingly contained in Olsen's new revue, "An Old Spanish Custom." The Shutta-O'Rourke conception of the famous dance is to provide laughter for Olsen guests and judging by the loud guffaws their efforts draw each evening, their comedy has not been in vain. Several motion-picture directors have described the dance as the funniest burlesque on Adagio ever presented. The remainder of George Olsen's new revue, staged by the Mosconi Brothers, features many capable and talented performers.

CAFE POPULARITY SPREADS

The popularity of Kenneth Harlan's new Pom Pom Cafe has spread throughout the city, as is evidenced by the great number of reservations which have already been received for New Year's Eve. A special show, replete with sparkling music and entertaining numbers is being prepared for the guests and Harlan promises a gala gathering of film folk at the newly opened night club on that occasion. The Sunday night dinners are proving popular, with the added feature of the colorful stage show and dancing. Prices are reasonable and particular effort has been made to offer an exceptional and excellent cuisine to the patrons.

OPENING ANNOUNCED

Announcement of the date of the opening of Al Levy's Tavern, new restaurant on Vine street between Hollywood Boulevard and Selma avenue as Wednesday, the 17th inst. at 7 p.m. was made today by Al Levy, veteran Los Angeles restaurateur, who will be its proprietor together with John Mann. It was also announced that a number of attractions would distinguish the "first night," including special souvenirs for guests, orchestra music, kleig lights and the serving of a special dinner. Reservations for the opening of the Tavern are now being received at the Hollywood restaurant and also at Al Levy's Grill on Spring street in downtown Los Angeles.

FORTUNE TELLER AT CAFE

In addition to various culinary specialties proving popular at the Navajo Cafe and Tea Room in Hollywood, a great deal of interest is evident in the side feature as provided by the management. Mme. Wanda, gypsy fortune teller will look into one's future through the use of either cards or crystal. A few of the better known Hollywood stage and screen stars said to have consulted her are Mary Legis, Marion Harris, Alice White, Joan Bennett and Doris Lloyd.

DANCERS TO CONTEST

The coming Thursday night, all varieties of the popular dance will be demonstrated in a prize fox trot contest at Solomon's penny dance de luxe, for which festive arrangements are being completed. Tom Moore and the members of his famed band, who hold forth in the ballroom, are rehearsing an elaborate repertoire of old and new favorites for the contest, which is expected to turn out large numbers of devotees of the dance. The fox trot competition is one of the features of the winter program of dancing novelties arranged by Fred H. Solomon.

DEMOCRATS PLANNING JACKSON DAY DINNER

Jackson Day, which marks the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, will be celebrated January 8 by Los Angeles Democratic organizations at a dinner. Monroe Butler, chairman Los Angeles county Democratic Central Committee, announced yesterday. A speaker of national prominence will address the gathering, Mr. Butler declared. Plans now are being formulated.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Wintry Days

One housewife has a few yards of wool twin lines and on cold wash-days she pins the small pieces on these in the house. When filled she pins the line to the outdoor clothesline, thereby saving cold fingers both in hanging up and bringing in the wash.

Right on the Job

When putting away the freshly ironed clothes one thoughtful mother puts a clean handkerchief in the pocket of each of young sonny's suits and one in each of the pockets of daughter's small dresses. Then she knows definitely that a handkerchief accompanies the child to school and that it is never forgotten.

Home Work

Have you a pleasant, well-lighted place for your child to do his home work from school? An attractive workshop makes a great deal of difference in both the desire to work and the work itself. If you cannot afford to buy him a desk, see that he has a table that is just for him and his home work. It will mean a great deal in his studies.

Blond Snubbing Cited in Divorce

Blonds were not preferred by her husband—on the contrary, he spoke rudely to blond visitors, Mrs. Gertrude M. Cooksey yesterday testified in winning a divorce from Clarence W. Cooksey, milk salesman. The wife said that when her blond lady friends called at their home her husband was so pointedly averse that they left.

Superior Judge Sheldon granted her a divorce and custody of her son Robert, 10 years of age, and ordered Cooksey to pay $100 a month for their support.

YOUTH HELD FOR ASSAULT ON OFFICER

Policemen Testify to Narrow Escape When Gun Failed to Go Off

When his automobile was halted by Police Officers Trippel and Craddock on Pasadena avenue at midnight on November 27, last, Neil A. Reed, 19 years of age, of 1128 West Seventh street, thrust an automatic into Craddock's face and pulled the trigger twice, the officers testified yesterday in Municipal Judge Baird's court.

The weapon failed to explode and Trippel knocked it out of Reed's hand, they said. He was held for trial on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon under $10,000 bail.

In addition, Reed, with Carl Ehrhardt, 29, of 122 West Forty-first street, was held for trial on robbery charges. Ehrhardt was arrested at the same time. A. C. Coster, grocer of 5437 West Sixth street, called as a witness by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hunt, declared that the two "stuck up" his grocery the night before they were arrested, obtaining $80. Judge Baird fixed bail on the robbery charges at $5000 each.

Woman's Death From Gun Shot Held Accident

Death of Mrs. Lydia M. Sorrell, 42 years of age, shot fatally last Saturday night when a gun her husband, Richard G. Sorrell, was examining was discharged, yesterday was declared by a Coroner's jury to have been accidental.

Testimony at the inquest, conducted by Deputy Coroner Monfort at the Coroner's office, disclosed that the shooting occurred at the family home, 106 West Eighty-seventh street, while two sons of the couple, Douglas, 9, and Grant, 12, were present.

Following the inquiry, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Barnes declared that no evidence of a crime had been produced and that the case in respect to the District Attorney's office is closed.

INTER-RACIAL MARRIAGE AT END, SAYS ACTRESS

Tossing restlessly on a sick bed at Neurological Institute, New York, Helen Lee Worthing, former Follies beauty and motion-picture actress, declared yesterday that she has separated from her husband, Dr. Eugene Nelson, local colored physician.

Although Dr. Nelson on Monday denied that he and his wife had permanently separated or contemplated divorce, Miss Worthing said the "separation agreement" was filed locally three weeks ago.

In discussing the asserted broken marriage at the hospital where she is being treated for neurosis and insomnia, the actress spoke kindly of her husband.

"Although Eugene and I are now separated," Miss Worthing said, "I shall always think of him in the kindliest terms. He was the only person who gave me consideration, kindness and gentleness during the last few years."

While the former Follies beauty was talking of her unhappy loves she revealed an overwhelming love for a sweetheart of former years—a man she referred to only as "Jack"—and told how the unhappy conclusion to the affair was reached in New York.

In Hollywood in 1924 Miss Worthing said she received one day a telegram from Jack. She said she considered the wire a proposal. Casting aside her ambitions and motion-picture contracts, she said she sped to New York.

On arrival in New York she saw Jack and to his surprise apprised him of her happiness at the "proposal." Jack, however, thought differently.

"Can't you take a joke?" she said she was asked, "besides my family will never stand for a marriage between us—our religious beliefs differ, for one thing."

Broken and depressed by the shock, Miss Worthing said she returned to Hollywood, and collapsed in a complete nervous breakdown. Then she met Dr. Nelson. Due to his comforting and kindly influence she married him, according to her version of the Desdemona-Othello romance.

In a highly emotional condition while she and her husband lived at an East Adams address, the girl says the nervous tension became so great that she was compelled to go to the Neurological Institute for treatment.

CONVICTION REVERSED IN THEFT CASE

Appellate Court Orders Retrial of R. P. Radich on Grounds of Error

Reversal of the conviction of R. P. Radich on charges of theft yesterday was ordered by the appellate department of the Superior Court. Superior Judges McLucas, Shaw and Bishop found that John Zaring, justice of the peace of Belvedere Township, erred in two instances in the trial and conviction and remanded the case for a new trial in Superior Court.

On appeal it was shown that Peace Justice Zaring denied a change of venue, although Radich presented a petition of prejudice and bias "which was verified and is therefore to be regarded as an affidavit."

The judges also held that Peace Justice Zaring erred in instructing a jury relative to the insufficiency of a check as to theft, grounds sufficient for reversal. Radich was convicted of theft growing out of a transaction in which he was charged with fraudulently obtaining money. Attorney D. Joseph Coyne argued Radich's appeal.

Broker's Wife Takes Divorce, Not Annulment

An annulment was hers for the asking, Superior Judge Burnell yesterday informed Mrs. Mildred Lewis when she asked a divorce from Carl P. Lewis, produce broker. She took a divorce instead.

"According to the record you were married in Tia Juana under circumstances which made such a wedding null and void," the judge observed.

Mrs. Lewis charged cruelty, saying her husband took a woman named Evelyn to their home during her absence and that he maintained "a secret apartment for indulging in riotous and drunken revels." The Lewises married December 8, 1929, and separated September 1, last.

Judge Burnell approved a property settlement agreement whereby Mrs. Lewis is to share in property exceeding $25,000 in value.

Yuletide Tree Venders Face Term in Cell

Sale by individuals of Christmas trees in districts of the city not zoned for business must be stopped as provided in city ordinances, the Police Commission decided yesterday, when it instructed Chief Investigator Carter to look into such violations and report them to the Chief of Police.

The action was taken following receipt of a communication from the City Planning Commission saying that venders already are establishing themselves on Wilshire and Los Feliz boulevards to sell the trees in non-business zones. Also, the planning commission stated, many venders are selling the trees without permits in competition with others operating in proper business zones and with permits.

Police Official to Be Defended by City Staff

Assistant Police Chief Finlinson, defendant in a damage suit brought by a citizen who was struck by a car driven by Finlinson, will have the benefit of the City Attorney's legal staff in his defense when the case comes to trial, the City Council yesterday having authorized City Attorney Werner to represent him.

The plaintiff is Charles Anderson, and the accident, which sent Anderson to the hospital for some time, occurred in September, 1929.

At the same time the Council authorized the City Attorney to defend Policemen Walter L. Dooland and L. C. McKinley in a damage and false imprisonment action brought by H. C. McKinney.

Story of Rouge Wins Divorce

Rouge on his lips aroused her suspicions, Mrs. Hilda Fontaine yesterday testified in divorcing Ernest Fontaine.

"My husband came home at 3 a.m. one night, with rouge on his lips," Mrs Fontaine testified before Superior Judge Gould. "When I asked him where he got it he just laughed.

"Once when I came home unexpectedly I surprised him drinking with a woman whose shoes were off. My husband explained that she was a dancer and that her slippers had cut her feet so she couldn't wear them."

Judge Gould granted Mrs. Fontaine a decree.

Tillotson, president of the Tillotson Manufacturing Company, who for years has been closely associated with Willys-Overland. President Miller will explain the company's plans for 1931 and merchandising and advertising programs. He will also confer with G. V. Orr, vice-president of the Willys-Overland-Pacific Company here and officials of the company's Pacific Coast factory on production plans.

LUCK DESERTS COMPLAINANT

Court Gives Her Divorce on That Ground, However, so Mrs. Luck's Lucky

Luck is just a name to Mrs. Flo Luck, she yesterday told Superior Judge Yankwich in getting a divorce from Henry B. Luck.

"My husband told me I wasn't making enough money to help him and that he was tired of making a home for me," she testified.

"Pretty tough luck," punned the judge.

"Yes, I was out of luck," remitted Mrs. Luck. "He deserted me."

"Decree granted," announced the judge. "Better luck next time."

Mrs. Luck was given custody of her son Wayne, 5 years of age.

HUSBAND'S PARADING IN NUDE WINS DECREE

Mrs. Bertha Clark yesterday testified that Albert E. Clark, a tile fitter, was wont to stroll nonchalantly through the house wearing nothing but a satisfied expression, despite protests of herself and her daughters. Superior Judge Turney granted the wife a divorce, with custody of the daughters, Virginia, 17, and Minerva, 14, and ordered Clark to pay $30 a month toward the children's support.

DR. GREIT TELLS TRADE PROSPECTS

Economist Sees Great Chance for Increase With South America

If Los Angeles and Southern California fail to double or treble the volume of trade with South American countries within the next few years this section will have missed the greatest opportunity of its commercial life, according to Dr. Adolph J. Greit, geologist and economist, who is a guest at the Irving Apartments.

Mentioning the fact that last year more than 700 young persons from South America attended schools and colleges in the United States, Dr. Greit said these youths are returning home with friendly feelings toward the people of this country.

Dr. Greit, who is a personal friend of President Hoover, said Mr. Hoover is one of the best Chief Executives the nation ever had, and that the people of the country doubtless will want him for another term.

Dr. Greit paid special tribute to President Hoover for his attempt to enforce the prohibition laws.

SINGING OF NOTED DIVA ACCLAIMED

Mme. Rethberg Reveals Power of Voice, Tasteful Phrasing in Concert

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

At last, the perfect concert! Elisabeth Rethberg sang some of the finest songs in the soprano repertoire last night, accompanied by Elizabeth Alexander, who proved to be one of the best accompanists heard in many a year at the Philharmonic. The audience was large, discriminating and insatiable.

Fittingly, for one so gifted the concert began with a Mozart aria from "Titus." It was an exhibition of ability, power of voice and tasteful phrasing.

The English group which followed was a compliment to Mme. Rethberg's audience. Opening with a haughtingly lovely song by the American, Griffes, three songs of Roger Quilter's followed and the appropriate encore was "My Lovely Celia." All these were given with that simplicity which is true art, and the beautiful Rethberg voice floated out over the auditorium in long unbroken waves of sound.

"Ave Maria," the Schubert version, was a vehicle for true bel canto. "Der Musensohn" (also Schubert) was done with a bright freedom. Schumann's "Nussbaum" gained approval not only for Mme. Rethberg's flawless lieder-singing but also for the absolute perfection of Mrs. Alexander's rippling accompaniment. It had to be repeated.

The climax of three notable songs: "Staendchen," by Brahms; "Marienlied" and "Und Gestern," by Joseph Marx, was reached in the last. It was but lightly touched with modernism. In nobility and inspiration it ranked high with the masterpieces of Schubert, Schumann and Brahms.

"Guten Nacht" and Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Song" were the encores.

In deference to those who admire an opera singer in arias, Mme. Rethberg changed her program to include the Jewel Song from "Faust" and an aria from "Andrea Chenier." Those who love drama were not disappointed. The famous operatic heroines were revivified and the glorious voice displayed its power.

Numberless encores were given before this great singer could leave the theater. "We'll To the Woods" by Charles Griffes, "Die Forella," Schubert's "Beloved Trout," an aria from "Tosca" and the Brahms "Wiegenlied" were among them.

It was an unforgettable festival of song.

"Derelict" to Be Screened at Million Dollar

A fleet of nine vessels put to sea to film scenes of "Derelict," the picture starting Thursday at the Million Dollar Theater. On board was Bancroft and the entire company. The filming cruise lasted several weeks.

"Derelict," takes George Bancroft into an environment he loves, the sea. In early youth, Bancroft enlisted in the United States Navy from his home in Philadelphia, and served on many ships, saw many lands before his cruise ended.

The stage fare includes Dita and Rubin with Betty Dean in "A Dance Escapade," the Spencer Williams Trio in "Laughter Ltd.," Harry Hayden in "Take My Advice," Montgomery and McDowell in "Styles in Steps" and Jeanette Man.

Bard's Screens Chevalier Film

Bard's Eighth-street Theater today presents Maurice Chevalier in what is said to be his most delightful motion picture, "Playboy of Paris."

MAURICE CHEVALIER

In this Paramount film the Frenchman is seen as a French waiter. The story is based on the farce, "The Little Cafe." Francis Dee plays the leading feminine role.

In addition to "Playboy of Paris," Bard's offers a Bert Gordon comedy, a Paramount screen song and news reel.

Paramount Bill Includes Rhythm Boys

The variety of entertainment to be offered tomorrow at the Paramount Theater is headed by the famous Rhythm Boys, a singing trio from the Ambassador's Cocoanut Grove Orchestra. The main screen attraction is Paramount's comedy romance, "Along Came Youth," with Charles Rogers, Frances Dee, Stuart Erwin and William Austin.

"Along Came Youth" is said to be a story full of romance and comedy. "Only Saps Work" has its final performances today.

Backwoods Romance Told Anew

Joan Peers and Richard Cromwell

"LINCOLN" STAR VERSATILE

Walter Huston, who portrays the role of the Immortal Emancipator in D. W. Griffith's "Abraham Lincoln," opening Friday at the United Artists' Theater, has had an oddly varied theatrical career, including parts in vaudeville, comedy showa, dancing acts, stock companies and Broadway drama.

A headliner in vaudeville for fifteen years, Huston, who makes a striking figure as the stately Lincoln, is a gifted trouper who can sing, dance anything from ballroom steps to a fast clog, do heavy dramatic turns, high comedy or varied characterizations of foreign types.

"Abraham Lincoln," however, gives him a dignified, powerful role in which he is given scope for a dramatic and tragic performance. In voice, gestures and little mannerisms, Huston is reported to have caught the great character of the Civil War leader. His is a brilliant, intuitive portrayal, according to report.

NOTED STAR TALKS OVER AIR TONIGHT

Joan Crawford Celebrates Premiere of "Paid" With KHJ Broadcast

In celebration of the premiere of her first straight dramatic role, Joan Crawford will make her first radio appearance tonight over station KHJ.

In consenting to the broadcast, "America's dancing daughter" has cast aside her prejudice against radio appearances just as in her new type of picture she has walked into new heights of acting, studio officials assert.

Miss Crawford's latest vehicle, which starts today at the Criterion Theater, is M.-G.-M.'s "Paid," an adaptation of Bayard Veiller's stage play by Lucien Hubbard and Charles MacArthur.

In her appearance over the air tonight Miss Crawford will be accompanied by her husband, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., "just to hold her hand" during the debut. The broadcast will be during the M.J.B. hour over the west coast division of the Columbia network between 8 and 8:30 o'clock.

Two Interpret Music Through Dance Medium

Interpreting music through the dance, Colleen Clancy and Charles Teske, assisted by Verna Arvey, soprano, appeared in concert last night at the Wilshire Ebell Theater.

A finished grace and the ability to catch the mood of the compositions characterize the dancing. Costumes were exquisite in color and detail and unusually effective against the simple mauve drapes. The excellent lighting added to the decorative effect. The dances of Charles Teske had a primitive quality and a rhythmic responsiveness that enhanced his interpretations of Savino, Rimsky-Korsakoff, Penau, MacDowell and a composition by Miss Arvey.

Colleen Clancy, petite and charming, was a vision of fleeting beauty and grace in her few dances. She chose Cyril Scott, Bizet, Kreisler and Percy Grainger for her pantomimic interpretations.

Verna Arvey as a soloist added to the interest of the concert. Her "Navarra" by Albeniz, "Au Jardin" by Balakirew, and "Humoresque" by Rachmaninoff, were excellent. Her two short Scarlatti numbers rather lacked the quaint Seventeenth Century charm of that composer. Her playing is not warm and has not yet a definite style, but is marked by a sureness of technique and is promising.

Stage Comedy Presented at Major Theater

BY KATHERINE T. VON BLON

Another pathfinder in the little theater group is the Major Theater, located in the Beaux Arts Building, which is starting with an auspicious flourish, a series of original plays to be given during the winter season.

Those in search of individual and piquantly contrived entertainment will find here, perhaps, properly seasoned theatrical viands.

In "Everybody's Troubles," by Jack Preston, now running at the playhouse, a very modern Don Quixote in the person of a quite irresistible young lawyer elects to tilt with devastating ardor at windmills, which in this precise case take the form of crooked real estate salesmen. These same gentlemen are all to familiar types, and since the scene is laid in Southern California conviction lies in every line.

During the process of saving the widows and orphans, victims of these ravening wolves, our hero finds himself in an embarrassing predicament. Like many another young man he has experimented with the love-making idea with numerous girls, and having kissed his stenographer, and having been taken seriously, suddenly finds himself hopelessly involved in the divine passion with another fair lady. This complicates matters and as "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned" the scorned lady promptly becomes a "fury," leading the idealistic young bachelor through an amazing number of contretemps. The girl of his heart is almost lost to him through the machinations of this vixenish little stenographer. However, after several exciting moments and a series of dramatic episodes this very modern Don Quixote triumphs through a rich client who rather saves the situation at the crucial moment.

This lively little comedy is brightly dialogued and there is [illegible]lity in situation and characterization. A little pruning here and there and a stepping-up of the tempo and this play should mkae excellent fare for the commercial theater.

Expert direction by Robert W. Major gave professional flair to the production. The presence of Alice Calhoun, well-known picture actress, in the lead, brought tribute from many friends in the form of lovely floral baskets. Miss Calhoun has poise and delicate charm and a nice sense of nuance. Her comedy was administered with light touch, and her cameo-like beauty appealed. Her voice is not altogether pleasing because of a certain lack of proper pitch.

As the idealistic hero, Eugene Parker acted with a finesse and spontaneity which were delightful. Francine Dalton, the jealous little stenographer, was enacted with vivacity and vindictive spleen by Alys Luthi. Miss Luthi, indeed, demonstrated a very real talent and contributed much toward the general merriment by her characterization. Zoe Lester gave a sympathetic portrayal of one little widow. Loretta De Lone and Nellie Anderson in character parts were amusingly in the picture. As the arch villain, Charles Chadwick gave excellent account of himself, acting with the natural air of a bon vivant.

Musical Caddies Play Film Roles

Golf caddies who played harmonicas were rounded up by Director Charles F. Reisner for "Love in the Rough," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film, now showing at the Tower Theater.

LOEW'S BOOKS NEW FILMS

Loew's State Theater has booked some outstanding films for December and January.

"Holiday," Pathe's comedy of modern society, opens Thursday for a one-week engagement. Ann Harding, Robert Ames, Edward Everett Horton, Hedda Hopper and others are seen in the picture, which E. H. Griffith directed.

On the 18th inst. Charles Farrell's new Fox vehicle, "The Princess and the Plumber," with Maureen O'Sullivan, will be shown. "Reducing," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedy, with Marie Dressler and Polly Moran, opens on the 25th inst. Anita Page, Lucien Littlefield, William Collier, Jr., and Sally Eilers are in the comedy, which Charles F. Reisner directed.

On January 1, "Part Time Wife," Fox comedy of domestic discord, featuring Edmund Lowe and Leila Hyams, will usher in the new year for Loew's State. "Passion Flower," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer sophisticated romance picture, taken from Kathleen Norris's story, is scheduled for January 8. Kay Johnson, Charles Bickford, Kay Francis, Lewis Stone and Zasu Pitts play roles. William De Mille directed.

On January 15, "Just Imagine," Fox fantasy, with El Brendel, Maureen O'Sullivan and Frank Albertson, will be screened, followed on January 22 by "Oh for a Man," with Jeanette McDonald and Reginald Denny.

Whispers in the Wings

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

"STEPPIN' SISTERS," a comedy which has had seven months at the Jolson Theater, New York, and is still humming along, will be a Christmas Way arrival in this town.

Henry Duffy will bring the show, with the jocund May Boley in the featured role, to the Hollywood Playhouse at matinee time.

MAY BOLEY

"Steppin' Sisters," in case you haven't heard, is about three ex-burlesque queens who break into society. Miss Boley is one of the regal trio, Kathryn Givney and Frances Woodbury are the other two. Irving Fisher, who was with Marilyn Miller for three seasons in "Sunny," has a good part.

Others of the cast include Robert Adams, William Lloyd, William Macauley, Barbara Luddy, Mildred Hastings, Myra Marsh, Frank Perry and Muriel Rothermel.

Meantime, until the opening, and following the final performances Saturday of Leo Carillo in "The Bad Man," the Playhouse is to go dark.

It might be noted that that means only three shows in town next week, all of them in Hollywood. They will be "Michael and Mary" at El Capitan; "Peter Pan" at the Music Box, and "She Had to Marry" at the Vine-street.

Vine Opening Postponed

The Al Bridge show, "She Had to Marry" didn't open at the Vine-street last night. Instead came an announcement that it would arrive Saturday evening instead.

A cast change made the postponement necessary. Betty Boyd stepped out of the feminine role in favor of Nancy Fair. Miss Boyd, it was announced, found a previously signed film contract compels her to go out of town almost immediately.

A Spanish First Night

One of the town's biggest "first nights" took place last week and it didn't occur at either the Chinese or Carthay Circle theaters.

RAMON NAVARRO.

It took place at the California Theater on Main street, and the occasion was the opening of Ramon Novarro's first talking Spanish picture, "Sevilla de Mis Amores," in which he not only acted but which he directed.

The police detail handling the crowds estimated 3500 persons in the throng which jammed the street about the theater and which broke the ropes and surged around Novarro at 8:30 o'clock as that likeable young Latin was stepping out of his car.

The inside of the theater was packed. Norma Shearer, Irving Thalberg, Ralph Forbes, Dorothy Jordan, Hedda Hopper and Elsie Janis were among the English-speaking contingent present. They were all vociferously hailed and applauded.

Writers' Club Bill

The Writers' Club makes its annual entrance into our rather quiet theatrical pastures, that is, quiet at the moment—with a bill of four one-act plays, to be performed a week from tonight and tomorrow night. Jessie Arnold, who is running things backstage again, announces:

"Artists' Models," by George Patrick, will be played by Tempe Piggott, Glenn Gordon and Kenneth Thompson who directs it. "The Dark Lady of the Sonnets," by George Bernard Shaw, is played by Helen Freeman, Lionel Belmore, Carmelita Geraghty and Percy Ivins, who directs it. "Women Without Men," by Lenore Coffee and William Cowan, has a cast including Helen Ware, Cecil Cunningham, Tina Marshall, Wynne Gibson, Flora Sheffield and is directed by Fred Burt.

A Trifling Sum

A gentleman who should know telephoned the other day to say that the exact sum paid for Zoe Akins, "The Greeks Had a Word For It," which Miss Norma Talmadge is to do, was $110,000. Joseph Schenck for United Artists signed the check. There were other bidders, but Mr. Schenck topped them all.

Along the Eastern Front

The New York correspondent reports:

"Rumors that Miss Adams would not after all return to the stage this season have again flown up and down Broadway in recent days only to be scotched by the Erlanger office. The latest story is that Miss Adams, who came back from Europe a few days ago, wants Philip Merivale as her leading man in the Colton play, and that since Mr. Merivale is otherwise engaged, the production is being held up until a cast satisfactory to her is assembled.

"In the batch of plays which the Theater Guild is seriously considering for production is the late Mr. Chlumberg's 'Wunderum Verdun,' the Leipzig production.

"McKay Morris will have the title role in 'Colonel Satan,' the play which will bring Mr. Tarkington back to a theater that once knew him so well. Others in the cast which Mr. Tyler and the Erlanger people have assembled will be Andrew Lawlor and Jessie Royce Landis. Columbus, O., will see the play the night after Christmas."

NEW ROLE ENACTED

Constance Cummings, featured in "The Criminal Code," by Columbia, is now engaged in the feminine lead of "The Last Parade," which Erle C. Kenton is directing for this studio.

WANTED, BY PARK BOARD: OLD-STYLE GAS STANDARD

Old-fashioned gas standards, a familiar sight on the streets of almost any city before the era of electricity, have vanished so utterly that the Park Commission is wondering where it can get a sample so as to manufacture a sufficient number to be used as electroliers for Banning Park.

The park consists of the old Phinneas Banning estate in Wilmington and the commission recently decided that no modern electroliers would look well in the vicinity of the old colonial mansion.

Commissioner Griffith was appointed to locate some of the old standards. Learning that San Francisco still has gas standards, he wrote to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, asking if it would be possible to purchase forty-seven.

Yesterday he informed the commission that the company has only thirty of the standards; that they are to be removed within thirty days, and that they already have been spoken for by some one else who wants them as curios.

The commission referred the matter to Landscape Architect Wilson to see if he can obtain a sample of the standards for a design.

at Eighth street and Mansfield avenue and forced Apt and Miss Helen Rueff of 734 West Seventh street to drive to the rear of a school at Ninth and Citrus streets, where he robbed Apt of $35. He refused Miss Rueff's jewelry.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Lyon were just driving into their driveway at 1515 South Reeves street, they reported, when three automobile bandits held them up and robbed them of $85.

COUPLE ROBBED

Two bandits, operating in an automobile equipped with a red spotlight such as is used on police cars, stopped C. H. Henderson of 1616 Cypress avenue, Lomita, and Miss ?. B. Leathers and robbed them of $75 in cash and two wrist watches. The robbery occurred near San Pedro.

After being forced by a bandit to drive his automobile from 645 South Dunsmuir avenue to a quiet spot on Country Club Drive, R. Steward of 5533 Saturn avenue was robbed of his hat, overcoat and car, he reported.

Fred Revlin reported he was held up by a bandit in his drug store at 2532 South San Pedro street and robbed of $80.

Mrs. Helga Peterson told police a lone bandit robbed her of $1 in her store at 7319½ South Hoover street.

Another bandit held up W. A. Williams of the Teris Hotel at Sixth and Witmer streets and robbed him of $135.

Two bandits forced D. J Openheim to lie down on the floor of his shoe store at 107 West Seventh street after robbing him of $12.

L. W. Moses reported he was robbed of $7 in a service station at 1501 West Sixth street, by a bandit.

David Beyer, in his grocery at 3907 Fountain avenue, was robbed of $20 by a pair of bandits.

At 9 a.m. yesterday E. M. Warner was held up by a lone bandit in his home garage at 717 South Cochran avenue and robbed of $50 and his automobile, he reported.

FRUSTRATES THIEVES

By leaping into the middle of the street, M. G. Letourneau of the Hampshire Hotel frustrated the efforts of a pair of bandits to rob him at Pico and Hope streets about 3:30 a.m.

Miss Connie Travilla of 1000 Arapahoe street reported losing $75 to a purse snatcher at Eleventh street and Parkview avenue.

Burglars who broke into the home of Mrs. Leo Schaffer at 2738 Ivanhill Terrace completely stripped the rooms of everything movable, exclusive of the furniture. Entrance was effected through a jimmied kitchen window. Mrs. Schaffer estimated her loss at more than $3000.

TRIO ENTERS GUILT PLEAS TO FRAUDS

Only One of Four Brokers Accused of Criminal Use of Mails Now on Trial

Leaving but one defendant on trial, three out of four men on trial in United States District Judge Cosgrave's court yesterday pleaded guilty to charges of using the mails to defraud in connection with the operations of Anagnosti & Co., investment brokers.

Henry and Albert Tuber and Sam Goldstein pleaded guilty. They will appear for sentence upon the completion of the present trial. William Anagnosti, formerly president of the United States Securities Corporation, and R. D. Robertson Company, and now head of Anagnosti & Co.

Testimony was taken yesterday regarding the asserted stock manipulations of the defendant. It is charged he overstated values, selling stocks for from $15 to $17 a share which ordinarily would sell for from $5 to $7.

Nonsuit Ruling Quashes Foster Action in Usury

Superior Judge Warne yesterday granted a motion for nonsuit in the $360,000 usury suit filed by the late A. F. Foster against the Capital Finance Company and prosecuted by his widow and special administratrix, Mrs. Dorothy W. Foster.

The plaintiff contended that he had been charged too much interest on a loan involving property of the Hollywood Hunt and Polo Club and sued for thrice the value of the loan.

Foster was shot by bandits in July, 1929.

Film Gun Fight Too Realistic

A gun battle for a motion-picture scene on the Lasky ranch yesterday became too realistic, with the result that Richard Arlen, actor, was treated at the Paramount studio hospital by Dr. H. J. Strathearn for a serious facial burn.

During the battle a gun exploded in Arlen's face. It is believed, however, that he soon will be able to resume his work. The accident occurred during the filming of scenes for Arlen's latest western picture.

Air Line Settles Crash Death Suit

The Maddux Air Lines, by a stipulated judgment in Superior Judge Doran's court, yesterday agreed to settle for $14,000 the claim of 4-year-old David Miller, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Miller, were killed in the crash of an air liner near San Clemente, last January 19.

Although the crash occurred in San Diego county, the suit was filed here because the headquarters of the company are located in this city.

AUTO CRASH VERDICT FOR $8000 WON

Husband Given Judgment Against Deputy Sheriff and County for Wife's Death

Judgment for $8000 yesterday was given in favor of George Harper against Los Angeles county and Deputy Sheriff Percy M. Atkins by a jury of seven women and five men in Superior Judge Wilson's court. Harper sued for damages resulting from the fatal injuring of his wife in an automobile collision May 1, last, at Western avenue and Ballona street. Mrs. Bertha Bergman Harper died the following day in Hawthorne Hospital.

The jury returned its verdict within thirty minutes. Harper, a Canadian war veteran, now chauffeur for a Pasadena woman, testified that his car in which he and his wife were riding was struck by a speeding county car driven by Deputy Sheriff Atkins. The plaintiff and his witnesses denied the defendant's contention that he ignored siren and red-light warnings, asserting on the contrary that there was no warning until the county automobile reached the intersection.

Harper sued for $10,783.75 after his claim had been presented to the Board of Supervisors and rejected. Attorney Brooks Gifford represented Harper in court.

The dog, an Eskimo husky, was owned by Warren Hymer of the Fox Film Corporation. At the time the injury was treated at the Dickey & Cass Hospital it was not considered serious and no further treatments were taken by Smith. The dog, however, was kept under observation by Hymer and yesterday the animal developed convulsions and died. Smith was notified and doctors were summoned.

RADIO TO FILM "HIGH RIVER"

Richard Boleslavsky Gets Directorial Job

William Beaudine Guides All-Feminine Cast

Blanca Costijon to Play in Universal Films

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

The R.-K.-O. organization has settled on what Richard Boleslavsky's first directorial effort will be.

SUE CAROL

The title of the production will be "High River." Boleslavsky at present is adapting the feature from the novel of the same name.

There is a strong likelihood that Sue Carol will have the star role in the picture.

Boleslavsky is a Polish director recently signed by R.-K.-O. and William LeBaron. His first work in the motion-picture field was "Treasure Girl" for Pathe.

ROY DEL RUTH BUYS RIGHTS TO NOVEL

Bringing with him the talking-picture rights to a new play called "That Type of Woman," which he will later put on the screen, probably for Warner Brothers, Roy Del Ruth has returned from New York, where he witnessed the premiere of his picture, "The Life of the Party." "That Type of Woman" is a sophisticated comedy by E. J. Murrell, according to Del Ruth.

The director is scheduled to take charge of the making of a new picture, "Bad Women," being produced by Warner Brothers and which will go into production after the first of the year.

BEAUDINE DIRECTS ALL FEMININE CAST

It does seem to us that William Beaudine has one of the most delectable assignments of the year.

William Beaudine

He has been chosen to direct an all-feminine cast in a Liberty production. The picture is titled, "Women Like Men," and in it nine women appear, but not a single member of the male sex. There is a masculine background to serve as a love interest, but the action is all feminine. Each girl is a distinct type, and when Beaudine completes the film, he will know all about women and their temperaments. Or will he?

The production will start on January 1, and so far no one is chosen for the cast.

This is the first time a story without males has ever been produced in pictures. A play of this nature was produced in London this season, and later in New York. I forget its title.

Mexican Star With Universal

Universal has acquired another beautiful young Mexican star. She is Blanca Costijon, and is that rare being, a very blond Mexican.

Miss Costijon arrived in town yesterday from Mexico City, where she has been appearing on the stage. It is understood that the young actress will appear both in Spanish and English versions of pictures, since not only is she a blond, but she also speaks English almost like a native.

Elmer Harris Here

That popular playwright, Elmer Harris, has arrived in our midst after an absence from Hollywood of more than a year.

And he comes home even more famous than he went away, since his "Young Sinners" has become one of the most popular plays of the Broadway season.

Of course Harris is at work on a new play, but there is a likelihood also that he will become permanently allied with one of the studios, especially as he spent several years during the reign of silent pictures with Paramount and later with Pathe. His "Young Sinners" is to become a picture.

Louise Mackintosh in It

Louise Mackintosh, well-known stage and screen actress, has been signed by Paramount for "Finn and Hattie Abroad," the new comedy featuring Leon Errol, Mitzi Green, Zasu Pitts, Lilyan Tashman, Regis Toomey and Jackie Searl.

The young actress but recently completed a featured role in Ruth Chatterton's new starring picture, "The Right to Love."

Carroll Nye With M.-G.-M.

That clever young actor, Carroll Nye, isn't being overlooked by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer these days.

Young Nye signed yesterday for the juvenile lead in Ramon Novarro's next starring vehicle, "Daybreak," we learned yesterday. Nye has appeared in a number of M.-G.-M. pictures, previous to which he was with Warners.

Mack Sennett With R.-K.-O.

Mack Sennett was observed lunching and earnestly conferring yesterday with Joseph Schnitzer of Radio.

Asked what it was all about, Sennett remarked lightly that they were discussing golf, and while we know that men take their golf seriously, that conference didn't look like a golf conference to us. Indeed, it appeared to us that nothing short of a comedy conference would be so serious. But we just asked Mr. Sennett what handicap Schnitzer was giving him and let it go at that.

However, reports are rife that Sennett, who formerly was releasing through Pathe, will align himself, now that Pathe and R.-K.-O. are one, with the fused organization.

Run of Milne Play Extended at El Capitan

Costarring Dale Winter and Henry Duffy, the limited engagement of "Michael and Mary," originally booked for three weeks only, has been extended for one week, according to an announcement from the management of El Capitan Theater.

Joe E. Brown is scheduled to star in Ring Lardner's comedy, "Elmer the Great," on the 21st inst.

"Michael and Mary," A. A. Milne's romance, was selected by Burns Mantle as one of the ten best plays of 1929-1930 and has been arousing keen interest among theatergoers.

Rhythm Needed, Writer Asserts

Rhythm is the foundation upon which successful plays are built, Zoe Akins, playwright and author of many short stories, poems and screen adaptations, asserts.

According to Miss Akins, the composition of verse should be mastered first by the writer, and not before words can be strung together into sentences, scenes and entire acts with interesting tempo should the writing of a play be attempted.

Miss Akins, who has fifteen successful plays to her credit as well as two volumes of verse and fifty short stories, has completed the adaptation of Ruth Chatterton's current starring vehicle for Paramount, "The Right to Love."

NEW REVUE PLANNED

Mildred Harris, Fred Santley and Shannon Day will be featured in the new revue which Murray Phillips is presenting at the Play Shop, 1141 North Gower street, commencing January 2.

ACTRESS ASSIGNED

Dorothy Mackaill will move her make-up kit to Radio Pictures' studio. She has been borrowed for the leading feminine role in "Kept Husbands."

DIRECTOR RE-SIGNED

LEIGHTON RETICENT OVER SUIT

Hotel Man Declines to Discuss Divorce Action Against Pauline Fredericks

Still confined to his bed at the Beverly Hills Hotel seriously ill, Hugh C. Leighton, hotel magnate, yesterday declined to discuss his move to obtain an annulment of his marriage to Pauline Frederick, stage and screen actress, in a suit which is now on file in Superior Court.

"There is nothing more for me to say other than what is in the complaint," said Leighton, through his nurse. He is president of the Interstate Hotel Company, which operates the Beverly Hills Hotel, and is under care of Dr. C. F. Nelson.

Leighton seeks to have his marriage set aside on the ground Miss Frederick "entered into the marriage fraudulently, without intent to carry out the contractual obligations." They were married in New York April 20, last, it being Miss Frederick's fourth venture.

Miss Frederick, now appearing on the stage in Portland, Or., declined a statement. Previously she had persistently denied a separation which took place soon after their marriage.

The actress's other husbands were Willard Mack, actor and playwright; Frank Andrews, New York architect, and Dr. Charles A. Rutherford, Seattle physician.

Officers reported they arrested Muchnic at 810 North Roxbury Drive, where he is said to have used another name. He was arraigned before United States Commissioner Head and released on bail of $2500 pending a hearing, the 19th inst.

When Philip D. Hawkins boast of being a member of the Al Capo gang of racketeers and gunme Mrs. Marie Virginia Hawkins be came alarmed, she asserts in her di vorce suit filed yesterday. She li bels his nightly absences from hom as cruelty.

HOLD-UP VICTIMS IDENTIFY MANY

Almost 400 in Throng to See Suspected Criminals

Prisoner Reverses Procedure and Does Pointing Out

Almost 400 citizens—victims of recent robberies in Los Angeles—gathered at Central Station last night and succeeded in identifying fourteen from a total of fifty-two suspects during the weekly bandit-suspect show-up conducted by the police department.

The suspects were brought into the chamber in which night court usually is conducted because the regular show-up room in the jail is not large enough to accommodate the large group of victims.

One at a time the asserted bandits were stood on a platform before the crowd, turned and questioned by Detective Lieutenants Connors and Weaver.

Each suspect was introduced by a number and victims who recognized any of the fifty-two were requested to identify them by number after the first showing.

Despite these instructions, however, now and then some one in the crowd would shout, "That's the man," as a new suspect mounted the platform.

Paul White, 25-year-old transient, reversed the procedure when he appeared—pointing out several persons in the crowd before they had a chance to speak.

"I think I stuck up him and him," he said, indicating his asserted victims with his finger.

"You opened my cash register," shouted a Hollywood Japanese grocer.

"Yep, guess I did at that," was the nonchalant reply.

Among other suspects who created a stir when their turn came were Pete Ryan and Hazell Sanders, alias Rozor Sanders, arrested for the moving-van system of robbing expensively furnished homes of $250,000 worth of rugs, furnishings and jewelry.

All those in last night's "parade" were booked on suspicion of robbery or burglary charges and were arrested as the result of last week's efforts by local police in attempting to cope with the wave of robberies that has swept the city.

Detective Lieutenants Woolman, Burris, Anderson and Nolon aided in conducting the show-up and announced that the next will be held Tuesday evening at Central Station. Station

The other thirteen suspects picked by citizens last night as the men who robbed them are John Casey, John Trambitos, Walter Gusta, Frank Russo, Jack Taylor, Joe Bailey, Peter Ryan, Graham Norton, Henry Brandt, Raymond Farrell, Joseph Vacella, Andrew Luckshaw and Gradford Baxter.

Drive Planned for Home Funds

Plans to raise a fund of $50,000 for the maintenance in 1931 of the Mt. Sinai Home have been formulated and the campaign is to be started within a few days, it was announced by the board of directors yesterday.

The home, located at 801 North Bonnie Beach Place, is the only institution of its kind in Southern California designed to take care of invalids who are beyond the scope of benefits offered by ordinary hospitals and institutions. A special membership committee has been formed of many well-known men and women of Los Angeles.

"Colorful Language" is the subject of a free lecture by Miss Mabel C. Hermans to be given at the Central Library tomorrow at 8 p.m. Miss Hermans is research assistant of the Board of Education of the Los Angeles city schools. She is author of "Studies in Grammar," which is used as a textbook in the city schools.

REPUBLICANS PICK TIMBER

Nine Southland Men Backed by County Committee for Rolph Selections for State Jobs

Resolutions recommending nine residents of Southern California for appointment to various State posts were adopted at a meeting last night of the Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee. Three of the recommendations were presented for vote by an executive committee of the organization while the others were made after a vote of the members. The meeting was held at the Chamber of Commerce.

Leo D. Dase for Corporation Commissioner, Adolph N. Sutro to serve as director of the Department of Natural Resources and Roy A. Watkins for Director of Finance were the three men named in the formal resolution drawn by the executive committee.

Clyde Young, for Real Estate Commissioner; James A. Plant, Chief of Narcotic Bureau; Bert L. Farmer, member of the Industrial Accident Commission; Walter A. Ham for appointment as a municipal judge in Los Angeles county; George Hutchinson, chief chemist of the Department of Agriculture, and Charles Frances Adams for appointment as a municipal judge in Los Angeles county were named in other resolutions adopted by a vote of the attending members.

Shortly after the presentation and adoption of the nine resolutions Assemblyman Frederick Houser of Alhambra announced he will write to Gov.-elect Rolph decrying the manner in which the office candidates were indorsed, saying that with the exception of the first three their individual qualifications were not sufficiently investigated.

Two additional resolutions, one pledging support to Mr. Rolph and the other calling upon Representative Crail to request the newly appointed United States Secretary of Labor to conduct an investigation of immigration into Southern California, were adopted.

Dr. Millbank Johnson, named at a previous meeting to become treasurer of the county central committee, withdrew from that office saying that his connection with the California Taxpayers' Association prevents his acceptance. James R. Martin was elected to fill his post.

Lieutenant-Governor-elect Merriam, who attended the meeting as honor guest of the dinner which preceded the executive session, spoke briefly assuring the committee of the co-operation of State officials in the aims of Southern California Republicans. He voiced a plea for the support of Herbert Hoover as President in 1932.

Wife Tired of Being Support

Supporting her husband's two children by a former marriage was asserted yesterday by Mrs. Katherine W. Goode in divorcing Leo D. Goode, a cement worker.

"After we were married I received an inheritance," Mrs. Goode told Superior Judge Yankwich, "My husband then refused to provide for me. He had two children by his prior marriage. I supported the children."

Judge Yankwich granted her a divorce.

Street Safety Board Appeals to Jaywalkers

An appeal to pedestrians to avoid jaywalking and thus aid in reducing the holiday death toll resulting from traffic accidents was issued yesterday by the Los Angeles Citizens' Safety Conference.

Attention is directed to the fact that December records more persons killed in vehicular accidents than any other month in the year. Jaywalkers particularly suffer.

"In the twenty-five days between December 1 and Christmas the record, if up to normal levels, will show 100 persons killed, and of these thirty-five will be pedestrians," the safety conference points out. "But the number can be reduced and the conference asks the co-operation of pedestrians."

Accompanying the printed appeal issued is a tabulation of the causes of accidents. Crossing streets carelessly where there are no traffic signals is the most prolific cause of accidents. Crossing at other points than intersections ranks second and coming from behind parked cars third.

Two Dead From Poison Alcohol

A second death within a twenty-four-hour period as the result of drinking poisoned alcohol occurred last night when Juan Rodriguez, 60 years of age, a Mexican, living at 141 North Main street, died at General Hospital after having been arrested on the street for drunkenness. A prisoner called attention to the man's condition in the jail and he was rushed to the hospital, but died shortly after.

Monday night Pedro Mendoza, arrested at Commercial and Main streets, died in the jail from effects of poisoned liquor. Police believe the men obtained their poisoned alcohol from the same dealer.

TEXTILE MEETING TOMORROW

The December meeting of the Textile Club of Los Angeles will be held in the Masonic Club Building, 623½ South Grand avenue, at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Street Paving Plans Dropped

Because property owners seem to be confused over the type of pavement to be used, the Public Works Committee of the City Council yesterday decided to drop the proposal to improve Highland avenue between Cahuenga Boulevard and Santa Monica Boulevard.

Thomas F. Marshall, president of the Highland Avenue Improvement Association, contended property owners signed the improvement petition under a misapprehension and that withdrawals have reduced the original petition to less than 45 per cent of the total.

DAMAGE CLAIMS ALLOWED

Six damage claims on account of the change of grade of Olympic Boulevard, aggregating $3436, were allowed yesterday by the City Council. City Attorney Werner was instructed to settle with the property owners on that basis.

PARK COST ISSUE DELAYED

Because the project still is being litigated the City Council yesterday continued until the 22nd inst. the matter of confirming assessments for the acquisition of Victory Park No. 2.

Wheller Johnson, appearing in his own divorce suit against Mrs. Henrietta Johnson yesterday, objected to having his nose pierced, as for rings, according to an old savage custom, he told Superior Judge Stafford yesterday.

"When my wife stuck a hatpin through my nose, I had to leave her," Johnson told the court.

Judge Stafford granted the decree.

However, before crying over the Trojan's cause it must be remembered that Barry has only coached his cagers one night, being kept busy with football, and the team will probably perform a lot differently as soon as he begins working over them.

A little advice to Mr. Barry is that he adopt the defense that the sophomore managers use around the pass gate. It'd take a team of five One-Eye Connollys to break through the Trojans then. Line-ups:

La Barba whipped an "uncrowned" champion in Chocolate, Canzoneri knocked out a genuine title-holder in Al Singer, lightweight king, in two punches, and Petrolle outclassed McLarnin, considered the best of the welterweights.

Battalino has experienced some trouble in making the class weight limit, and still has a couple of pounds to carve from his slim frame. Chocolate is a natural 126-pounder.

PAULIE WALKER DEFEATS PAYAN

New York Italian Winner in Mild Go at Olympic

Eastern Scrapper Aggressor Throughout Ring Mill

Billy Papke, Jr., Loses Nod to Jimmy Hanna

BY PAUL LOWRY

PAULIE WALKER

There were no knockdowns, but Walker forced the going and deserved the victory.

It was the eastern welter's third win since invading local circles, his last victim having been Sammy Jackson, who lost on a foul in the eighth round a week ago.

Payan lashed out energetically at times, and in the tenth barely missed connecting with a hard right-hand smash that spelled a canvas trip.

The blow just grazed Walker's chin.

Walker weighed 147 and Payan 146.

In the semi-wind-up Jimmy Hanna scored a victory over Billy Papke, Jr., in the first fight lost by the son of the old middleweight champion at the Olympic.

Hanna's greater experience gained him the verdict.

The other fights resulted as follows:

Leo Hernandez and Cecil Balding battled four rounds to a draw, Ralph Vasquez won from Charley Ernst in four rounds, and Eddie Neal won from Mickey Romo in four rounds. Romo was down for eight in the first round and Neal was on the canvas for a one count in the second round.

Rockne Admits Squad is Good

PRATT (Kan.) Dec. 9. (AP)—Knute K. Rockne, en route back to South Bend with his Notre Dame football champions, broke down and confessed here today he had a pretty good team this year. But next season—well, Mr. Rockne had his doubts.

The Notre Dame squad stopped here briefly on its way from Los Angeles, where the team capped a season of victories by defeating Southern California.

Rockne said he would join a motor-car corporation as soon as he reached South Bend, but would return to his coaching duties next autumn.

HOLLINGBERY GOES HOME

"Babe" Leaves for Pullman to Open Practice for Alabama Rose Bowl Struggle

BABE HOLLINGBERY

The Cougars today launch their first drive in the general direction of Wallace Wade's Crimson Tide from Dixie. Since overcoming Villanova ten days ago, the Coast title - holders have been inactive, but today they will begin practice for what they term the supreme effort.

Hollingbery will not reach Pullman until Friday. Meanwhile, "Buck" Bailey, assistant coach, will put the men through their paces and enlighten them as to the nature of Alabama's style of play. Bailey scouted the Crimson Tide in its tussle with Georgia.

No statement as to his chances for victory was forthcoming from Hollingbery. "The game is a game," he said. "We go in every game to win, but I'm not in the habit of predicting an outcome before the game is over. I hope to win, by as wide a margin as possible. Wade figures the same way, I guess.

"Washington State will fight for all it's worth and that's what I want. Alabama is good. So are we. My bunch this year is the best I've ever handled and proof of this is gleaned from the percentages, which show Washington State to have a clean record. No defeats. No ties. We've had a tough schedule, but have gone along fine."

Another declaration by Hollingbery had to deal with the coaching situation at California. "I'm denying any statement attributed to me that I was interested in the coaching position at California. No one ever approached me on the matter and the story is a malicious intent to place me in the wrong light with some. My duties at Washington State are satisfactory to me. There would be no reason for my leaving. Furthermore, I have an important game coming up on New Year's and haven't time to discuss a new position."

Hollingbery hinted that "Elmer the Great" Schwartz and Ellingson, backfield men, will be the chief offensive weapons to be used against Alabama. Several new plays will be given the Cougars when their coach reaches the training field.

"We'll need to revamp our offensive just a mite for Alabama," declared Hollingbery. "These new plays won't be radical changes. They'll just be enough to make crtain that it won't be strictly an Alabama party out there in the Rose Bowl."

Alabama began practice Monday and already is on the way to peak of condition.

The squads will arrive here three days apart. Wade brings his Crimson Tide into town on the 23rd inst. Hollingbery had planned to arrive the day before Christmas, but his latest program calls for an arrival on the 26th inst. Both teams will be quartered at Pasadena and will hold daily workouts until the day of the game.

WELCH TO JOIN ALL-STAR TEAM

Purdue Ace Plays on Phelan Squad Against Irish

Cravath Recommends Utah Stars for Positions

Seven Noted Players Named on Charity Eleven

The Far South, the Northwest, the Rocky Mountains, the Middle West and the Navy yesterday contributed seven outstanding gridiron athletes to the roster of All-Stars slated to oppose an All-Notre Dame team here on the 27th inst.

JIMMY PHELAN

Officials of the Los Angeles Elks' Lodge, No. 99, sponsoring the game, reported the signing of Bill Price, fullback and captain, and Joe Jonas, center on the University of Utah eleven for 1930; "Rusty" Steele, all-Southern guard from Florida; Joe Clifton, former Annapolis backfield ace; Pest Welch, all-America fullback and captain of the undefeated Purdue machine of 1929, and Gob Wentworth, center, and Capt. Al Holmes, tackle, from the 1930 edition of the University of Washington eleven.

All seven of the men will leave immediately for the Coast to go under the tutelage of Jimmy Phelan, Washington mentor, slated to coach the All-Stars against the brilliant outfit Knute Rockne is assembling from Notre Dame.

Of the seven, Welch is undoubtedly the greatest and best known. Welch climaxed a brilliant three years at Purdue last season, captaining the team to a Big Ten championship. And any football player good enough to earn the nickname "The Pest," must have something on the ball—providing it isn't his own mates who give him the monicker.

On the recommendation of Jeff Cravath, former captain and center at Southern California, Jonas and Price of Utah, were given positions on the team. Cravath named them as the best in the Rocky Mountain district.

Gob Wentworth and Al Holmes appeared in the Coliseum on Thanksgiving Day when Washington went up—and down—against Southern California. Both men are giants and well versed in the manner of comporting themselves.

Playing on a team that ran second best most of the time in Dixie, Steele, the Florida guard, nevertheless, got himself on the All-Southern. The comparative difficulties of starring when your team is winning as against looking heroic when the boys are losing have been demonstrated even in Los Angeles. Steele was practically a unanimous choice for his position down South despite his team's showing.

Joe Clifton played at Annapolis a few years back, and is now an ensign on the U.S.S. Tennessee.

LIONS WILL OPEN BASKET SCHEDULE

Loyola University opens its basketball season tonight when it tackles the Elks Club quintet on the Santa Monica High School gymnasium. The Lions have a strong five this year with a number of regulars returning from last year's squad to claim positions. Coach Joe Donahoe announced his starting Loyola line-up as follows: Will Von Der Ahe, center; Bud Brubaker and John McCarthy, forwards; Kristovich and Barney McGarry, guards. The Loyola frosh quintet opened practice last night with twenty-five men reporting.

ARMY GAME FAILS TO BOTHER NAVY MENTOR

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) Dec. 9. (AP)—"Navy Bill" Ingram, who gained his name through five years of coaching football at the Naval Academy, professes not to be worrying a great deal about the charity game with the Army at New York on Saturday.

"It's just another game, and we are preparing as we would for any other team," he said today as he pulled off his togs after a strenuous afternoon with his charges. "We'll give 'em a battle."

Nevertheless, the Naval Academy is making preparations in far from "another game" spirit. Four teams were on the field today, and they went through a scrimmage to the accompaniment of cheers from the midshipmen grouped in the stands and music from the band.

Weak spots in the backfield are worrying the Navy mentors. Kirn, midget 152-pound battering ram, is

COMMISSIONER DUE TO BE NAMED AT NEXT MEETING

Faculty Sanctions Full Schedule as Session Comes to an End; Doc Spears Denies Rumor

Following yesterday's session of the Pacific Coast Conference meeting at the Biltmore the possibility loomed stronger than ever that a commissioner of athletics will soon be appointed for this organization.

Coaches and graduate managers recommended to the faculty group that a committee be appointed to consider the installation of such a commissioner and this group will report to the next meeting of the conference slated for Portland in June. Faculty representatives have backed this proposal for more than a year but have received only lukewarm support from coaches and managers—hence the delay in adopting a plan first presented more than a year ago.

"DOC" SPEARS

Another important step taken was that of recommending the appointment of a committee to look into the matter of a round-robin schedule for the conference, one similar to that now in vogue in the Big Ten. This rotating schedule would bring about grid games between each of the members at least every five years. As things now stand some of the teams do not play each other at all.

THREE CHANGES

With only three minor changes the schedule as adopted Monday stood up under the scrutiny of the faculty representatives. University of California at Los Angeles came out of the skirmish on the small end of the deal, with only three conference engagements and two home games.

Oregon, with a traveling schedule, will be the only team in the circuit to play the Bruins here, although addition of St. Mary's to the list for a game here November 14 strengthened the Bruin cause. Other changes were the switching of dates and opponents between Stanford and California and the addition of Montana to Oregon State's roster.

Nevada will play at California October 31 instead of Montana. Idaho meets the Bears at Berkeley November 14, while Nevada journeys

Motion-Picture Industry Plans Open Match Play Golf Tournament to Aid Cha

PICTURE STARS FURNISH PURSE

Douglas Fairbanks Chairman of Committee

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Southern California open tournament stock, which has been playing queer pranks on the golf market for some months past, registered a decided upward trend yesterday with the announcement that an open match-play tournament for charity had been arranged for the week of January 18, next, following the Agua Caliente $25,000 open.

Bob Harlow, director of the national P.G.A. tournament bureau, reports that the purse will be donated by the motion-picture industry. The committee in charge of the event includes Douglas Fairbanks, chairman; Jack Warner, Edward Mannix, Harold Lloyd, Albert Kaufman, Al Jolson, Mack Sennett, L. A. Young and Arthur W. Steffins.

The tournament, which will be played either along the lines of the national P.G.A. championship with thirty-six-hole matches each day, or the recent San Francisco $7500 open with eighteen-hole matches, will be under the supervision of the Pacific Southwest P.G.A.

If thirty-six-hole matches are played the tournament will require a week to complete, or four days if matches are eighteen holes.

J. A. (Pat) Patterson, secretary of the local professional body, looks forward to an outstanding tournament. He points out the remarkable success of the 1929 P.G.A. championship at Hillcrest, and believes that the average golfer is decidedly more interested in match play than medal play.

Neither the course nor the size of the purse has been decided upon, but the movie colony holds its annual championship at the Lakeside Country Club and the North Hollywood links are expected to get the preference, while it is understood that the purse will not be less than $5000.

This added tournament will give the visiting professionals something worth while to shoot at with three great events in as many weeks, the Los Angeles $10,000, Agua Caliente $25,000 and motion picture opens coming in a row.

BILL HORRELL ANNEXES FLINTRIDGE TROPHY

Bill Horrell defeated Bill Salisbury, 1 up, to win the President's cup tournament at the Flintridge Country Club recently in a thrilling finals match. Salisbury had Horrell 2 down going to the fifteenth hole, but the latter rallied to win the fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth and pulled the match out of the fire when Salisbury three-putted the eighteenth.

EDDIE LOOS IN PASADENA FOR WINTER MONTHS

Jack Schaefer reports that Eddie Loos, former winter pro of the Pasadena Country Club had returned from the East to spend the winter months at his Pasadena home. Eddie, one of the best instructors in the game, has decided to take things easy for a while and will compete this year in the winter tournaments.

WOMEN HOLD TOURNEY AT MIDWICK FRIDAY

The women's auxiliary of the Southern California Golf Association will hold a medal sweepstakes event in two classes at the Midwick Country Club Friday.

TWO TITLES AT STAKE

San Diego Meets Santa Monica for "B" Grid Honors in Preliminary to Redondo-Long Beach Tilt

BY IRVING ECKHOFF

Two prep championships will be at stake this Saturday in the Coliseum. Long Beach and Redondo clash for the Southern California C.I.F. varsity title, in the main pigskins dish offered, while San Diego and Santa Monica tangle in the preliminary for the Class B crown.

Those who like their football in copious quantities are urged to get to the Coliseum early, for Coach Glenn Broderick's San Diego Babes, with a more or less impressive record, are out to show the Santa Monica team how football is played down south.

San Diego wasn't included in the Coast League Class B schedule this year, and has only had five games, three with varsity high school elevens, and two with Class B play-off games.

The Hilltoppers beat Brawley varsity twice, 28-0 and 18-12, and lost to El Centro High, 15-7. El Centro is the southern minor-school varsity champion, so no prestige was lost as far as San Diego was concerned.

The two Class B encounters saw Broderick's eleven run wild over both El Monte and Huntington Beach. The Lion babes were defeated, 53-7, while Huntington Beach lost, 59-6.

While both El Monte and Huntington Beach were considered to be more or less strong lightweight outfits, they failed to show much against the powerful Hilltoppers. Whether or not Santa Monica can stop San Diego, remains to be seen.

Redondo will have four All-Bay League players in its starting line-up against Long Beach in the feature game. The bay loop coaches announced their 1930 all-league eleven yesterday, and the Seahawks placed Walt Schell at fullback, Mel Seifert at halfback, Henry Garbe at guard and Ward at end.

The second eleven finds one Redondo player, "Pat" Henry, at one end of the guard positions, while honorable mention was awarded three other Seahawks, Ray Wright, guard; Doyle, tackle and Drennon, tackle.

Garbe, who was selected on the first-string at guard, holds down the center position for Redondo, but shifts over to guard on the defense.

Van Vliet, Inglewood	L.E.
Hiezold, Huntington Park	L.T.
Metzger, San Pedro	L.G.
Gibson, Inglewood	C.
Garbe, Redondo	R.G.

Ward, Redondo	R.E.
Vrooman, Huntington Park	Q.
Patalano, San Pedro	L.H.
Seifert, Redondo	R.H.
Schell, Redondo	F.

SECOND TEAM

Janson, San Pedro	L.E.
Roberts, Venice	L.T.
Weber, Santa Monica	L.G.
Hanson, San Pedro	C.
Henry, Redondo	R.G.

Gilhousen, Inglewood	Q.
Olsen, Venice	L.H.
Bexler, Huntington Park	R.H.
Keller, Inglewood	F.

L. A. HIGH AND POLY CLASH TOMORROW

Old rivals, L. A. High and Poly, clash in the feature game of the second round of play in the City League basketball race tomorrow. The Romans won their first league game last week, while Poly dropped a decision to Fairfax. Coach Happy Hamseth's Roman quintet will be favored to win.

The other five games find Manual Arts at Hollywood, with the Redshirts favored; Franklin at Lincoln, with the Tigers picked to win; Fairfax at Belmont, with the Colonials conceded the edge; Roosevelt at Garfield with the Rough Riders picked to win, and Fremont at Jefferson, with "Ching" Duhm's Democrats doped to win their second straight league encounter.

MANY BLUE PERCH CAUGHT ON OLYMPIC

HERMOSA BEACH, Dec. 9.—Capt. J. M. Anderson, skipper of the big Olympic fishing barge, anchored two miles offshore here, reports a run of blue perch now going on, with large catches being brought in daily. Last week, Olympic anglers experienced a sculpin run and now with the blue perch biting hard, Anderson believes the height of the winter deep-sea fishing season has been reached. Sand dabs, mackerel and bonito are also numbered among the daily catches.

MORMONS FACE HAWAII

HONOLULU, Dec. 9. (AP)—Brigham Young University's eleven from Provo, Utah, today had its last workout prior to the game with the University of Hawaii at 8 p.m., tomorrow. The Mormons apparently lost their sea legs during the workout.

THE RECOMPENSE

Yes, winter is coming with its snows;
My feet will freeze, and my ears will, too;
So will my hands and neck and nose,
And my finger tips will be turning blue;
But I'll meet the raw gales with a grin
And merrily face the stringing snow,
As old grads now quit writing in—
"Why don't you mention so-and-so?"

I'm none too keen for the slush and sleet
And the howling north wind's not so nice
As I skid around on a slippery street
When the melting snow turns back to ice;
But I'll take it all with never a scowl
In the peace and calm that I soon must know,
As old grads no more rise and howl—
"Why don't you mention so-and-so?"

Here's another favorite line—"If so and so is not on the all-America it will be a joke." So far there have been 127 of these entered by official count.

Answering a Query

"Just what is it, after all," writes old timer, "that makes Notre Dame outstanding in football?"

(1.) Thorough instruction in the fundamentals to an entire squad by one of the greatest of all teachers, academic or athletics—Knute Rockne—assisted by a smart staff.

(3.) A brilliant field general—Carideo—to make use of the weapons handed him and his men.

Football's main fundamentals are blocking, tackling, charging and handling the ball (passing and receiving passes.) These must be hooked to speed that in turn must be welded into timing.

The plays must be there, but above all, they must be ably directed. A smart quarterback means more than you might believe. Notre Dame had Harry Stuhldreher and was unbeatable. Stuhldreher passed and lean years came—defeats of 28 to 0 and 18 to 0, by the Army—four defeats in one year, 1928. Then Carideo came on and the answer has been nineteen straight.

Carideo can gamble where other quarterbacks can't, because he knows his men can function mechanically — can handle the assignment correctly, whether it be blocking an end or tackle or throwing or catching any sort of pass. He could try a lateral on his own 20-yard line because he knew there was little danger from a bad pass or a muffled ball. And there is this to add—every man on the Notre Dame team knows every other assignment as well as his own—where in ninety-nine cases out of 100, the average college football player doesn't know his own assignments any too well, much less those of the other ten men.

What no one can explain is how any coach can keep a team tuned up mentally and physically from October 4 to December 7. This again is partly due to the thorough development through more than two months of spring training that relieves the need for the type of fall scrimmaging which kills off so many teams or wears away their keenness for the game. All this means a combination of several things, which are headed by the three factors that make any great team—a smart coach, good material and the element of time in which to teach and train.

Watching Washington

There seems to be a general feeling among baseball men attending the American League meeting that Connie Mack will have the time of his life beating out Washington next year, if only one or two of Walter Johnson's veterans can hold the old clip.

Johnson has a great set of young pitchers coming on and now are just about ready and he has one of the main finds of the game in Cronin at short, a ball player of top value in every way.

Connie Mack admitted last fall that he would have to bolster up more than one spot with the right man to beat Washington to the wire. And along this line one Joe McCarthy believes the Yankees will not be so far away when the dust of the stretch begins to rise.

Stribling and Griffith

Stribling took a big jump in the general direction of the heavyweight championship by nailing Von Porat and Scott. He then had a large dent put in his claim through a poor scrap with De Kuh. If he has another bad spot with Tuffy Griffith Friday night in Chicago he may find himself on the outside looking in again. His case isn't strong enough to stand two bad battles in a row.

In this connection there will be some loud cheering for Tuffy from the direction of Boston, where Jack Sharkey is still planning to get back into the heavyweight picture, with Stribling as the only barrier unless Baer, the entry from the West, makes good in a hurry.

Both Navy and Army will put on versatile attacks, much more so than they have used before. If there is anything like good footing, the crowd will see all the backfield action it is looking for, although the Navy attack will find the Army line from end to end is about as good as any it has met all year.

WELFARE WORKERS TO ADDRESS FANS

Wrestling fans tonight will get opportunity to hear something of the work of the Midnight Mission when Mrs. D. R. Covell, social welfare secretary, steps into the ring at the Olympic Auditorium at the invitation of Lou Daro. Fifty women social workers will accompany Mrs. Covell and take up a collection to provide further equipment for the third emergency dormitory opened under Midnight Mission auspices at Sixth and San Pedro streets last night. With two dormitories sleeping 600 at the latter address and beds for 400 at Mission headquarters, Fourth and Los Angeles streets, the homeless man problem is well in hand here, it is said.

COCHRAN TAKES LEAD OVER HOPPE

CHICAGO, Dec. 9. (AP)—Welker Cochran went ahead of Willie Hoppe in their 18.2 balkline billiards match today by winning the third block, 300 to 237. Cochran's victory gave him a two-to-one lead in the six-block match.

Today's match lasted only eight innings. Cochran's high run was 122 while Hoppe gathered runs of 75 and 79 in the first two innings to take the lead and then surrender it.

WOOD TRIMS TABERSKI

NEW YORK, Dec. 9. (AP)—Unheralded by any pretentious list of titles, Arthur Wood, a diminutive shot-maker from New York, today made a bid for the world's pocket-billiard championship turning back Frank Taberski of Schenectady, N. Y., in the first upset of the tournament at Dwyer's billiard academy. The score was 125 to 76 in thirty-eight innings.

STEINBORN WINNER

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 9. (AP)—Milo Steinborn of Germany defeated George Zaharias of Pueblo, Colo., in twenty-eight minutes in the main event of a wrestling show here tonight. Jack Washburn, Los Angeles, and John Katan, Vancouver, B. C., wrestled thirty minutes to a draw.

KERR USES DICTOGRAPH

O'NEILL LOSES ON FOUL

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Dec. 9. (AP)—Mickey O'Neill, Milwaukee, lost on a foul in the eighth round of a scheduled ten-round fight here tonight with Harry Dublinsky, Chicago.

CELLO WHIPS ANTLEY

JACKSONVILLE (Fla.) Dec. 9. (AP)—Tommy Cello, 136, of San Francisco, won a ten-round decision from Boots Antley, 140, Columbus, Ga., here today.

SWAM AGAIN WINS "TIMES" CUP TOURNEY

Ray Swam, lanky linotyper, shooting a 99-23-77, won The Times Cup event for the second straight time in Monday's tournament staged over the Palos Verdes course. Clarence Logue turned in an 82-4-78, to tie with Amsden Pettit, 94-16-78, for second low net honors. Claude Tramblie, with a 103-24-79 card, finished fourth. Times Golf Association members battle every two months for the honor of getting their names engraved on the cup. Earl Newton and Ray McAdam have won the event twice in previous tourneys, while Jimmy Finn has to his credit the only other victory.

HIGHLANDERS WILL BATTLE HOLLYWOOD

An attempt to upset the leading team in the City Soccer League will be made by those fast-stepping Scots Sunday afternoon at Loyola Field, when the Highlanders run into the Hollywood Sheiks. To date the Film City players have not been beaten in any league contest. The opening game at Loyola features a clash between Magyars and the Victorias. This should also be an interesting event. The Vics are coming fast night now. Tournament Park, Pasadena, brings two games before the public. The Pasadena A.C.C. team faces the Richfield Oilers and the Vikings play the Sons of St. George.

REISTER, SAL READY FOR PASADENA BOUT

Bobby Reister, Alhambra High School boy, and Baby Sal Sorio, San Bernardino Mexican welterweight, will wind up training today for the ten-round main event at the Pasadena arena tomorrow night. Reports from both camps have the two in the best possible condition.

Indications are that Sorio will be a slight favorite due to his greater experience. Both are knockerouts but Sorio has a more impressive record. It will be a ringwise veteran against an up-and-coming youngster. It should be a tough battle and there is a strong probability that it will not go the limit.

PUCK PLAYERS EXCHANGED

CANTONWINE BEATS SANTELL

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 9. (AP)—Howard Cantonwine, Iowa grappler, defeated Ad Santell, veteran Oakland wrestler, by winning two out of three falls in the feature match at Dreamland tonight.

WOOD ENTERED IN TOURNAMENT

National Semifinalist to Play in Local Event

Sidney Wood, blond Pasadena net flash who won two major tournaments last season besides being a semifinalist in the national singles, added plenty of class and brilliance to the entry of the first annual Southern California midwinter tennis championships, when he announced yesterday that he would play in the men's singles. The tournament, scheduled to open at the Palomar Tennis Club on the 22nd inst. and conclude on the 28th inst., is to be sponsored by the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce. It also is sanctioned by the United States Lawn Tennis Association and the Southern California Tennis Association.

Wood, who is here while tranferring from Oregon to the University of Arizona, has the type of game which is particularly adapted to the Palomar courts. As he is restricting his efforts to only one event some one is going to have to show some playing before Wood will be eliminated.

However, he can expect sufficient competition from none other than the local sensation of the season, Ellsworth Vines, also of Pasadena. Vines is this year's singles and mixed doubles champion of the Pacific Southwest, also having won the metropolitan turf court title of New York. Along with these two prominent entries are such stars as Keith Gledhill, ranked No 2 in Northern California; Lester Stoefen, San Gabriel Valley open title-holder; Dolf Muehleisen, national collegiate doubles champion; Jack De Lara, national public parks doubles titlist, and others. Vines plans to enter the men's doubles with Keith Gledhill, and may enter the mixed doubles field with Helen Marlowe, with whom he holds the Pacific-Southwest mixed doubles title.

Some of the entries in the women's events will be Helen Marlowe, second ranking junior girl in America; Dorothy Weisel of Sacramento, Gladys Patz, Dorothy Workman, Caroline Babcock, Violet Doeg, Dorothy Robinson, Esther Bartosh and Elizabeth Deike.

Acceptances of bids sent north to such celebrities as Ethel Burkhardt, Edith Cross, Phil Neer, Jerry Stratford, Mrs. L. A. Harper and others are expected to be forthcoming within the next few days. Tournament officials hold an optimistic outlook to the possibility that Mrs. Helen Wills-Moody, world's champion woman player, may come south for the event.

La Verne Five Hopes Bright

LA VERNE, Dec. 9.—With every man in good form, Coach Lee Eisan hopes to put a strong La Verne basketball team on the court to meet the Shamrock Club of Inglewood here Saturday night in the first practice game of the season for the Leopards.

Capt. Dale Stutzman, a smooth-working forward, will head the Leopards in the contest, which opens a short practice game schedule. Eisan is expected to develop his men slowly, to put them in the best possible condition for the belated La Verne entry in the Southern California Conference title race, January 17, against Redlands.

Working with Stutzman in a strong scoring combination, "Red" Weybright, forward, and Orville Thomason, center, complete the front line for the Green quintet. Fred Hubble and Al Nicolas are small but powerful guards. Hubble, captain of the football team, has recovered from injuries received in the final grid contest.

The Leopards are doped to open the season with a victory, but a large turnout is expected to see the team in action. Eisan will send his outfit into real tough competition beginning next month, opening with the U.C.L.A. game here January 3.

Several promising reserves are being groomed to fill in the present varsity system, and also to fit a second combination to be coached in Eisan's style of play. Nearly every man on the squad is due to see action in Saturday's tussle.

FAIRFAX NOSED OUT BY VENICE QUINTET

Chalking up its second victory in two days, Coach Grayson Turney's Venice quintet nosed out the Fairfax five, three-time winners of the Minor City League championship, in a hotly contested game on the former's court yesterday. The score, 22 to 21, clearly indicated how hard the game was fought. At half time the Colonials were leading by one point, and by the end of the third period they had increased the margin to two points. The Gondoliers, however, staged a vicious rally in the last quarter, scoring eight points and holding Fairfax to five, which gave them the decision by one point.

In the preliminary game between the two schools' lightweight teams, Fairfax came off the court with a 34-to-22 victory. The line-ups:

Venice (22.)		Fairfax (21.)

Firemen Work Hard for Tilt on Christmas

Fire department football players are leaving no stone unturned in their preparation for the intersectional game with North Dakota at the Coliseum Christmas Day. The firemen opened training Monday for the clash which is their "big game" of the season. The Smoke-eaters expect a terrific struggle when they clash with the "Flying Flickertails," but they also expect to win because of their power.

To date the Firemen have won every game but one and that was lost to the Olympic Club of San Francisco.

The North Dakota team has lost but one game this season and that was to the Army. At that, they had the satisfaction of scoring the most sensational touchdown of the afternoon. Coach C. A. West has a speedy backfield. Jarrett, the star of the North Dakota squad, has scored on every team this season that he has played against, including Army.

Knauf, Simons and Schave are the other members of the speedy combination. The Nodaks have a fine passing attack. Proof of this was given in the Army game, where they caught the Cadets napping a number of times on their lateral and forward passes.

TWO GAMES WON BY OCCIDENTAL CAGERS

Capt. Larry Dimpter, star Occidental forward, shot a field goal in the last half-minute of an overtime game to give his team a 26-to-24 victory over the powerful Kay's Bakery quintet on the Tigers' court last night. Trailing by 2 points at half-time, the Tigers came back strong and tied the score just as the game ended, 21 to 21. In the five-minute overtime period Oxy chalked up 5 points while holding the Bakers to 3, Dimpter's shot in the closing moments breaking the deadlock and giving the game to Occidental.

The Tigers' second team scored a 35-to-25 victory over the Southwestern quintet in the preliminary game largely through the sensational work of Forward Haitt, who accounted for 16 of his team's points.

The line-ups:

Kay's Bakery (24)		Tigers (26)
Vincenti (5)	F.	Glover (3)
Haney (4)	F.	Dimpter (9)
Jarred (6)	C.	Gustovich (4)

Occidental	11	10	21	5—26

Substitutions for Occidental: Noble, Matter (4;) Hiatt, Powers. For Kay's Bakery: Jayer, Ruscher (2.) Officials—Wheeler and Landres.

DRAFT DISPUTE SETTLED TODAY

PICK FOUR DIRECTORS

The four American League directors chosen today were Clark Griffiths of Washington, Phil Ball of St. Louis, Frank Navin of Detroit and Connie Mack of Philadelphia.

The National League elected Sam Breadon of St. Louis, Sidney Weil of Cincinnati, Frank B. York of Brooklyn, and L. C. Ruch, acting president of the Philadelphia Nationals, to its new board.

William Harridge was re-elected secretary of the American League for five years and Navin vice-president for a one-year term.

No indications of the stand the major leagues would take tomorrow in the draft conference came from the meetings and there was no intimation that the break between the big leagues and the minors could be healed. All player dealings between majors and the five nondraft minors ceased the 1st inst.

The National League magnates, meeting in regular session, while the American League owners gathered in a preliminary session to the regular meeting late tomorrow, failed to reach any conclusions on the highly controversial problems of the promiscuous home run and the lively ball, subjects slated for bitter argument.

HOMERS NOT CURBED

John A. Heydler, president of the National League, announced after the session that zoning of the parks to restrict home runs, an idea favored by several owners, was not even discussed.

The meeting adjourned after hearing Julian W. Curtis, president of the company manufacturing the present National League ball, explain its manufacture. The subject of the lively ball will be brought up again at another meeting of the league following the draft discussion tomorrow.

Heydler announced the National League went through its greatest season in 1930, but failed to show the profits of previous years, although the league attendance record was broken.

"Despite the nation-wide depression, the fifty-fifth season of the National League was its best season," he said. "Constantly increasing expenses of operation, however, kept half the clubs from making real profits."

The total attendance figures for the season were 5,500,000, he said, 500,000 better than the 1929 season and 136,000 above 1928, the best previous year in the league's history. Chicago led in home attendance with 1,463,624. Brooklyn played before 1,000,100 fans at home, exceeding 1,000,000 for the first time. New York proved the best road team, playing before 850,000 away from home.

USE 61,740 BASEBALLS

Exceptionally good weather and a close race brought about the new records, Heydler said. Only sixty-seven games were postponed because of rain all season. The league used 61,740 baseballs, another new record.

A discussion of the playing rules in the National League meetings brought no changes. A rule was passed permitting only uniformed players on the field during practice before league games.

The American League decided to number all players, both at home and on the road, and discussed the screening of ball parks to prevent home runs, but took no action.

RUGBY GAME ENDS IN DRAW

TWICKENHAM (Eng.) Dec. 9. (AP)—The rugby football game between Cambridge and Oxford, which is the English equivalent of the Harvard-Yale football game, ended in a draw today, both teams scoring 3 points.

to Stanford on that date. Montana will play O.S.C., November 7.

St. Mary's now has four games in the conference, playing Southern California in the opener September 26 at Los Angeles, California at Berkeley the week following, University of California at Los Angeles November 14, and Oregon at San Francisco November 26.

The storm center expected on the question of subsidizing athletes turned out to be one of calm at the faculty session. A unanimous resolution was passed for each institution to investigate conditions for possible "abuse of the conference policies," thereby reaffirming the stand of the conference against "subsidizing or soliciting athletes."

The resolution:

"The conference members reaffirm the policy of the conference against subsidizing and soliciting of athletes and undertake to investigate conditions in their respective institutions to ascertain whether abuses exist and if so to take active steps to correct them."

Investigation of the round robin and commissioner plans by committees was a gesture to eliminating the schedule making troubles such as came up between the Trojans and U.C.L.A. and also settle the problem of choosing officials for football games. Climatic conditions and traditional games were considered to be the chief obstacles to the round robin plan.

Prof. W. B. Owens, Stanford, was re-elected president of the faculty representatives, with Prof. Hugh C. Willett, S.C., renamed secretary-treasurer. Of the graduate managers, Bill Monahan, California, was elected president to replace Gwynn Wilson, former Trojan graduate manager now with the Los Angeles Olympic committee. Earl Campbell, Washington, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

While rumors continued to fly regarding the possibility of Dr. Clarence Spears, Oregon, taking over the coaching tasks at California, both he and Monahan, graduate manager at California, denied any move had been taken in such a direction.

"We have approached no one," said Monahan. "More than that we will have no announcement to make for at least three weeks."

Dr. Spears is under contract with Oregon, but it is understood that the contract can be nullified.

The next meeting probably will be held in Portland on June 5, 6 and 7, at which time the faculty committees will report their findings regarding a commissioner and the round robin.

Adoption of the eighteen-game schedule which came hand in hand with the welcoming of San Francisco University into the organization marked the meeting of the California Intercollegiate Baseball Association held in connection with the Pacific Coast Conference sessions.

Coach A. J. Sturzenegger, U.C.L.A., was made president of the group, with Arnold Eddy, Southern California, named secretary-treasurer. The framing of the schedule was delayed pending reports from San Francisco regarding use of the Seals' baseball park there. Seven teams are now members of the organization, including Stanford, California, U.C.L.A., Southern California, St. Mary's and Santa Clara.

Joe Bell and Red Grigry, Long Beach welterweight scrappers, headline a thirty-round card at the Wilmington Bowl tonight. They step eight rounds or less at 150 pounds in a rematch which is attracting widespread interest throughout the harbor district.

Other bouts carded are: Johnny Gonzales vs. Baby Jack Dempsey, featherweights, six rounds; Thor Olsen vs. Jimmy Lucas, bantamweights, six rounds; Frankie Boldt vs. Eddie Lozzano, lightweights, six rounds; Roy White vs. Tony Cruze, welterweights, four rounds.

RABBIT PUNCHES

THE BEST 'BAMA TEAM

BAD news for Washington State.

Bill Alexander, coach of Georgia Tech, was present at Christy Walsh's all-American football dinner the other night, and he says the present Alabama team is the best ever.

"It is considerably better than the Alabama team that beat the University of Washington, 20 to 19, five years ago.

"It has a stronger line and a better-balanced backfield than the '25 outfit."

Alexander didn't elaborate on this brief picture of the 1930 Crimson Tide, but that tells the story in a nutshell.

The 1925 Alabama team was a mighty sweet outfit with Johnny Mack Brown, Pooley Hubert and Grant Gillis in the backfield, and it beat one of the best outfits ever developed on the Coast.

However, there is some solace in the thought that Washington State swept through all opposition undefeated this year and needs no excuses said for it.

It is a good, tough team, and if Alabama wins the southerners will know they have been in a battle.

THORPE VS. NEVERS

WALSH'S All-American coaches, minus Knute Rockne, were asked a flock of questions by assembled guests the other night.

The prize was one shot at Alexander.

"Why do the southern teams that come to the Coast always fight the Civil War over again?"

"They don't," replied Alexander. "If they did we'd need only five men to your eleven."

Pop Warner was asked to name the outstanding football players of all time.

Frank Hinkey, the Yale end; Pudge Heffelfinger, Yale guard, and Jim Thorpe, Carlisle back, were his choices.

However, he added that Ernie Nevers of Stanford was a greater fullback than Thorpe because of his earnestness.

"Thorpe had greater natural ability," he said, "but Nevers was always trying.

"I remember one game many, many years ago. Thorpe was playing safety when the opposing team sailed a long forward pass down the field.

"Thorpe stood under the goal posts and let the receiver by a miraculous leap catch the ball for a touchdown.

"I believed Thorpe could have broken up the play, and I asked him about it after the game.

"'Sure, I could,' said Jim. 'But I didn't think the receiver could get under the ball.'"

SOLO FOR ROCKNE

SPEAKING of Rockne's absence from the all-American coaches banquet, which featured an airplane trip by Alexander from the South, it is said Rockne plans withdrawal from the Walsh quartet.

He has ideas of doing a solo turn on all-American picking, leaving Pop Warner, Tad Jones and Alexander in the lurch.

In view of the fact that Rockne probably has more all-Americans in captivity at South Bend than any other section of the country this may not be bad reasoning.

"Southern California gets the best material on the Coast.

"But Notre Dame gets the best material in the United States."

SPEARS AND CALIFORNIA

THE boys continue to sign up Fat Spears for the opening coaching berth at California, and both Fat and Berkeley authorities continue to deny it.

The best argument in favor of the former Minnesota coach taking the job is dissatisfaction with his present job at Oregon.

At least, that is the sub-rosa information that leaks from well-informed sources.

CASEY IS NEW HARVARD COACH

Eddie Casey was a sensational football player. In his prep school days, he was captain of the famous Exeter team which swamped Andover, 78 to 7.

From his first year on the Harvard team in 1916, Casey was a sensation. In the Yale game of that year, he broke loose for a 73-yard run from scrimmage or a touchdown which was not allowed as somebody was caught holding in the Harvard line. Harvard lost the game, 6-3. It was one of the few games the late Percy D. Haughton, the Knute Rockne of that era, permitted to slip from his grasp.

After the interruption in college football caused by the war, Eddie returned and made history on the gridiron. In the Harvard-Princeton game in 1919, he completed a last-minute forward pass, romping across the goal line to tie the score. A few weeks later, against Yale, he made a fancy one-hand catch of a forward pass and, by clever running, evaded the Yale quarterback to give Harvard a victory.

Arnold Horween, retiring Harvard head coach, whose first assistant Casey has been for several years, was captain of the 1919 Harvard team which traveled to the West Coast and defeated Oregon at the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena. Casey was the star halfback.

Casey's career as a coach has been uniformly successful. For two seasons he coached the Mount Union College team at Alliance, O., and for four years he put a formidable team on the field to represent Tufts College of Medford, Mass.

Coming to Cambridge as freshman coach, his charges lost the first game, but none thereafter.

Harvard's former all-American halfback hardly looks stocky enough for the role of football hero he has so brilliantly played. Quiet of manner, he is credited with having those mysterious personal qualities which send eleven young men out on the field of play ready to do or die. The mystery seems to be how so quiet a chap as Casey accomplishes these results without any fireworks.

They say he designs plays that can be carried out, trains his teams to execute them and organizes his strategy to hit hardest where the opposition is weakest.

The football world will know next year whether all this is true.

WHITE SEA BASS OFF OCEAN PARK

OCEAN PARK, Dec. 9.—Unexpectedly running into a large school while rock cod fishing off the coast here, the Scandia II hauled in a record catch of white sea bass, according to a report turned in by Capt. Dick Hernage. The snappers provided the anglers aboard the vessel with plenty of excitement, Hernage landing three that weighed 25 pounds apiece.

NAVY MENTOR NOT WORRIED

worn down with the burden of line-cracking all season, and is suffering from a broken great toe and a deep gash across his face.

Hagberg, heaviest of the backfield men, has been in and out with an injury all year. Hurley, Campbell and Williams, subs, lack experience under fire.

Navy Bill and Rip Miller, former Notre Dame guard who is line coach, both are satisfied with the line, with Byng and Steffanides at the wings, Lou Bryan and Big Bob Bowstrom at the tackles, Gray and Underwood at guards, and Tut Tuttle at center. But both coaches bewailed that there are few replacements.

ARMY WEAKENED BY INJURIES

WEST POINT (N. Y.) Dec. 9. (AP) With the entire corps of cadets and an improvised band along the sidelines, the Army football squad went through one of the hardest scrimmages of the season today in preparation for Saturday's charity game against the Navy.

During the defensive part of the scrimmage, the plebe team put on Navy plays with considerable success. Johnson, plebe halfback, who is short and stocky, repeatedly found holes in the line and bored through for substantial gains.

On the attack, Coach Sasse again experimented with the Number One back position, which was first filled by Letzelter and then by Sebastian. With both these players unavailable for the Navy game, Sasse used Frentzel and Glattly in the position. A new formation made its appearance on the field in the drill. Coaches said it had been designed for use against Notre Dame, but weather conditions prevented its use.

Today was spent in polishing up the team's weak spots and it is expected that the last hard practice tomorrow will be given over to obtaining co-ordination.

Ed Messinger, right end, joined the injured list today with a shoulder injury received in Monday's practice. Trainer Wayne Hauck expects to have him in condition by Saturday.

At the close of today's drill, Coach Sasse said, "the Army will need its full strength Saturday, but will not have it. We will go into the game more seriously handicapped by injuries than any other game this season."

ALABAMA OFFICIAL HERE FOR CONTEST

Tom M. McKnight, publicity director for the University of Alabama, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to help Washington State College officials with promotion of the New Year's Day game to be played between teams of these two institutions. McKnight is stopping at the Biltmore and brought word that Wallace Wade and his athletes will reach Los Angeles on the 23rd inst.

COMPTON TEAM TACKLES MENLO

Rival Jaysee Elevens Play Next Saturday

Compton Junior College is expected to receive its first defeat of the season Saturday when the Tartars meet the Menlo team in the final round of the State Jaysee play-off. The game between the northern and southern Jaysee champions will be played on the Compton gridiron, with the kick-off scheduled for 2 p.m.

Coach Pine's Tartars have gone through their conference and practice games without a defeat, but they are expected to come out on the short end of the score in the battle with the northern team. Records show that the Menlo team has been beaten but once this year, falling before the Chico State College eleven by a 12-to-0 count. The high spot in the Menlo schedule is a 92-0 win over the Humboldt State School.

Three former Stanford stars are the Menlo mentors. Dud DeGroot, Russell Sweet, and Herbie Fleishhacker installed the Warner system in the team and it is meeting with much success. Comparative scores point toward a Menlo victory for the northerners, in their trip south at the beginning of the present season, defeated the Santa Ana Dons, 20 to 0. The Tartars, in a league game two weeks later, battled to a 6-6 tie with the Dons.

The Menlo Oaks are big and powerful, their line averaging above 180 pounds. Al Norberg, a six-foot four end, is the captain of the squad and a star on the offense and defense. Wilton Wilton, brother of the famous Stanford star of a few years ago, and "Frenchy" LaCombe, husky fullback, are the mainstays in the backfield.

Compton will be handicapped by the loss of Howard Clark, first-string running guard. Clark has proved to be the outstanding linesman in the Jaysee conference this year and is an almost unanimous choice for the all-conference guard berth. He was badly hurt in the encounter with the tough Riverside Tigers last week, receiving a few cracked ribs. It is extremely doubtful whether he will be in shape to play Saturday. Leland Goss, the other guard, was also shaken up by the Riverside squad and probably will see very little service. Tom Yancey, who was out of the tilt last week on account of injuries, is expected to start at his regular position of quarterback on the Tartar team.

Baseball Notes

Babe Ruth's home run total alone last season exceeded that of the entire Boston club. And at that Boston made more circuit drives than did the best home run club in the American League in any of the first twenty years of its history. Up to 1920 the most home runs made by an American League club in a single season was 45. The New York Yankees made that number in 1919.

Twice during the past twenty-five years two clubs in the American have tied for leading home run honors. Philadelphia and Boston had 44 each in 1910. New York and St. Louis had 110 each in 1925.

"Lefty" Grove twirled twenty-eight winning games for the champion Athletics during the regular 1930 season. This total of victories has been exceeded in the American League only two times during the past seventeen seasons. Cicotte twirled 29 winning games for the Chicago White Sox in 1919. Bagby won 31 for Cleveland in 1920.

Smead Jolley topped all outfielders of the American League in assists with 17 last season. Jolley assisted two players out at the plate in one inning, executing two of the most phenomenal fielding plays of the season. Jolley's assist total of 17 is the smallest number for a leader in this department since the beginning of the league.

The Detroit Tigers have produced the leading batsman of the American League in sixteen seasons. Yet in all of those years the title went to only three players. Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann and Heinie Manush.

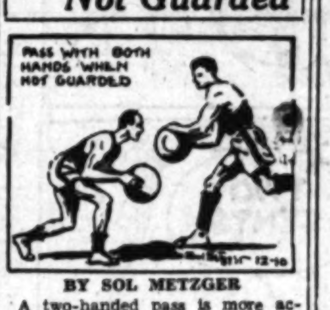
Al Simmons is the first member of the Athletics to win high batting honors in the American League since Eddie Collins took the batting honors in 1914. Ty Cobb, Detroit, has been generally credited with leading the league in batting in 1914, a title which he hardly earned that season for he did not play in 100 games. Napoleon Lajoie was the only other Philadelphia player to lead the American League in batting. He batted .405 in 1901. Although the Athletics have taken eight pennants it was only in the seasons of 1914 and 1930 that they won the pennant and also produced the champion batsman of the league.

WHITEHORSE TO MEET CASANOVA IN RING GO

Carlo Curtis has signed Chief Whitehorse to meet Sandy Casanova in the six-round wind-up at the Main-street Athletic Club Saturday night. Although the Indian weighs around the 200-pound mark and has confined his activities to heavyweight bouts, he was lined up as Casanova's opponent when the light-heavyweights refused to mingle with the flashy young Mexican. Whitehorse has a chance to become a big Main-street card.

Jack Charvez, Arizona Mexican light-heavyweight, will meet Nish Keokovian, hard-hitting 165-pounder, in the second six-rounder on the card. Charvez made a big hit last Saturday night by his good fight with Tom Moore, whom he stopped in four rounds.

Passing Ball Not Guarded



PASS WITH BOTH HANDS WHEN NOT GUARDED
12-10

BY SOL METZGER

A two-handed pass is more accurate than a one-handed pass in basketball. One can more easily control the speed of the ball, too. It's the way for a player to pass when he has an unmolested moment on the court. In this way you can feint and have time to recover and throw the ball past an opponent who is blocking your teammate.

One can pass high or low or use the tricky bounce pass when he has both hands on the ball. Due to the short pass attack ruling the court game today, one must be clever in two-handed passing.

TAB DAN CARRIGAN AS MAJOR LOOP PROSPECT

Dan Carrigan, playing center ice for the Los Angeles Millionaire hockey team, is being tabbed as a future major-league performer. He will be closely watched by scouts when he appears in the Millionaire line-up tomorrow night against the San Francisco Tigers at the Winter Garden.

Dan has been the spark of his team's attack in the early games of the California Hockey League season and his great playing is one reason why the club is among the leaders. He has taken active part in almost every goal scored by the Millionaires so far, keeping up his great work of last year when he was seventh highest scorer in the league.

Mel Malwick has several youngsters on the Los Angeles team who help make the Millionaires the most colorful team in the circuit. Wolf Peltier is the only veteran player, with Dutch Singer, Archie Gray, Jack Pilkin, Lindsay Carver, Guidos Roy, George Brown, Johnny Bruenteau and Ted Jacques rounding out the club.

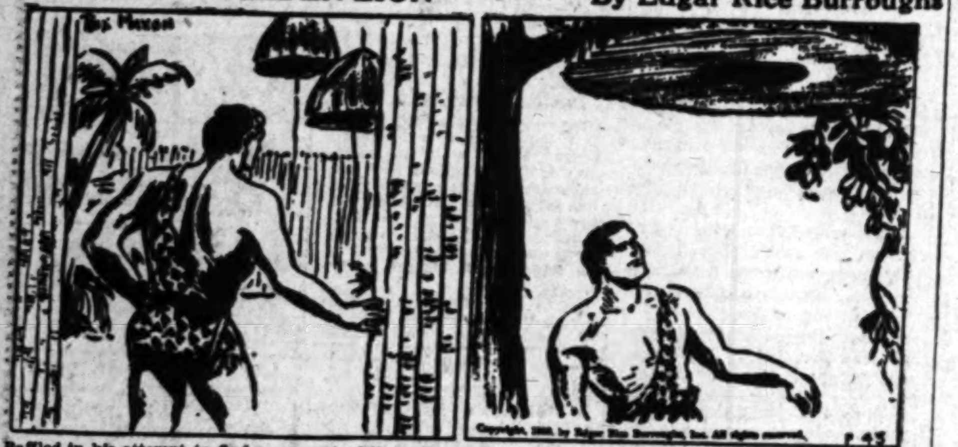
TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION

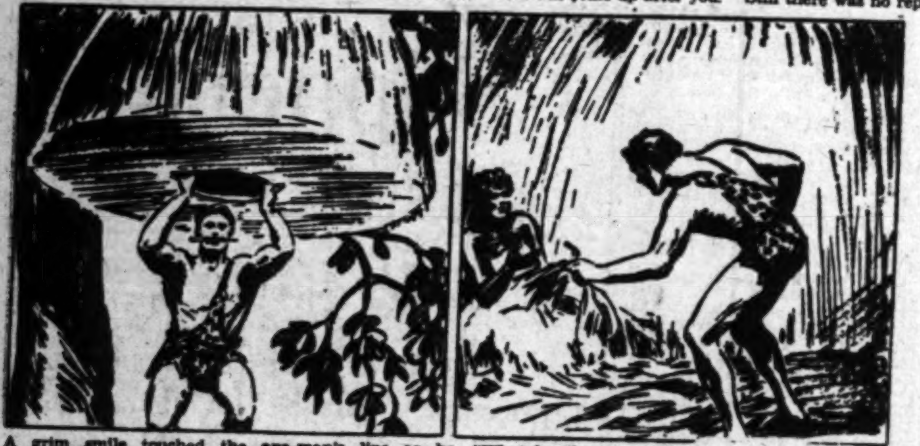
By Edgar Rice Burroughs



Copyright, 1930, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.
F 43

Baffled in his attempt to find a way out of the valley, Tarzan decided to return for La, and with her try to escape in another direction. All night he traveled. With dawn he came to the village and saw at once that something was amiss. Not a sound or movement came from within the palisade. Running to the hut in which La had been hidden he hastily ascended the rope and examined the interior. It was vacant. Nor was there the slightest clew as to where she had vanished or how.

Descending, he searched the village for some hint as to the fate of its inhabitants and of La, the High Priestess of Opar. Then his keen eyes noted a slight movement of one of the swinging, cage-like habitations some distance from him. No rope trailed this time from its doorway. Tarzan called; there was no answer. Yet he was almost positive there was someone hiding in the hut. "Come down!" he called again, "or I will come up after you." Still there was no reply.



A grim smile touched the ape-man's lips as he drew his hunting knife from its sheath and placed it between his teeth. Then with a cat-like spring, he leaped for the opening, caught its sides and drew his body up into the interior of the hut. There in the dim light he saw a bundle of leaves and grasses lying against the opposite side of the structure. Crossing to these he tore them aside, revealing the huddled form of a terrified woman—but it was not the High Priestess of Opar!

"What has happened?" he demanded, "where are the villagers? Where is my mate?" "The Bolgani have taken them all away," cried the terrified woman, "they found the body of their fellow inside the gate of the Palace of Diamonds. They knew he had come here, and no one had seen him alive after that. They tortured us until our warriors told them all. Then they went away taking every man, woman and child but me with them. They took your mate also. I hid. I do not know why they did not find me."

Jacquelin Bobier

THE old proverb "you can't keep a good man down," now will have to be revised to include also the fairer sex. Miss Jacqueline Bobier, young Los Angeles aviatrix, who admits she has soloed only once, says she is now ready to attempt a cross-country flight.

Miss Bobier says she was inspired by the records recently made by Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller and by Miss Ruth Nichols, whom she watched take off early yesterday on an attempted west-east record-breaking flight. The ambitious flyer plans to begin her cross-continental trip from United Airport, Burbank.

She is shown here with a model of the airport, the feature of which is a smoke pot in the center of the field that shows which way the wind is blowing. At night the smoke signal is illuminated, thus eliminating the hazard of landing with the wind.

trict. He said that Macbeth requested that if Brown violated the law that Brown not be put in jail. Hager said he then gave Macbeth such an understanding of his attitude that Macbeth said to Brown that he guessed they had got in the wrong place. They left, Macbeth saying he would "go to the head," Hager testified.

When Brown first appeared before the grand jury he said he had met Macbeth last July. He said Macbeth told him that he (Macbeth) was trying to break up a pay-off system among grafters in Central-avenue district. Macbeth, he said, solicited his aid. Shortly afterward he said he was called by Macbeth into a conference in the latter's office at 516 South Spring street in which were Steckel and Mosher. He said they solicited his aid in enabling Steckel to clean up the district and he said he would give it if he could select the police officers who were to go into the district. This, he said, was agreed upon.

RAIDS DISCUSSED

Accordingly, Brown testified, Scott and Kelso were sent into the district and consulted him in his home about plans.

"They would advise me," Brown testified, "whether it would be safe to arrest this bootlegger or that bootlegger and we would discuss it."

He said that the two officers arrested Boyle Heights, Hollywood, Huntington Park and Seventy-seventh-street bootleggers who were making deliveries in the Central-avenue district. He directed them, he testified, where to book the persons arrested. The activities of Scott and Kelso, he said, drew jealousy of other vice squads and in their best interests, according to Brown, he sought to have Macbeth see Mayor Porter and arrange for them to work out of Newton-street station. He said Macbeth approached Steckel on the matter, but did not get far and then he and Macbeth went to the Police Commission in a private conference. He said they outlined to the commission their plans for police reorganization in the district and that the commission said it would confer with the Chief about it.

THREATS RELATED

Brown testified that during August, September and October he, Scott and Kelso were in contact "twice a day, day and night." Finally, he said, their activities against bootleggers were so great that they were approached "by two or three bootleggers that lived in Boyle Heights," who threatened the officers for their activities.

In response to a question from Dep. Dist.-Atty. Stewart, Brown denied that there was conversation about Scott and Kelso going after Boyle Heights bootleggers and laying off Central-avenue district bootleggers, the district which they were supposed to be cleaning up.

Brown testified that with Smith's aid they had made some arrests, but that Smith was working also with Capt. Hager's squad and was "double shooting" both groups.

Study Home for Children Will Be Dedicated

Dedication of the Children's Protective Association's new Bluegate Cottage Study Home for problem children at 2824 Hyans street, one of the first of its kind in the State, will be conducted at 3:30 p.m. today by Dr. Miriam Van Waters, referee of the Los Angeles Juvenile Court.

The cottage was made possible by contributions to the association. The land was given by Allen H. Ratterree and the construction cost was loaned by a member of the board. As a memorial to Mrs. E. K. Foster, former president of the association, her friends furnished the living-room. The children's rooms were furnished by the Marlborough School Charity Association. The Carl Curtis School equipped the playground. Paul Howard landscaped and planted the grounds and Harold Grieve designed and donated the blue gate.

Following the dedication the annual meeting of the association will be held and officers for the new term elected.

EVICTION OF SICK TENANT HELD CRIME

Court Finds Mrs. Carson Guilty of Peace Breach in Illegal Ejection

Mrs. Hersee Carson was guilty of disturbing the peace when she ejected a sick woman and four children from her house at 1450 Fairfax avenue for nonpayment of rent, Municipal Judge Eagan ruled yesterday. She will be sentenced today.

Mrs. Dorothy K. Simmons, called to the stand by Deputy City Prosecutor Ida V. Wells, testified that Mrs. Carson ejected her from the house and removed the furniture without warning on November 25 last. Her husband, Fred C. Simmons, declared that he twice tendered Mrs. Carson the amount due for rent and that she refused it, telling him that she wanted him to vacate the house.

Mrs. Carson, on he witness stand, denied that Simmons had offered to pay the rent, which she said was three weeks in arrears, and said that she had given him notice to vacate.

In handing down his decision Judge Eagan said: "The evidence clearly shows that the defendant took the law into her own hands. Her attitude on the stand made quie evident her feeling of animosity toward the complaining witness. To acquit her would be to place the stamp of approval on the practice of illegal ejection of tenants. There is a legal way of doing this and in not using it the defendant in view of the illness of the complaining witness, committed a breach of her peace."

Warning Issued Against Picking of Holly Berries

A warning to the public against the picking of Christmas holly without the written permission of the property owner on whose land the berry grows, was broadcast yesterday by County Forester Turner.

"Holly is protected by both State and county laws," Turner declared. "Such protection was provided because our holly, also known as the Christmas berry or Toyon, is rapidly disappearing from the hills of the county. Violation of the law is punishable by a maximum fine of $500 or imprisonment for six months in jail, or both."

He said that the picking of mistletoe is no violation of the law because the plant is a parasite, living on trees, and it is a benefit to have it removed.

Scientists Will Meet Tomorrow

Scientists from all parts of the United States will convene tomorrow at University of California at Los Angeles for a three-day convention, when members of the American Physical Society and the Accoustical Society of America conduct meetings in the Physics-Biology Building at the University.

The program of activities will be opened at 3 o'clock tomorrow when members of both societies inspect technical apparatus at Hollywood studios.

OILING OF RUNWAYS AT AIRPORTS ASKED

A request for $3200 to be used in oiling additional runways at the Municipal Airport was filed with the City Council yesterday by Airport Director Barnitz. He points out that only a small part of the field is drained and that after a rain landings and takeoffs are dangerous. Traffic also has increased to the point where additional runways are necessary. The request was referred to the Finance Committee.

NEW INDUSTRY HARBOR ENTRY

Potassium Phosphate Plant Latest Addition

Former Trona Factory Due to Start Shortly

First Season's 17,000-Ton Output Contracted

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

Another new bulk product industry, the Agricultural Potassium Phosphate Company of California, Ltd., will start operations at the former Trona plant, San Pedro, within the next two weeks, turning out fertilizer by the thousands of tons for domestic use and for shipment to foreign countries.

A. L. Kreiss, president of the company, said the plant's entire output for the present season, 17,000 tons, already has been sold, and that bookings have been made for part of next year's output when the plant will reach its capacity of 40,000 tons.

Carloads of phosphate rock have arrived during the past week from Paris, Idaho, where the company has its own mines and 350 tons of potash from Italy have been discharged this week. Potash also will be brought in from Trona and from new discoveries at Las Vegas, Nev.

"Forty-five hundred tons of this season's output will go to local orchards," declared Kreiss, "2000 tons to China, 1400 to the Philippines, 4500 tons to Louisiana and the rest will be supplied coastwise. It is an odorless, calcined and ground product comprising 20 per cent potassium and the rest phosphate, and is immediately available as fertilizer for fruit orchards, rice, sugar cane and such."

The product will be put up in sacks after treating and grinding, the entire operation being mechanical, the plant calling for only twenty-four employees. The plant yesterday was visited by several dozen Southland dealers in fertilizers. It is the only wholesale manufacturing company of the kind on the Coast.

CASE OIL TERMINAL OPENING FETE TODAY

Wilmington Chamber of Commerce plans a celebration for the formal opening of the Harbor Department's new $300,000 case-oil loading station Saturday at Berth 181. A luncheon will be given at the California Yacht Club that noon with speeches from Walter B. Allen, president of the Harbor Commission; R. J. Scott, fire chief, and Don C. Fohl, president of the Wilmington chamber. At 2 p.m. city fire boats will put on a water-spraying show adjacent, and ships near-by will be decorated. The terminal comprises a dock 440 feet long, on which is a 240-foot fireproof storage shed, capable of holding 227,000 cases of canned petroleum. It is the first section of a 1000-foot terminal projected by the department.

Hamburg-American steam liner Tacoma arrived from Europe yesterday afternoon to disembark seventeen passengers and discharge North European cargo and several thousand stems of Panama bananas.

More than 3500 bales of local cotton, 1000 tons of potash and general merchandise will go aboard the new Japanese motorship Kwanto Maru, due today from New York to load for the Orient. She is on the return leg of her first voyage since commissioning, having brought a fortune in silk to this coast from Japan on her outward voyage. She is another of the six eighteen-knot freighters being entered in the Yokohama-New York run with Los Angeles as the only port of call. Williams, Dimond & Co., are agents.

Capacity passenger sailings from Los Angeles and San Francisco to the Orient are reported booked on all ships of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha during the first three months of next year, according to local officials of the line.

"The way advance bookings are pouring in, 1931 will shatter all previous records badly," according to J. Vincent Braga, local passenger manager. "Only reluctance of the travelers to be away from home on Christmas and New Year's prevents the rush movement beginning now, for the yuletide means as much to Japanese as to Americans."

Among the special parties will be one of forty passengers booked by the D. F. Robertson Travel Bureau to sail from here January 28 on the Tatsuta Maru.

Ensenada will prove the New Year's lure again for seagoing travelers, the Admiral Line scheduling two vessels to carry excursionists to that resort for the holiday. The Admiral Rogers will make her regular run, and will be augmented by the liner Dorothy Alexander, both vessels leaving the Wilmington terminal the night of the 30th inst., and returning here the morning of January 1. The Dorothy Alexander will resume her run to North Pacific ports sailing from here the night of January 1.

The Texas Company tanker Australia, here yesterday, was struck by lightning coming up from Panama, but suffered no damage except a badly frightened crew, according to Capt. R. B. Armstrong. A ball of fire crashed through a port, darted through a room and tumbled down an alleyway and leaped on into the ocean. It burned out the battery in the chief steward's flashlight, and temporarily paralyzed his fingers so he couldn't drop the light. The tanker carried out 145,000 barrels of petroleum products for New York.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 9. (AP)—A white skiff, about fifteen feet long, was reported floating in the coastwise steamship lane about twenty-three miles northwest of Point Buchon, off the California coast today, by the master of the tanker Los Angeles.

The craft was reported to the local branch of the United States Hydrographic Office. Marine authorities said they had no record of such a craft being missing.

The Dutch motorship Damsterdyk arrived in Liverpool from the Pacific Coast yesterday, after a fast passage of twenty-four days, wireless advices received by local officials of the Holland-America Line reported.

F. P. R. De Lanoy, Pacific Coast manager for the line, said the vessel equaled the record of her sistership, Delftdyk. The two vessels, he said, are the fastest plying between the Pacific Coast and the United Kingdom.

SEATTLE, Dec. 9. (AP)—Returns to Seattle fishermen from halibut, sable and mixed codfish during the past eleven months showed a loss of $351,271 for the period, as compared with last year, although almost 333,000 pounds more were taken, the Fishing Vessel Owners' Association announced today. Lower average returns for fresh fish were blamed for the decline.

In 1223 trips to the halibut banks, vessels reporting to the association landed 12,806,055 pounds, against 12,465,790 pounds last year. The halibut was valued at $1,501,031, compared with $1,829,488 for the catch in 1929.

Almost the entire fleet of fishing vessels is tied up here for minor repairs and inspection for the opening season February 15.

TACOMA, Dec. 9. (AP)—With cargo including 35,000 sacks of flour and 500,000 feet of lumber the Margaret Dollar sailed for the Orient from here tonight. The only other departures during the day were four coasters, the James Griffith and the Dorothy Alexander sailed for San Francisco, and the Santa Ines and Caddopeak sailed for Los Angeles.

NEW YORK THEATERS REGARD SLUMP PAST

While prosperity is by no means conspicuous in New York and other eastern cities, there is an undercurrent of feeling in theatrical circles there that the worst is over, said Roy Del Ruth, Warner Brothers' director, who returned yesterday from a visit of several weeks to the Atlantic Coast. Theatrical production is much less active than a year ago, but many of the theaters, particularly those having first-class attractions, are doing a satisfactory business, the director said. There is considerable unemployment among theatrical people and many of them are looking longingly toward Hollywood for a solution of their economic difficulties.

Tuberculosis Fight Praised

Dr. George Parrish, City Health Officer, and nurse shown with one of the little girls who attend the City Health Clinic, sponsored by the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association.

AN APPEAL to the public to support the Christmas seal campaign of the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association was made yesterday by Dr. George Parrish, city health officer.

"Thanks to the efforts of the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association," Parrish said, "this city has been witnessing a gradual decline in the death rate over a number of years. In 1904, when the National Tuberculosis Association was formed, it was 200 per 100,000 population. This has been cut down to more than half in recent years."

Dr. Parrish disclosed that the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association supports a department of nutrition in the city tuberculosis division of the health department, a division of tuberculosis in the city health department, and a number of free tuberculosis clinic centers throughout the city.

Firemen Put Out Plaze in Dozing Man's Clothing

VENTURA, Dec. 9.—While rushing to a brush fire near Newbury Park last midnight, Ventura county firemen stopped to put out a burning log which they noticed by the highway.

Reaching the blazing piece of timber, they found a sleeping man snuggled against it, with his clothing on fire in several places.

The man was awakened and the fire extinguished. His name was not obtained, as he could not speak English, according to his rescuers, County Fire Warden Walter Emerick and James Achilles, assistant warden.

They proceeded to the Newbury Park blaze, quenching it after one-half acre of brush had been charred.

Graves Burial Set Tomorrow

Funeral services for Myron O. Graves, 68-year-old attorney who died from injuries he received when his automobile caught fire and turned over Monday, will be conducted at 2 p.m. tomorrow from the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Mr. Graves lived at 4703 Vincent Road.

The fatal accident occurred at Yosemite Drive and Eagle Rock Boulevard. The cause of the automobile catching fire has not been determined by the Coroner. Graves tried to halt his flaming car but lost control and it plunged into the ditch. He was catapulted to the sidewalk, suffering a fractured skull.

He leaves his widow and a daughter, Mrs. J. E. Grab of Los Angeles.

Beach Physician Accused of Illegal Operation

Dr. William C. Fiske, 70-year-old Hermosa Beach physician, took the stand in Superior Judge Hardy's court yesterday and testified in his own defence at his trial for the murder of Miss Vera Nelson, 18 years of age, who is asserted to have died from an illegal operation.

The physician declared that the girl's death came as a result of an accident in the operating room while he was performing the legitimate duties of a physician.

When court adjourned last night James P. Costello, deputy District Attorney, prosecuting the case, had just opened his cross-examination of the witness. His questioning will be resumed when the trial reopens today.

Truck Drivers Urged to Aid Traffic Safety

Seventeen hundred truck drivers, and through them other truck drivers in Los Angeles and vicinity, were urged last night at a meeting in Manual Arts High School auditorium to do their share in curbing traffic accidents. They were told the holiday season is a particularly trying time, because of heavy vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

The meeting was called by the Pacific Indemnity Company. Deputy Chief of Police Davis, Judge Pope, E. B. Lefferts of the Southern California Automobile Club and Dr. Edward S. Merrill, head of the neuropsychopathic department of the Los Angeles College of Osteopathy, addressed the truck drivers.

Dr. Merrill said many motorists drive who ought not to be permitted to do so. A recent survey in Detroit, he said, disclosed that only 13 per cent of those at steering wheels are 100 per cent fit mentally. Of the rest 29 per cent are doubtfully equipped mentally, and 58 per cent has no mental equipment at all as legitimate car drivers. He intimated similar conditions may exist in other cities.

FLYING TACKLE BY BRILL GETS SUSPECT

PASADENA, Dec. 9. — Following his capture by a private citizen last night, John Grable, dapper 21-year-old burglar suspect, admitted today that he has entered at least a dozen homes here during the last two months. Grable, who resides at 264 East Glenarm street, is a Pasadena High School graduate and is married. He was captured, police report, by Gerald Kersten Brill of 151 West Glenarm street, after Brill had surprised him in the act of packing up a box of loot secured in the Brill residence.

Doing honor to the Notre Dame halfback, "Marty" Brill, the local Brill brought down his quarry with a neat flying tackle, after chasing him for a block to 65 Arlington Drive. Brill held Grable for "no gain" until police arrived.

SWEEPING OF JAIL CELL FINDS "ESCAPED" BLOND

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 9. — Two trusties armed with brooms solved a vexing problem for the Santa Monica police last night when the dust they raised while cleaning out an empty cell proved every bit as effective as tear gas. They heard a cough, a feminine cough; and each trusty is said to have looked at the other accusingly. Then they peeped under a cot, and found Marian Fabian, 21-year-old blond of Hollywood and Denver, who had disappeared mysteriously from the woman's quarters of the jail following her arrest on a bad-check charge, which she is said to have admitted.

According to Lieut. Randall, the girl's disappearance, sometime between Sunday evening and Monday morning, last, had baffled turnkeys, matrons and even the detectives bureau. Like a female Houdini, the blond had been tucked in for the night, only to show up missing when the breakfast call came next morning. A description of her expensive coat, ankle-length chiffon dress and other details was prepared for broadcasting; but the trusties and their faithful brooms saved the situation. She was said today to have slipped out through an unlocked cell door, only to discover she could not get through outer doors which were locked. Then she apparently hid under the bed in an empty cell adjoining her own. She had told officers she came to Hollywood from Denver and ran out of funds. Her efforts to run out of jail failed.

Welfare and Relief Agencies Will Forego Drives

Welfare and relief agencies of the Los Angeles Community Chest are under agreement with the board of directors not to make an independent solicitation of money through door-to-door appeals, tag days, pencil days, etc., according to General Manager D. C. MacWatters. Receipt of reports that an agency was soliciting financial aid of local housewives prompted the statement.

"The fact that the 1931 Community Chest campaign still is short of the amount that is actually needed to defray the minimum maintenance expenses of the 134 welfare and relief agencies is giving the agencies more or less concern just now," said Mac Watters, "but in spite of the seriousness of the situation due to unemployment and business recession, the agencies have not been authorized to make an independent canvass for financial aid.

"Some of the agencies, particularly those that look after homeless children, unemployed men—broke and without food and shelter—destitute families and the friendless aged, each year at this time struggle to provide a small degree of Christmas cheer and happiness for them. Unprecedented demands and badly overtaxed budgets make such a service extremely difficult and doubtful this year.

"Many of the friendless and unfortunate of Los Angeles will have a cheerless Christmas, if our citizens do not adequately assist the Community Chest in caring for the poor and needy. Never before in the history of the Chest has there been a time when the needs were so numerous and urgent. Persons who have not subscribed are earnestly asked to do so at once; those who have subscribed and can make an additional subscription should send their donations to the Community Chest, 215 Chamber of Commerce Building, without delay."
